Valuation: Special Properties & Purposes Phil Askham, Leslie Blake, 2014-05-22 Each topic treated represents an area of specialism in its own right This book helps fill the gap between the extremes of neglect and detailed consideration in existing texts by providing an authoritative and yet accessible treatment of several complex and technical subjects Each chapter has been written by an acknowledged expert in the field with extensive practical experience and where appropriate is supported by comprehensive case studies and worked examples What this book emphatically will not do is turn anyone into an expert in the specialist and even arcane worlds of the plant and machinery valuer or the valuation of milk quotas What it will do however is give some indication of the problems and pitfalls associated with these fields Modern Studies in Property Law, Volume 10 Ben McFarlane, Sinéad Agnew, 2019-05-30 This book contains a collection of papers presented at the Twelfth Biennial Modern Studies in Property Law Conference held at University College London in April 2018 The conference and its published proceedings are an established forum for property lawyers from around the world to showcase the latest research This collection includes a keynote address by Dame Elizabeth Gloster former Vice President of the Court of Appeal Civil Division on technology in property law It also includes plenary addresses by Professor Henry Smith on the architecture of property law and the challenge of compiling the American Law Institute's Fourth Restatement of Property and by Her Honour Judge Karen Walden Smith on the role of the first instance judge in property cases Sixteen further chapters address a wide range of issues including the theory and taxonomy of land law the re evaluation of land obligations the nature and operation of equitable property rights and shares the role of property in commerce comparative approaches to leases and trusts and contemporary issues in land registration Collectively the chapters demonstrate the vibrancy diversity and importance of property law and of current research in the subject The Continental Legal History Series, 1918 Kafka's Indictment of Modern Law Douglas E. Litowitz, 2017-08-11 The legal system is often denounced as Kafkaesque but what does this really mean This is the question Douglas E Litowitz tackles in his critical reading of Franz Kafka's writings about the law Going far beyond Kafka's most familiar works such as The Trial Litowitz assembles a broad array of works that he refers to as Kafka's legal fiction consisting of published and unpublished works that deal squarely with the law as well as those that touch upon it indirectly as in political administrative and quasi judicial procedures Cataloguing explaining and critiquing this body of work Litowitz brings to bear all those aspects of Kafka's life that were connected to law his legal education his career as a lawyer his drawings and his personal interactions with the legal system A close study of Kafka's legal writings reveals that Kafka held a consistent position about modern legal systems characterized by a crippling nihilism Modern legal systems in Kafka's view consistently fail to make good on their stated pretensions in fact often accomplish the opposite of what they promise This indictment as Litowitz demonstrates is not confined to the legal system of Kafka's day but applies just as surely to our own A short clear comprehensive introduction to Kafka's legal writings and thought Kafka's Indictment of Modern Law is not uncritical Even as he clarifies Kafka's experience of and ideas about the law Litowitz offers an informed perspective on the limitations of these views His book affords rare insight into a key aspect of Kafka's work and into the connection between the writing the writer and the legal world The Modern Law of Evidence Adrian Keane, Paul McKeown, 2018 The Modern Law of Evidence is essential for students studying the contemporary law of evidence It examines the theory behind the law of evidence as well as its practical application with emphasis on current debates Modern Buildings George Alexander
