Look At Cuba:

Looking at Cuba Kathleen Pohl, 2008-07-01 Examines the features of the country of Cuba with illustrations and key facts about the land and people Let's Look at Cuba Nikki Bruno Clapper, 2018-01-01 Welcome to Cuba Hear the strong dance beat of salsa music Walk city streets lined with colorful buildings Learn about the people places and traditions of this hot island country Provided by publisher Hearings United States. Congress Senate, 1962 Looking Back from 2101 Steve Halpern, 2002-01-08 During the 1990s the politicians and media pundits argued that we experienced the most dramatic financial upturn in the history of the United States Yet today in the year 2001 forty five million people lack health insurance thirty five million experience hunger millions are functionally illiterate and anyone living in Philadelphia who earns the minimum wage needs to work eighty four hours per week to avoid homelessness When we look at the facts the so called financial upturn of the 1990s was a myth for eighty percent of the population Today when we adjust for inflation the least affluent eighty percent of the population earns no more than they did in the early 1970s yet they routinely work more hours As harsh as all these conditions are an all out collapse of the economy is possible in our lifetimes While these conditions exist an enormous amount of waste is generated in the world Whether we purchase a tooth pick or a town house we pay for services which add nothing to those commodities When we need medical care we would never go to an insurance agent yet insurance companies profit off of our need for health care When we purchase a house we don't rely on bankers to build the house yet banks collect enormous sums in interest payments for the purchase of homes When we turn on the television we see advertising which adds nothing to the quality of the programming yet we pay more for commodities because of advertising These few examples show how there are enormous resources which could be used to make dramatic improvements in the standard of living throughout the world Looking Back From 2101 is a novel which imagines what the world might look like if human needs were the top priority and the primary motivating force of society was human solidarity This book has a similar theme as Looking Backwards by Edward Bellemly which was written in 1887 and sold millions of copies throughout the world Harry Goldberg is a factory worker in the year 2001 One night he goes to sleep and doesn't awaken until the year 2101 In this world of the future Harry discovers that poverty has been eliminated yet people are only asked to work for twenty hours per week The government strives to eliminate alienation from the workplace and to organize industrial production in a way that is harmonious with the environment Everyone who is born into this world has many rights which they can use throughout their lifetimes These include the right to food clothing housing health care education communication transportation and exposure to the arts or recreational activities Everyone is also encouraged to offer their opinions concerning any and all topics From the perspective of this future world Harry proceeds to have a series of conversations with African Americans women a Puerto Rican a Native American a farmer a garment worker a doctor and a student where they explore how and why the world was transformed Harry begins to realize that all the advances which he is witnessing in this new world were indeed possible in the twentieth century These changes didnt occur because of scientific achievements or brilliant political leaders The transformation of society came about because of the determination of the masses of people to construct a world where human needs are more important than profits and human solidarity is the best way of motivating working people Looking Back From 2101 is an attempt to contrast the world as it exists from the world as it might be While politicians and media pundits tell us what we cant achieve this book makes an attempt to look at what is possible

Fernandez,2021-11-18 In spite of the growing academic interest in Cuba s international relations in the revolutionary period Cuba s policy toward the Middle East has been a neglected field of study Although the Middle East has not been a high priority item on Fidel Castro s agenda various factors have combined to propel the regime into taking a more active stance in the region not least of which is the importance of the Middle East to the Soviet Union Some of these factors have been ideological such as the nature of Castroism itself Other factors have been more pragmatic the need to increase Cuba s leverage with the Soviet Union the desire to establish spheres of interest of its own in the Third World the attempt to use external politics to soothe internal problems and the wish to maximize the prestige of the Cuban revolution and by extension that of its lider maximo Since 1959 Havana s Middle Eastern policy has experienced four stages 1 1959 1973 Autonomous foreign policy marked by a dual relationship with both Israel and the Arab states 2 1973 1977 Accommodation to the Soviet line anti Israeli policy combined with an expansion of relations with progressive states signalled by the establishment of Cuban military missions 3 1977 1980 Activist policy in the region expanded role and development of diplomatic relationships 4 1981 to the present 1985 Cautious involvement restrained activism emphasizing socio economic cooperation Cuba s incursion into the Arab world illuminates how Cuban foreign policy works especially in relation to autonomy convergence and subordination dependence pragmatism and ideology The island s entrance into Middle East politics has introduced new risks into the island s foreign policy in return for the benefits which have been derived A theory to explain Cuba s foreign policy in its interaction with the Soviet Union in the Third World must include heretofore neglected variables time regime type and factionalism bureaucratic politics in addition to external events The study of Cuba s initiatives in the Middle East will serve to test this theory Examining the Status of U.S. Trade with Cuba and Its Impact on Economic Growth United States.

Syllabi Carnegie Endowment for International Peace. Division of Intercourse and Education. International Relations Clubs,1923 Operation Pedro Pan and the Exodus of Cuba's Children Deborah Shnookal,2022-06-28 This in depth examination of one of the most controversial episodes in U S Cuba relations sheds new light on the program that airlifted 14 000 unaccompanied children to the United States in the wake of the Cuban Revolution Operation Pedro Pan is often remembered within the U S as an urgent rescue mission but Deborah Shnookal points out that a multitude of complex factors drove the exodus including Cold War propaganda and the Catholic Church s opposition to the island s new government

Shnookal illustrates how and why Cold War scare tactics were so effective in setting the airlift in motion focusing on their context the rapid and profound social changes unleashed by the 1959 Revolution including the mobilization of 100 000 Cuban teenagers in the 1961 national literacy campaign Other reforms made by the revolutionary government affected women education religious schools and relations within the family and between the races Shnookal exposes how in its effort to undermine support for the revolution the U S government manipulated the aspirations and insecurities of more affluent Cubans She traces the parallel stories of the young Pedro Pans separated from their families in some cases indefinitely in what is often regarded in Cuba as a mass kidnapping and the children who stayed and joined the literacy brigades These divergent journeys reveal many underlying issues in the historically fraught relationship between the U S and Cuba and much about the profound social revolution that took place on the island after 1959 Publication of the paperback edition made possible by a Sustaining the Humanities through the American Rescue Plan grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities
