Rita Hayworth A Memoir:

Rita Hayworth, a Memoir James Hill, 1983 Screenwriter producer James Hill was Rita Hayworth's fifth and last husband. When love bloomed and though marriage soon followed the relationship was doomed. Hill wanted to revitalize Rita's career getting her a serious role in Separate Tables pairing her with Gary Cooper in They Came to Cordura and obsessively pushing her to reveal her comedienne talents to the world. Rita on the other hand preferred reading and painting and quiet finally revealing her utter lack of interest in movies of all varieties. Hill thought to rescue her from the sharks of the film business but found that he too was using her. There are a few intriguing movie making details and copious anecdotal in this often gushy likable yet murky view of the star herself. Not the usual star bio by a long shot with only intermittent appeal for the legion of Hayworth fans. [sic] Joshua Cody, 2012-05-10 Joshua Cody was about to receive his PhD from Columbia University when he was diagnosed with an aggressive cancer. He underwent six months of chemotherapy. The treatment failed. Expectations for survival plummeted. After consulting with several oncologists he embarked on a risky course of high dose chemotherapy full body radiation and an autologous bone marrow transplant. In a fevered mesmerising voice slaloming effortlessly between references to Ezra Pound The Rolling Stones and Beethoven in a memoir that is as fresh and beguiling as it is brave and revealing he charts the struggle the fury the tendency to self destruction the ruthless grasping for life for sensation. Literary hallucinatory and at times uncomfortable reading sic is ultimately a celebration of art language music and life.

A Childhood Memoir Melanie Lowy, 2011-09-19 The stomping of black booted automatons the drums beating in tune to murderous chants of hatred a retentive memory of a little girl has captured it all. Her early serene Munich childhood wiped out a school in flame a journey alone to England ahead. Gone is the school she loved. Parted from her adored father with whom she endured prison and worse. Stored away safely is her memory of GRAF ZEPPELIN the hideous faces of the Nazi leaders and her love of Munich KINDERTRANSPORT to England aged nine without friend or language leaves her traumatised unused as she is to cope with caring for herself. Stays at holiday camps with a kind generous Jewish family in London then it is off once more with Jewish schoolchildren to Bedfordshire weeks before WW2. A love affair begins with the English country side and its animal inhabitants. Evacuated to an ancient farm house with no amenities whatever where she is joined by her pious old grandmother she settles down to school life in this strictly orthodox school new friends all refugees. Through her father a well known poet she discovers what is happening to Jews in Europe early on and her faith is shattered. A contrasting tale of two childhoods one recalling a deceptively idyllic beginning the other an awakening in a strange but charitable land and the forever haunting realisation of what has been done to her people. This is a unique portrait of childhood.

Burt Lancaster Kate Buford, 2013-07-08 Burt Lancaster is perhaps most widely remembered as the tough iron jawed star of films such as Gunfight at the OK Corral and Airport But as this superbly readable and insightful biography demonstrates he was an actor with much broader ambitions brilliantly realised in Visconti's The Leopard as well as the founder of the first actor led production company in Hollywood Lancaster's liberal political views led not only to frequent clashes with the House Un American Activities Committee and a voluminous FBI file but also a private life that was colourful even by Hollywood standards Although a devoted father and husband to three wives the actor took numerous lovers of both sexes In his sexual tastes as in his choice of roles he defied classification Kate Buford's definitive biography offers a full frank sensitive and compelling portrait of the star of Atlantic City From Here to Eternity and Elmer Gantry for which he won a Best Actor Oscar Lancaster emerges as a man of restless energy relentless curiosity and continual development as an actor a star every bit as interesting offscreen as on As one American reviewer put it Not many film stars receive first class biographies Burt Lancaster not only deserved one he got one Acclaimed biographer Kate Buford has been a regular commentator on National Public Radio in the United States since 1994
