Long Term Care Crisis Elders Trapped In The No Care Zone:

Caring for Our Elders Patricia Kolb, 2003-10-01 Almost forty percent of American adults age sixty five and over spend some time in a nursing home and residents in nursing homes will be increasingly diverse racially and ethnically because of changing demographics The decision to place a family member in a nursing home is often extremely difficult especially when the family belongs to a group with a strong tradition of filial responsibility Despite these realities little has been written about the stresses families of diverse cultural backgrounds experience in making this challenging decision This book describes the experiences of seventy five African American and Afro Caribbean white Jewish and Latina o residents and their relatives and friends who have been their caregivers Integrating original qualitative research with quantitative data and theoretical perspectives and findings from other studies Patricia Kolb not only presents new perspectives on how caregiving varies across racial and ethnic backgrounds but also dispels numerous stereotypes about nursing home placement among diverse groups

The Need for Theory Simon Biggs, Jon Hendricks, Ariela Lowenstein, 2020-11-25 The Need for Theory speaks to the burgeoning need for critical thinking in social gerontology The editors have brought together some of the foremost contributors to theoretical advances in the field This volume incorporates state of the art theorizing with a focus on selected topical areas facing gerontologists around the world Using their keen insights into substantive issues the contributors examine personal and structural changes affecting individuals over the life course Extolling the need for theory is not enough the contributors focus their insights on a panoply of substantive issues linking the personal with the political and with the structural parameters that shape the process of aging no matter where it occurs

Health Care Financing Review, 1994

Human Behavior in the Social Environment Carel B. Germain, Martin Bloom, 1999 It also takes into account the expected and unexpected stresses challenges and life tasks that can influence development within social environments

BOOK JACKET Young V. Old Susan Macmanus, 2018-02-12 Arguing that an inter generational war is brewing in the United States this book paints a picture of the ageing of America and what it means for politics and policy questions including social security health care crime jobs social welfare defence and foreign affairs Differences between older and younger citizens are examined in the light of voting and registration patterns ideological and party preferences and varieties of political activism Contemporary media and new technologies are highlighted as sources of disparities and bridges between the generations how they watch politics how they prefer to solve social problems and how inter generational understanding may be improved through communication and education

Aging and Caring at the Intersection of Work and Home Life Anne Martin-Matthews, Judith E. Phillips, 2010-10-18 There are not many books that address the boundaries of care of older people from a work life perspective This book authored by contributors from various countries looks at the boundaries of care by looking at private and public help professional and personal help and paid and unpaid caregivers It captures and conceptualizes the complexity of the intersection of work and home life as it relates to the provision of assistance and support to older relatives in a variety of care work contexts It explores these issues within a critical framework rather than from an assumed stress or burden perspective which dominates current texts on the topic Readers of this volume will gain a deeper understanding of issues of care provision amongst networks of careers and helpers and of the particular dynamics of care when it is episodic or framed by constraints of space and time as a result of geography In addition each chapter addresses issues of diversity with sensitivity to gender race and ethnicity This book will be of use to academics and graduate students in Gerontology Family Studies IO psychology Gender Studies and Sociology National Library of Medicine Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.),1993 The Family Track Constance Coiner,Diana Hume George,1998 At a time when the academy is an ever more demanding arbiter and shaper of the lives of those it employs this book discusses the challenges and benefits of balancing a rewarding professional life with the competing needs to nurture children care for aging parents and engage in other personal relationships Precarity and Ageing Amanda Grenier,Chris Phillipson,Richard A. Settersten Jr,2021-07-14 This edited collection develops an exciting new approach to understanding the changing cultural economic and social circumstances facing different groups of older people The Long Term Care Crisis Carroll L. Estes,James H. Swan,1993 This book examines the implementation of the prospective payment system PPS in the US for Medicare hospital reimbursement which started in 1983 The authors discuss the impact of the PPS on health care provision and conclude that rather than improving conditions for the elderly in their transition from hospital to community and decreasing escalating health costs the PPS has restructured the system with the result that the greater financial burden is placed on informal caregivers community and home health care agencies and the elderly themselves Social Policy and Aging Carroll L. Estes,2001-03-30 This groundbreaking book provides a comprehensive treatment of the political economy of aging From the founder and key thinker in the field comes a work that aims to contribute to the understanding of old age and aging in the context of problems and issues of the larger social order in America Since Carroll Estes first writing on the political economy of aging in 1979 there has been growing recognition and incorporation of her critical perspective as one of the major paradigms in the field of aging The only comprehensive book length treatment of the subject Social Policy and Aging addresses the globalization of capital and developments in health care restructuring Combining social gerontological theory and major theoretical advances in work on the welfare state this text keeps readers abreast of the new development within the discipline Students and researchers alike will appreciate this critical perspective widely acknowledged as one of the major paradigms in the field of aging Ed Aging A-Z Carroll L. Estes,with Nicholas B. DiCarlo,2019-04-10 This provocative intellectually charged treatise serves as a concise introduction to emancipatory gerontology examining multiple dimensions of persistent and hotly debated topics around aging the life course the roles of power politics and partisanship culture economics and communications Critical perspectives are presented as definitions for reader understanding with links to concepts of identity knowledge construction social networks social movements and inequalities With today s intensifying concentration of wealth and corporatization precarity is the fate for growing numbers of the world's population

