Imperial Japan on Screen, 1931-2022 Bob Herzberg, 2023-08-10. This book deals with film depictions of Imperial Japan from the time it was a totalitarian power to the productions of recent years. It especially covers wartime depictions as well as the historical events that inspire the stories behind these productions. In the 1930s, Hollywood gave us the likeable Mr Moto at the same time Japan was set on its expansionist course. When war broke out, both the Allies and the Axis produced propaganda films that increased hatred for the enemy. In the postwar years, as the Cold War took hold, the U.S. government encouraged friendship with their former wartime enemy. This book details correspondence between studio personnel and the Production Code office as well as the critiques of film reviewers, historians, and military figures from both sides of the conflict. Also examined are behind-the-scenes machinations from both the Japanese and American governments in the censorship of controversial film content.
