Make God Look Good H. Vonzell Castilla, 2015-08-04 You're prepared to teach your Sunday School class or lead Bible Study when out of the blue someone asks the dreaded question everyone seems to ask at some point What on Earth am I here for Wow so much for lesson preparation Considering the extensive teaching and preaching on calling and purpose these days you'd think answering such a question would be a slam dunk Think again Most believers don't have a clue as to how to answer that question or its companion inquiry What on Earth am I supposed to be doing This uplifting book taps the ultimate resource of the Word of God to provide compelling answers to these questions and more With a unique blend of lively narrative entertaining stories and theological discussions the author challenges and inspires readers to fulfill their true purpose to MAKE GOD LOOK GOOD Why Do You Believe What You Believe About the Holy Spirit? Graham

McFarlane, 2009-04-01 Why do you believe what you believe about the Holy Spirit Are your beliefs based on current trends of thought in the church or the world around you or do they fit in with what the Bible and Christian tradition teaches Does it matter What are the consequences of your beliefs In this thought provoking survey Graham McFarlane draws on the insight of ancient and modern thinkers to work out the implications of the biblical witness to the Spirit for the individual believer and for the church as a reconciling community Combining clear teaching with practical applications this book encourages readers to think through their faith

Recovering Religious Concepts D. Phillips, 1999-09-22 Here it is argued that we need to recover concepts from the distortions of philosophy In this collection the author shows the disastrous consequences for an understanding of religion of the epistemic divides which can be found in contemporary philosophy of religion divides between belief and practice the world and God religious experience and religious contexts By closing these divides religious significance is given its proper place

Grace R.T. Kendall, 2013-10-22 You don't deserve it You can't buy it You can't live without it Many believers wrestle with grace and with the notion of doing better or trying harder in living the Christian life Best selling author R T Kendall explains that you are totally acceptable to God through faith in Christ You are justified freely as a gift You are a winner before you start You are accepted before you have done anything Discover how God's grace covers failure and sin and justifies you freely as a gift Within these pages you will be encouraged as you find new freedom revelation and joy in this in depth study of the Ten Commandments Some of the life lessons that Kendall shares in this message include What a glorious goal God has for each of His children How to view this world as a temporary place Why it is important not to put down deep roots in this culture When to say no to the pressures of this world Why being good isn't enough to get you into heaven God has a particular and personal delight in you He will always love and cherish you GirlTalk / GodTalk Joyce

Mercer, 2008-04 In this refreshing account of the faith lives of adolescent girls and the roles parents play in shaping that faith 50 girls from 12 different denominations tell deeply personal stories about what it means to be young female and Christian

Ethics of Belief: Essays in Tribute to D.Z. Phillips Eugene Thomas Long, Patrick Horn, 2008-02-28 Eugene Thomas

Long Originally published in the International Journal for Philosophy of Religion Volume 63 Nos 1 3 DOI 10 1007 s11153 007 9155 4 Springer Science Business Media B V 2007 This volume is presented as a tribute to the life and work of D Z Phillips Six of the articles were originally presented at the annual conference on the philosophy of religion organized by Phillips and held at Claremont Graduate University February 9 10 2007 Unfortunately Phillips did not live to participate in the conference itself He died unexpectedly July 25 2006 in the library of his beloved University of Wales Swansea Previously published volumes of essays based on conferences organized by Phillips in Claremont included a chapter entitled Voices in Discussion in which Phillips provided his own reactions to the discussions written almost immediately after the conference Sadly this volume appears without the addition of his voice Born in Morriston near Swansea Phillips was a Welsh speaker a strong supporter of Welsh speaking schools and the author of many works in philosophy and literature in Welsh and English Known widely as the leading representative of the movement in the philosophy of religion called Wittgensteinianism Phillips spent much of his effort challenging the tendency of philosophers to elevate one kind of discourse to the point where it becomes the norm by which other forms of discourse are to be judged

The Reality of God and the Problem of Evil Brian Davies, 2006-10-11 An important new book on how we can still believe in a God of love and confront the problem of evil in the world Probably the most important book on the subject since John Hick's book Evil and the God of Love Professor Davies says we should tackle this problem by attending to the basics by asking whether there is a God and then What is God he starts by summarizing the arguments so far from Seneca to the present day He then moves to what he describes as the basics see above and demonstrates that much of what has been written about on the topic of evil is in fact irrelevant or just plain wrong This is a lively book on a tricky subject written at all times with humour and much practical example

In Tongues of Mortals and

Angels Eric D. Barreto, Jacob D. Myers, Thelathia “Nikki” Young, 2018-11-15 Through close textual engagement theological exposition ethical reflection and interdisciplinary collaboration this book presents a constructive theology of divine speech in the Acts of the Apostles and 1 Corinthians in critical conversation with contemporary issues of sociopolitical ecclesial and theological importance In particular the authors attend to pericopes in Acts and Paul that open up fresh ways of thinking about divine discourse preaching and advocacy in light of contemporary matters of theological and ethical import In addition to classical modes of textual and theological analysis the authors attend to the sociopolitical and sociolinguistic aspects of speech as they arise in these pericopes As such the authors are simultaneously deconstructing these texts through postcolonial and post structural analyses to expose these texts to an alterity at work therein an alterity that has been muted by centuries of biblical interpretation

