Unveiling Indonesia Library of Congress,1996 Rise Up in the West Timbul Hutabarat,1988 International Christian Literature Documentation Project Douglas W. Geyer,1993 Sea Hunters of Indonesia Robert Harrison Barnes,1996 Sea Hunters of Indonesia is a comprehensive study of the coastal community of Lamalera whose traditional ways of life make it unique One is an unusual kind of sea fishing the hunting of whales porpoises and giant manta rays The other is the production by the women of the community of remarkable fine dyed textiles Recently these traditions have come under intense pressure from external economic influences and the people of Lamalera are starting to move into modern occupations The community famous for the beauty of its setting as well as for its crafts is now a major tourist attraction and it may now survive only as part of the tourist industry At this crucial point in the history of the region R H Barnes offers a richly detailed and beautifully illustrated picture of the culture and economy of Lamalera the fruit of many years study He records all aspects of life in Lamalera and places it in the broader context of the past present and future of Indonesia as a whole Sea Power Admiral James Stavridis, USN,2018-06-05 From one of the most admired admirals of his generation and the only admiral to serve as Supreme Allied Commander at NATO comes a remarkable voyage through all of the world s most important bodies of water providing the story of naval power as a driver of human history and a crucial element in our current geopolitical path From the time of the Greeks and the Persians clashing in the Mediterranean sea power has determined world power To an extent that is often underappreciated it still does No one understands this better than Admiral Jim Stavridis In Sea Power Admiral Stavridis takes us with him on a tour of the world s oceans from the admiral s chair showing us how the geography of the oceans has shaped the destiny of nations and how naval power has in a real sense made the world we live in today and will shape the world we live in tomorrow Not least Sea Power is marvelous naval history giving us fresh insight into great naval engagements from the battles of Salamis and Lepanto through to Trafalgar the Battle of the Atlantic and submarine conflicts of the Cold War It is also a keen eyed reckoning with the likely sites of our next major naval conflicts particularly the Arctic Ocean Eastern Mediterranean and the South China Sea Finally Sea Power steps back to take a holistic view of the plagues to our oceans that are best seen that way from piracy to pollution When most of us look at a globe we focus on the shape of the of the seven continents Admiral Stavridis sees the shapes of the seven seas After reading Sea Power you will too Not since Alfred Thayer Mahan s legendary The Influence of Sea Power upon History have we had such a powerful reckoning with this vital subject International Christian Literature Documentation Project: Author-editor index, corporate name index ,1993 The Marine Corps Gazette ,1967 South East Asia:Colonl Hist V1 Paul Kratoska,2022-01-26 First published in 2004 The six volumes that make up this set provide an overview of colonialism in South East Asia The first volume deals with Portuguese Spanish and Dutch Imperialism before 1800 the second with empire building during the Nineteenth Century and the third with the imperial heyday in the early Twentieth Century The remaining

Larsen, 2008-10-29 This edited volume explores stability security transition and reconstruction operations SSTR highlighting the challenges and opportunities they create for the US Navy The book argues that SSTR operations are challenging because they create new missions and basing modes and signal a return to traditional naval methods of operation Mission accomplishment requires collaboration with a wide range of actors representing governmental non governmental and commercial organizations which often creates politically and bureaucratically charged issues for those involved However although from a traditional warfighting perspective stability operations might be viewed as having little to do with preparing for high intensity conventional combat these kinds of operations in fact correspond to traditional missions related to diplomacy engagement maritime domain awareness piracy and smuggling and intervention to quell civil disturbances SSTR operations can be therefore depicted as a return to traditional naval operations albeit operations that might not be universally welcomed in all quarters Distributed Active Archive Centers, 1997
