Dutch Paintings in the Metropolitan Museum of Art Walter A. Liedtke,Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.),2007 Presents a catalog that surveys the Dutch paintings found in the Metropolitan Museum of Art The Religious Paintings of Hendrick ter Brugghen NatashaT. Seaman,2017-07-05 The first in depth study of the Utrecht artist to address questions beyond connoisseurship and attribution this book makes a significant contribution to Ter Brugghen and Northern Caravaggist studies Focusing on the Dutch master s simultaneous use of Northern archaisms with Caravaggio s motifs and style Natasha Seaman nuances our understanding of Ter Brugghen s appropriations from the Italian painter Her analysis centers on four paintings all depicting New Testament subjects They include Ter Brugghen s largest and first known signed work Crowning with Thorns his most archaizing the Crucifixion and the two paintings most directly related to the works of Caravaggio the Doubting Thomas and the Calling of Matthew By examining the ways in which Ter Brugghen s paintings deliberately diverge from Caravaggio s Seaman sheds new light on the Utrecht artist and his work For example she demonstrates that where Caravaggio s paintings are boldly illusionistic and mimetic thus de emphasizing their materiality Ter Brugghen s works examined here create the opposite effect connecting their content to their made form This study not only illuminates the complex meanings of the paintings addressed here but also offers insights into the image debates and the status of devotional art in Italy and Utrecht in the seventeenth century by examining one artist s response to them

Art News Annual ,1952 Merriam-Webster's Collegiate Encyclopedia Merriam-Webster, Inc,2000 A comprehensive one volume desk reference created in cooperation with Encyclop dia Britannica Features more than 25 000 informative and enlightening articles over 1 250 photographs and 350 maps diagrams and tables Includes pronunciations The Milkmaid by Johannes Vermeer Walter A. Liedtke,2009 In this catalogue for the exhibition Walter Liedtke Curator of Paintings at the Metropolitan drawing on the Museum s five Vermeers scenes by other Dutch masters in the Museum s collection including Pieter de Hooch Gabriel Metsu Nicolaes Maes and Emanuel de Witte and several works on paper places the picture in the context of the artist's brief career and relates it to contemporary developments in Dutch art. In addition to an extended discussion of the painting's provenance he provides a detailed study of the composition the several revisions made during the course of execution and the subtle relationships between light and shadow color contour and shape. And he proposes a most intriguing argument for an erotic subtext pointing out that like maids and kitchen maids in earlier Netherlandish art the figure in The Milkmaid was meant to attract the male viewer to rouse in him temptation and restraint desire and reservation while the kitchen maid herself endowed with traits typically reserved for higher class women and surrounded by references to romance both literal and oblique is presented as having amorous thoughts of her own.

Florence, Berlin and Beyond:

Late Nineteenth-Century Art Markets and their Social Networks, 2020-06-22 Recent and increasing interest in art market studies the dealers mediators advisors taste makers artists etc indicate that the transaction of art and decorative art is anything but linear. Taking as its point of departure two of the most active agents of the late nineteenth century Wilhelm von Bode and Stefano Bardini the essays in this volume also look beyond to other art market individuals and their vast and frequently interconnected social and professional networks. Newly told history taken from rich business epistolary and photographic archives these essays examine the art market within a broader and more complex context. In doing so they offer new areas of inquiry for mapping of works of art as they were exchanged over time and place.

Absence

Issa Quincy, 2025-07-15 Through its archive of narratives nestled within narratives this exquisite novel creates a beguiling soundscape of echoes and murmurs that reverberates in the mind long after the reading. In lucid captivating prose Issa Quincy constructs a palimpsest composed of the fractals and losses that define the numberless strata of the past. Recalling the novels of W G Sebald and the films of Chris Marker Absence is a mournful and luminous meditation on the work of remembering. Christine Lai author of Landscapes Haunting and atmospheric Issa Quincy's Absence is an indelible nesting doll of human impression and memory. As a child an unnamed narrator's mother reads to him a poem. Throughout his life the poem reappears mysteriously in the affecting life experiences of others as they are recounted to him. An eccentric and beloved schoolteacher leaves behind a dark secret after his death. An elderly woman returns to the same hotel on the Tunisian coast every year as an act of remembrance for a disappeared brother. The son of a wealthy Indian businessman the pariah of his family finds solidarity and the distant pang of freedom within the letters of an estranged Aunt. As we follow characters on their journeys of self discovery through the jungle of Thailand as a child in the British countryside or as an aging doctor on the island of Cyprus Absence evocatively builds a compassionate symphony of nostalgia attuned to the drama of everyday and the phantoms that linger with us. Issa Quincy has constructed a transcendent portrait of humanity deftly illuminating those memories that forever bind us to one another.
