Looking At Iran:

Iran Looking East Annalisa Perteghella, 2020-01-12 In February 2018 anticipating the US withdrawal from the JCPOA Iran's Supreme Leader Ayatollah Ali Khamenei declared a policy of preferring East over West thus paving the way for deeper cooperation with Asian powers such as China Russia and India Differently from the Look East policy promoted during the presidency of Ahmadinejad 2005-2013 the current Iranian strategy is not only functional to escape the US led isolation but it rather seems devoted to the consolidation of a block of power which can commit to security and economic schemes in alternative to the Western dominated ones This ISPI report aims to answer few crucial questions Which are the major initiatives promoted within Iran's Look East 2020 strategy To what extent will Tehran succeed in creating a solid Eastern block What will be the influence of the wider geopolitical context And finally what role is left for the EU

Iran and China Shirzad Azad, 2017-02-09 Because of their historical roles and politico economic significance in contemporary international politics Iran and China have perpetually been in the crosshairs of both policy circles and interested observers in almost every other part of the world Crucial interactions touching upon any aspect of Tehran Beijing ties from diplomatic and military links to economic and cultural connections have especially been in the limelight of such riveting inquisitiveness which has often given rise to a flurry of rash comments sensational claims and impetuous conclusions But a detached probe into critical developments involving Iran and China however elucidates this rather inconvenient eventuality that the relations between the two important countries are not essentially based on pivotal principles and clear cut commitments nor do their ties really rest on tenuous thoughts and flimsy foundations devoid of any common interests in short term or well conceived objectives in long run In the same way the two political systems in Tehran and Beijing may ultimately end up each contributing to a separate pole of power regionally and internationally rather than moving faithfully and steadfastly in lockstep with what it requires them to truly materialize their more recent aspiration and design to move toward achieving a very close strategic partnership

Henry Hemming,2010-11-26 Experience the tale of a hapless young artist Yasmine the pick up and an extraordinary journey across the world Ceasefire! Ivan Molloy,2020-02-27 This is a true story On one level it is part my autobiography On another it deals with three generations of my family s active involvement in war terrorism political and social conflict and the tragic emotional and psychological consequences my family endured as a result In 2009 as an Australian academic with expertise in global terrorism and a one time aspiring federal politician I fled to France to try and deal with clinical depression and associated Post Traumatic Stress Disorder PTSD I was fleeing the nightmare of a destroyed career and a shattered family As I tried to battle the Black Dog of depression suicide was a very real option for me But first I decided to write a book about my research and involvement with Muslim terrorists and revolutionary guerrilla groups in the Philippines It was a way of combating a public media campaign that had destroyed my professional and private life But to do this I needed to retrace both my own and my family's earlier experiences with conflicts elsewhere which influenced me to choose such research. In so doing I discovered new realities about the psychological condition I was battling and how it impacted on and haunted my own extended family over generations and all due to war and social conflict with horrific human consequences. Ultimately I have concluded I'm certainly not alone in my struggle. I'm merely another casualty of a brutal primeval human phenomenon which continually infects the psychology of the next generation. It is the phenomenon of the subconscious human struggle for the survival of the fittest. Now with a greater understanding of my condition I have at least so far managed a stand off with the Black Dog. I realise it wasn't spawned by any particular condition of my own but rather the very nature of human society. So far society still fails to take responsibility for generating such a condition and instead still promotes our innate species drive to achieve the survival of the fittest an endgame which usually results in warfare. In the 21st century if we do not challenge and change our notion of what is needed to survive then forget the Koreas, ISIS, nuclear warfare etc human kind will eventually psychologically and then physically self destruct. How did I come to this realisation? It all played out in a small village called Ouroux En Morvan in France.
