

Helping Children Cope With Grief

As a caregiver, you play a crucial role in supporting a young person through their grief process. Remember the acronym SUPPORT as you provide a safe space to heal.

S

Stay Present

Be present and available. Be a source of comfort, and encourage open and honest communication. By actively listening, you create a safe space for a child to express their emotions.

U

Understand Their Grief

Take the time to understand each child's unique situation. Learn about grief and its impact on kids of different ages. Recognize that they may express grief in many ways.

P

Provide Reassurance

Kids might experience a variety of different feelings when faced with loss. Reassure them that their feelings are valid and that it's normal to feel a range of emotions. Offer comfort by providing age-appropriate explanations and reassurances.

Preserve Routines

Maintaining regular routines can offer stability and a sense of security during times of loss. Keep familiar schedules and structure to provide comfort throughout the transition.

O

Outreach For Support

Seek support from a mental health professional, support group, or organization that provides services for grieving children. Involve family, friends, loved ones, or others from the community who can provide additional guidance and support.

R

Respect Their Coping Style

Each child copes with grief in their own way. Respect their individuality and provide space for them to express emotions without judgment. Some kids prefer to talk, while others might find solace in creative outlets or physical activity.

T

Take Care Of Yourself

Supporting a grieving child can be emotionally draining. Remember to practice good self-care, so you can better support them through their grief journey.
