Eighteenth-Century Fiction and the Reinvention of Wonder Sarah Tindal

Kareem,2014-10-23 A footprint materializes mysteriously on a deserted shore a giant helmet falls from the sky a traveler awakens to find his horse dangling from a church steeple Eighteenth century fiction brims with moments such as these in which the prosaic rubs up against the marvelous While it is a truism that the period s literature is distinguished by its realism and air of probability Eighteenth Century Fiction and the Reinvention of Wonder argues that wonder is integral to rather than antithetical to the developing techniques of novelistic fiction Positioning its reader on the cusp between recognition and estrangement between faith and doubt modern fiction hinges upon wonder Eighteenth Century Fiction and the Reinvention of Wonder unfolds its new account of fiction s rise through surprising readings of classic early novels from Daniel Defoe s Robinson Crusoe to Jane Austen s Northanger Abbey and brings to attention lesser known works most notably Rudolf Raspe s Baron Munchausen s Narrative of His Marvellous Travels In this bold new account the eighteenth century bears witness not to the world s disenchantment but rather to wonder s relocation from the supernatural realm to the empirical world providing a reevaluation not only of how we look back at the Enlightenment but also of how we read today

Nourishing Caregiver Collaborations Nawal Qarooni,2023-12-15 In Nourishing Caregiver Collaborations Elevating Home Experiences and Classroom Practices for Collective Care Nawal Qarooni invites us to step beyond school centric one off events and practices to create more authentic engaging collaborations with caregivers Instead of asking what families can do to support schools Qarooni asks how schools can identify and celebrate what families already inherently bring to their children s literacy learning Establishing this work in holistic teaching a pedagogical mindset that affirms the importance of loving the whole child through compassionate collective care Qarooni explores five critical literacy tenets by highlighting opportunities to listen for honor connect to and elevate family strengths while inviting them even further into our shared work and encouraging reflection around Recognizing the journey of process Celebrating the role collaboration plays within the collective Using observational literacy to read the world Advocating for the power of talk to grow ideas and connect with others Giving children choice to make self directed decisions With moments of memoir woven in alongside diverse family examples and classroom stories connected to realistic instructional practices Qarooni shows how all families contribute meaningfully to their children s literacy lives Discover how we can tap into those vast wells to support learning at home and in school while building positive reciprocal relationships across both settings With an afterword by En Comunidad authors Carla Espa a and Luz Yadira Herrera Nourishing Caregiver Collaborations is rooted in the simple truth that we cannot separate knowing our students from knowing their home communities and the people that they love This book offers a toolkit for connecting with families and elevating the intrinsic strengths that reside in every child s home