Intersectionality as an analytic concept offers a new appreciation of how social advantage and disadvantage accumulate and how constructions of race ethnicity class ability and gender influence aging The book's entries offer a bibliographic compendium crediting the salience of early pioneering theorists and locating these within the cutting edge of research social behavioral policy and gene environment sciences that currently advances our understandings of human development trauma and resilience Accompanying these foundations are theories of resistance for advancing human rights and the dignity of marginalized populations

Caring for Our Own Sandra R. Levitsky, 2014-04-17 Caring for Our Own inverts an enduring question of social welfare politics Rather than ask why the American state hasn't responded to unmet social welfare needs by expanding social entitlements this book asks Why don't American families view unmet social welfare needs as the basis for demands for new state entitlements The answer Sandra Levitsky argues lies in a better understanding of how individuals imagine solutions to the social welfare problems they confront and what prevents new understandings of social welfare provision from developing into political demand for alternative social arrangements Caring for Our Own considers the powerful ways in which existing social policies shape the political imagination reinforcing longstanding values about family responsibility subverting grievances grounded in notions of social responsibility and in some rare cases constructing new models of social provision that transcend existing ideological divisions in American social politics

Critical Gerontology Comes of Age Chris Wellin, 2018-05-01 Critical Gerontology Comes of Age reflects on how baby boomers caretakers and health professionals are perceiving and adapting to historical social political and cultural changes that call into question prior assumptions about aging and life progression Through an exploration of earlier and later life stages and the dynamic changes in intergenerational relations chapter authors reexamine the research methods and scope of critical gerontology a multidisciplinary field that speaks to the experiences of life in the 21st century Topics include Medicare privatization of home care incarceration outreach to LGBTQ elders migration and chronic illness Grounded in innovative research and case studies this volume reflects multiple perspectives and is accessible to lay readers advanced undergraduates and graduate students and professionals in many fields

Caring and Competent Caregivers Robert Moroney, 1998 Chronic health conditions are the leading cause of illness disability and death in the United States today affecting nearly one hundred million citizens These conditions cost the economy more than 470 billion a year in direct medical costs and more than 230 billion in lost productivity While Americans pride themselves on living in a caring country society as a whole has not fully prepared for the many challenges presented by chronic illness This timely book illustrates the caregiving needs to be faced in the next century Written by individuals associated with the National Quality Caregiving Coalition NQCC of the Rosalynn Carter Institute Caring and Competent Caregivers is a foundation book for use by academicians conducting professional training programs diverse health care and social service providers on the front lines providing assistance to others and students entering the field Incorporating philosophy social science research and impressionistic evidence this book provides a basis for education and practice that is both inspirational and practical New Directions in Old-Age Policies Janie S. Steckenrider, Tonya M. Parrott, 1998-09-11 This book explores the changed political environment in the United States and what it means for the policies and programs benefiting the elderly and their families It includes chapters written by distinguished contributors such as Fernando Torres Gil Assistant Secretary for Aging Clinton Administration and discusses specific realistic policy options for the future New Directions in Old Age Policies suggests that old age policy in the changed political environment is a paradox of competing agendas individual versus fiscal responsibility in policy choices doing more for the elderly and their families with fewer public resources and prioritizing the status quo or change in policy decisions for the elderly
