The Creation of Eve and Renaissance Naturalism Jack M. Greenstein,2016-08-23 This book traces how four early Renaissance masters represented the Creation of Eve which showed woman rising weightlessly from Adam s side at God s command Judaism and Christian Art Herbert L. Kessler,David Nirenberg,2012-10-08 Christian cultures across the centuries have invoked Judaism in order to debate represent and contain the dangers presented by the sensual nature of art By engaging Judaism both real and imagined they explored and expanded the perils and possibilities for Christian representation of the material world The thirteen essays in Judaism and Christian Art reveal that Christian art has always defined itself through the figures of Judaism that it produces From its beginnings Christianity confronted a host of questions about visual representation Should Christians make art or does attention to the beautiful works of human hands constitute a misplaced emphasis on the things of this world or worse a form of idolatry Thou shalt make no graven image And if art is allowed upon what styles motifs and symbols should it draw Christian artists theologians and philosophers answered these questions and many others by thinking about and representing the relationship of Christianity to Judaism This volume is the first dedicated to the long history from the catacombs to colonialism but with special emphasis on the Middle Ages and the Renaissance of the ways in which Christian art deployed cohorts of Jews more figurative than real in order to conquer defend and explore its own territory

A Cultural History of Theatre in the Middle Ages Jody Enders, 2019-08-08 Historically and broadly defined as the period between the fall of the Roman Empire and the rise of the Renaissance the Middle Ages encompass a millennium of cultural conflicts and developments A large body of mystery passion miracle and morality plays cohabited with song dance farces and other public spectacles frequently sharing ecclesiastical and secular inspiration A Cultural History of Theatre in the Middle Ages provides a comprehensive and interdisciplinary overview of the cultural history of theatre between 500 and 1500 and imaginatively pieces together the puzzle of medieval theatre by foregrounding the study of performance Each of the ten chapters of this richly illustrated volume takes a different theme as its focus institutional frameworks social functions sexuality and gender the environment of theatre circulation interpretations communities of production repertoire and genres technologies of performance and knowledge transmission

War and Worship Susan Möller-Wiering, 2011-08-30 War and Worship concerns textile deposits from the bog sites of Thorsberg in Germany and Nydam Vimose and Illerup dal in Denmark All four sites are well known for containing a substantial amount of archaeological materials particularly weapons but they also contain as integral parts of the weapon deposits a smaller number of preserved textiles which nevertheless constitute outstanding assemblages With the exception of Thorsberg publications dealing particularly with textiles from weapon deposits are almost non existent The textiles from each site are analysed then compared to one another and described as a unit characterising the particular site Comparisons are then made between the four sites with emphasis on the overall context A final chapter by Lise R der Knudsen analyses tablet woven textiles in the deposits a textile technique used to make bands edges and borders Although the state of preservation of the textiles at the different locations varies hugely the research has extracted a large amount of information allowing conclusions on status origin function and role in the deposits to be drawn The fabrics presented here were unquestionably consecrated textiles They had been worn by the defeated foreign warriors during the battle and were considered worthy as sacrificial offerings to the gods Some individual high status textiles were perceived to have a value comparable to certain metal items Others probably the majority were used for covering and wrapping other offerings for the subsequent sacrifice All were committed to the lakes in a sacred act of remembrance to celebrate victorious battles
