Rise Of Colonial Nationalism:

The Rise of Colonial Nationalism J. J. Healy, E. Dal Lago, Enrico Dal Lago, 2014-10-28 Through a range of case studies from eastern and western Europe this book breaks new ground in investigating the extent to which European peoples living within Europe were also subjected to the ideologies and practices of colonialism Redefining the Bonds of Commonwealth, 1939-1948 F. McKenzie, 2002-06-06 This work is a path breaking study of the changing attitudes of Canada Australia New Zealand and South Africa to Britain and the Commonwealth in the 1940s and the effect of those changes on their individual and collective standing in international affairs The focus is imperial preference the largest discriminatory tariff system in the world and a potent symbol of Commonwealth unity It is based on archival research in Britain Canada Australia New Zealand and the United States Race and Imperial Defence in the British World, 1870-1914 John C. Mitcham, 2016-03-17 A comprehensive account of how British race patriotism shaped the defense partnership between Britain and the dominions before the Great War Church and Empire John Henry Joshua Ellison, 1908 OCR A Level History: Britain 1930-1997 Mike Wells, Nicholas Fellows, 2015-06-26 Exam Board OCR Level A level Subject History First Teaching September 2015 First Exam June 2016 This is an OCR endorsed resource Build strong subject knowledge and skills in A Level History using the in depth analysis and structured support in this tailor made series

United Empire ,1924 Post-Referendum Sudan National and Regional Questions Wassara, Samson Samuel, Al-Abdin, Al-Tayib Zain, 2015-03-02 The fate of Sudan by then the largest country in Africa was clearly decided when results of the referendum vote were announced in February 2011 Policy makers scholars and the international community began to grapple with critical issues that might arise after the independence of South Sudan and how different stakeholders were likely to react during the period of uncertainty Political developments in Sudan were long term outcomes of post cold war revolutions in the world system after the Soviet Union collapsed A domino effect of such events swept across Eastern Europe with some manifestations in the Horn of Africa The fall of Mengistu Haile Mariam marked the beginning of the redrawing of the map of Africa and posed a challenge to the long held principle of preservation of colonial borders that had been enshrined in the Charter of the Organisation of African Unity The precedent set by the independence of Eritrea seemed to encourage southern Sudan to press forward for independence through a two pronged approach of armed struggle and diplomacy led by the Sudan People s Liberation Army Movement This book attempts to understand national regional and continental dimensions of the unresolved issues that could result in the escalation of conflict in the Sudan It examines internal dynamics of the Sudan after secession of the south and how these dynamics might affect neighbouring countries in the geopolitical regions the Horn of Africa the Great Lakes Region and Central Africa A section of the book is dedicated to dynamics within South Sudan as a new state Post conflict South Sudan as country was marked by extreme poverty lack of infrastructure and prevalence of inter communal armed violence This book proposes possible policies to prevent the country from descending into a state of economic and social chaos The book provides the argument that equitable and rational transformative socio economic programmes and policies could greatly reduce potentials for conflict This book calls on policy makers to pursue policies that could lead to concrete projects planned to alleviate poverty and provision of basic social services such as education health and safe water The book comes to the conclusion that political stability will depend on collective actions of stakeholders to ensure that peace prevails both in the north and the south to guarantee human security in the region

The South African War reappraised Donal Lowry, 2017-03-01 This text brings together contributions from scholars in South African and imperial history to examine the international dimensions of the war including a historiographical review of a century of writing on the origins of the war Canadian Gazette and Export Trader, 1911

The Palgrave Handbook of Kenyan History Wanjala S. Nasong'o, Maurice N. Amutabi, Toyin Falola, 2023-01-25 This volume covers Kenya's history, society, culture, economics, politics, and environment from precolonial times through the first years of independence. The book comprises twenty-one chapters divided into two parts. Part I focuses on the long precolonial moment, detailing the nature of precolonial Kenyan societies and their economics, politics, gender dynamics, and social organization. Part II examines Kenyan societies' encounters with British colonialism, critically outlining the impact and implications of these encounters. The volume concludes with an examination of political consolidation after the country's attainment of political independence and the subsequent foundations for political authoritarianism. Urban History in India Mr. Rohit Manglik, 2022-11-22 In this book, we will study about the historical evolution of Indian cities, colonial legacies, and post-independence urbanization. The Politics of Ethnicity in Pakistan Farhan Hanif Siddiqi, 2012-05-04 In order to understand the Pakistani state and government's treatment of non-dominant ethnic groups after the failure of the military operation in East Pakistan and the independence of Bangladesh, this book looks at the ethnic movements that were subject to a military operation after 1971: the Baloch in the 1970s, the Sindhis in the 1980s, and Mohajirs in the 1990s. The book critically evaluates the literature on ethnicity and nationalism by taking nationalist ideology and the political divisions which it generates within ethnic groups as essential in estimating ethnic movements. It goes on to challenge the modernist argument that nationalism is only relevant to modern industrialised socio-economic settings. The available evidence from Pakistan makes clear that ethnic movements emanate from three distinct socio-economic realms: tribal Baloch, rural Sindh, and urban Mohajir. The book looks at the implications that this has, as well as how further arguments could be advanced about the relevance of ethnic movements and politics in the Third World. It provides academics and researchers with background knowledge of how the Baloch, Sindhi, and Mohajir ethnic conflict in Pakistan took shape in a historical context, as well as probable future scenarios of the relationship between the Pakistani state and government and ethnic groups and movements.

The Pattern of Imperialism Tony Smith, 1981-10-30 The principal ambition of this book is to provide an avowedly eclectic, although largely political, explanation of American and British imperialism as comprehensive and ultimately as unified as that offered by Marxist interpretations. Geopolitical considerations are assumed to be basic but not exclusive concerns of foreign policy elites in Britain and the United States, and the ability of people in Latin America, Africa, and Asia to coordinate their activities that is to act politically, is assumed to be the central but not sole feature determining the character of their response to Western imperialism. The book provides profiles of various southern political regimes and categorises their different reactions to the impact of imperialism in the nineteenth century and to the impetus for decolonisation after 1945. The author concludes by considering the dilemma of American policy toward the Third World in the early 1980s when traditional modes of conduct can no longer prescribe a clear plan of action
