Longing For The End:

Longing for the End Frederic J. Baumgartner, 1999 Jonestown Waco and Heaven's Gate resonate deeply in contemporary America while Munster Masada or Mount Tabor were no less potent for their eras as long as 1900 years ago All were movements that believed the endtime was close and their members had to act through violence or suicide to ensure that it happened Longing for the End explores the long often violent history of millennialism as it has affected Western civilization From the ancient Zoroastrians to the Concerned Christians of 1998 a belief in the imminent end of the present world and coming of the new age has motivated hundreds of sects and cults some of which burned out in an orgy of violence while others endured as did Christianity itself to become a permanent part of Western society Millennialism has also been part of the motivation behind the Crusades Columbus's voyages Marxism and the Third Reich In this work Baumgartner shows why the year 2000 has so powerful a place in the Western imagination Passion for Creation will be embraced by theologians, students and all seekers of truth. It will be especially welcomed by those interested in creation spirituality which Eckhart advocated six centuries ago and which Matthew Fox has promoted as a spiritual path for the new millennium. Golf's Three Noble Truths James Ragonnet, 2010-09-24. The Buddha's seven years of wandering in search of enlightenment ended in frustration. So did the author's thirty years of traversing golf courses. Neither found what they were looking for until they stopped searching outside and started looking within. The result for James Ragonnet was the kind of second birthday Eastern thinkers describe when you wake up to everything happening around you. Through delightful anecdotes and practical lessons, Ragonnet reveals the power of awareness, balance and unity to banish the dissatisfaction and stagnation so many golfers experience. He shows how all golf Buddhas: Bobby Jones, Jack Nicklaus, Annika Sorenstam, Tiger Woods, play with their outer and inner eyes wide open. Describes his twelfth green O.O.G.E. out of golf experience and offers readers simple truths that prompt flashes of understanding. These insights invite birdies, drop handicaps and transform experience both on and off the course.

Methodius of Olympus Katharina Bracht, 2017-12-04. Methodius of Olympus ca. 311 CE is regarded as a key author in 3rd c. Christian theology. In recent years, his works have become objects of intense research interest on the part of Church historians, classical Greek and Paleoslavonic philologists and scholars of Armenia. The essays in this volume examine the current state of research, enhance our understanding of Methodius with valuable new information and open up new research perspectives.

The Retrieval of Ethics Talbot Brewer, 2011-04-21. Talbot Brewer presents an invigorating new approach to ethical theory in the context of human selfhood and agency. The first main theme of the book is that contemporary ethical theorists have focused too narrowly on actions and the discrete episodes of deliberation through which we choose them and that the subject matter of the field looks quite different if one looks instead at unfolding activities and the continuous forms of evaluative awareness that carry them forward and that constitute an essential element of those activities. The second is that ethical reflection is itself a centrally important life activity and that philosophical ethics is an extension of this practical activity rather than a merely theoretical reflection upon it. Brewer's approach is founded on a far-reaching reconsideration of the notions of the nature and sources of human agency and particularly of the way in which practical thinking gives shape to activities, relationships and lives. He contests the usual understanding of the relationship between philosophical psychology and ethics. The Retrieval of Ethics shows the need for a new contemplative vision of the point or value of human action without which we will remain unable to make optimal sense of our efforts to unify our lives around a tenable conception of how best to live them or of the yearnings that draw us to our ideals and to each other Mission Field ,1873 The Principles of Judicial Proof John Henry Wigmore,1913 Year-book
