The Paradigm Lashea M. Johnson,2010-04-07 This is a unique write about a sheltered church girl curious about life that became a teenage mother turned drug dealer turned drug user in the cold windy war torn poverty stricken streets of Chicago s West Side With the loss of her children to the system she thought she had nothing left but to die Rock blows Park Rang out like happy slogans of advertisements from dealers to fiends With death and the police lurking close by he closed her eyes to retract How did I get here and the ongoing presence of failure loss and disdain licking at her heels she saw no way out Had God somehow forgotten about her Nothing seemed to matter Be inspired by her unfiltered and uncensored writing of poetry where she found her lesson and her blessing

The Poetics of Dante's Paradiso Massimo Verdicchio,2010-01-01 In the world of Dante scholarship there is a real need for studies such as The Poetics of Dante s Paradiso which challenge our notions of the principal souls of the Paradiso Rooted in a close analysis of the poem Massimo Verdicchio s intelligent interpretation is supported by relevant textual evidence and provides an important counterpoint to the canonical readings of the cantica Traditional readings of Dante s Paradiso have largely considered this third cantica of the Commedia as a poem apart It deals with those blessed souls in Paradise who are free of sin and beyond punishment in contrast to the sinners in the previous two cantica and is thus no longer based on the principle of contrapasso At the literal level this is true in that all the characters one encounters are either those who have been saved religious leaders or saints However at the allegorical level as Massimo Verdicchio argues in The Poetics of Dante s Paradiso the blessed souls still have something to hide something shameful in their past earthly life which is revealed nonetheless In this book Verdicchio provides a canto by canto analysis of Paradiso He maintains that the cantica can allegorically be seen as a commentary on the political and religious establishment framed as the punitive action of the DXV announced at the end of Purgatorio denouncing the illicit and destructive alliance between the House of Anjou and the Church Verdicchio focuses on the relationship that Dante establishes among the ten heavens into which the poet divides the cantica and their equivalent in the Arts and Sciences of the Trivium and Quadrivium as outlined in the Convivio This approach provides the key to interpreting the cantos and the discourse of the inhabitants of Paradise who appear on the surface blameless However it is the earthly and human side of the blessed souls that captures Dante s attention and this dichotomy is revealed in his characterization of the heavens Poetic allegory and irony are the two principal modes of this cantica and the source of much of its comedic complexity As one of the characters puts it in Heaven we do not repent but we smile A highly original and comprehensive reading The Poetics of Dante s Paradiso demonstrates that the intricacies of Dante s text reveal subversive undercurrents and a subtle irony employed to deliver a critique of the Church and Empire of his own time Missouri School Journal ,1914 Creative and Sexual Science O. Reprint of the original first published in 1875 Peacemaking and Religious Violence Roger A. Johnson,2009-09-01 From its very beginning Christian faith has been engaged with religious violence The first Christians were persecuted by their co religionists and then by imperial Rome Jesus taught them in such circumstances not to retaliate but to be peacemakers to love their enemies and to pray for their persecutors Jesus s response to religious violence of the first century was often ignored but it was never forgotten Even during those centuries when the church herself persecuted Christian heretics Jews and Muslims some Christians still struggled to bear witness to the peace mandate of their Lord In the thirteenth century Thomas Aquinas wrote a theology to help his Dominican brothers persuade Cathar Christians to return to their Catholic faith peacefully Ramon Lull a Christian student of Arabic and the Qur an sought to help his fellow Christians recognize the elements of belief they shared in common with the Muslims in their midst In the fifteenth century Nicholas of Cusa a Church Cardinal and theologian expanded Lull s project to include the newly discovered religions of Asia In the seventeenth century Lord Herbert an English diplomat and lay Christian began to identify the political union of church and government as a causal factor in the religious warfare of post Reformation Christendom One and a half centuries later Thomas Jefferson a lay theologian of considerable political stature won a political struggle in the American colonies to disestablish religion first in his home colony of Virginia and then in the new nation he helped to found All five of these theologians reclaimed the peace mandate of Jesus in their response to the religious violence of their own eras All of which points us to some intriguing Christian responses to religious violence in our own century as recounted in the epilogue