Witness and Existence Philip E. Devenish, George L. Goodwin, 1989-06-05 For over thirty years Schubert Ogden has championed and exemplified a particular understanding of the task and content of Christian theology The task of theology is to examine the meaning and truth of Christian faith in terms of human experience All theological claims therefore are assessable by two criteria their appropriateness to the normative Christian witness and their credibility in terms of human existence The content of Christian theology may be accurately and succinctly stated in two words radical monotheism The point of all theological doctrines from christology to ethics is to reflect on the gift and demand of God’s love It may be said then that Ogden’s entire theological project consists in the attempt to show that radical monotheism which is the essential point of the Christian witness is also the inclusive end of human existence Witness and Existence pays tribute to Ogden by bringing together essays by eminent scholars in New Testament studies and philosophical theology two fields which directly reflect his methodological concerns and his substantive contributions The book honors Ogden precisely by engaging the fundamental issues which Ogden himself has taken so seriously The first group of essays presents careful analyses of issues basic to the early Christian witness the second group examines the credibility of the Christian claim about God in terms of human experience The editors’ introductory essay provides the first comprehensive analysis yet to appear of Ogden’s theology A complete bibliography of his published writings is included as an appendix

Faith and the Life of Reason Y. King-Farlow, W.N. Christensen, 2012-12-06 This book brings together ideas and materials which we have discussed together over the years as friends and colleagues We draw on four papers published by us both as co authors and on several more papers published by King Farlow alone We wish to thank the editors and publishers of the following journals for permission to make use of matter or points which have appeared in their pages in the years indicated The Philosophical Quarterly 1957 1962 1971 The Thomist 1958 1971 1972 The International Philosophical Quarterly 1962 Theoria 1963 The Southern Journal of Philosophy 1963 Sophia 1965 1967 1969 1971 Philosophical Studies of Eire 1968 1970 1971 Philosophy and Phenomenological Research 1968 Analysis 1970 Religious Studies Cambridge University Press 1971 we acknowledge a debt to H D Lewis Editor on page 20 This book is not however a collection of reprinted articles It is a continuous work which deals with a vital cluster of problems in the philosophy of religion In this work we attempt to utilize both our earlier thoughts often considerably revised and our very recent ones in order to argue for the good sense and rationality of making certain strong forms of commitment to some basic elements of primary wisdom in the Judaeo Christian tradition While pursuing the investigations which have led to the writing of this book we have found ourselves becoming indebted to many individuals and institutions

Hebrews: A Social Identity Commentary Matthew J. Marohl, 2025-09-04 In this volume Matthew J Marohl introduces a culturally sensitive reading of Hebrews employing a social identity approach This allows readers to encounter a unique and powerful depiction of the faithful Jesus and a dynamic group of Christ followers called upon to maintain their faithfulness In the end this social identity approach reveals a work with two strands thoroughly intertwined Through the lens of conceptual blending theory Marohl examines the way in which the author combines the multiple identities of the addressees shedding light on the community dynamics of early Christ followers Marohl explores how the author describes ingroup boundaries how faithfulness is held up as the ultimate ingroup norm and how the promised rest is grounded in the language of the anticipated future Ultimately Marohl argues that Hebrews is a prime example of literature created out of crisis

Frese, 2006-07-21 When Janelle's grandfather dies in her arms she sees in his eyes an answer to the undying question we all struggle with in life Where do we go from here By fate or by faith she follows the mystery of the eyes to find Chaplain Barber the man who would save her from death's sorrow and change her life forever Chaplain George Russell Barber is the last living chaplain from the D Day landing on Omaha Beach

June 6 1944 He survived Normandy's bloodiest beach battle I dug like it was only up to me I prayed like it was only up to God Together we dug that hole pretty deep He went on to march across Europe for eleven more months without a weapon Armed only with his Bible and his faith Chaplain Barber preached the gospel during the most dangerous war scenes of the European theatre in World War II There are no atheists in foxholes One of the last of the red blooded American boys Chaplain Barber tells Janelle his life history like a Little Big Man of the Greatest Generation From the cotton fields back home to the Horse Cavalry days through three wars the Space Age and the war on terrorism his life of service grips the heart of the small town patriot and likewise spins the mind of the spiritually inquisitive The Bible has been known to stop a bullet but that's not the only reason I believe Through their conversations prayers and meditations Janelle and the Chaplain mix the secret ingredients for the recipe of the Red White and Blue in you

Whose God? Which Tradition? Dewi Zephaniah Phillips, 2008-01-01 Philosophy of Religion is marked by controversy over which philosophical accounts do justice to core religious beliefs Many Wittgensteinian philosophers are accused by analytic philosophers of religion of distorting these beliefs In Whose God Which Tradition the accusers stand accused of the same by leading philosophers in the Thomist and Reformed traditions Their criticisms alert us to the dangers of uncritical acceptance of dominant philosophical traditions and to the need to do justice to the conceptual uniqueness of the reality of God The dissenting voices breathe new life into the central issues concerning the nature of belief in God

In Face of Reality Thomas A. James, 2011-04-01 This study of the work of noted liberal theologian Gordon Kaufman tracks his career from his first published book Relativism Knowledge and Faith 1960 through his 2006 book Jesus and Creativity in light of recent conversations about divine action and modern scientific knowledge James interprets Kaufman's mature position as a sophisticated reconstruction of divine activity that makes use of recent scientific theory and its naturalistic assumptions in order to revitalize a theocentric frame of reference rooted in classical theological tradition Though there are costs to be paid in the construction of a theology of radical naturalism particularly with respect to the relation between divine action and the human good Kaufman's program offers a distinctive way forward After developing a critical analysis of the limitations and possibilities of Kaufman's mature position James suggests that a christological reconsideration of the meaning of human flourishing offers the prospect of an even more radically naturalistic and theocentric theology
