Disaster Research and the Second Environmental Crisis James Kendra,Scott G. Knowles,Tricia Wachtendorf,2019-04-04 The 50th anniversary of the Disaster Research Center of the University of Delaware provoked a discussion of the field s background its accomplishments and its future directions Participants representing many disciplines brought new methods to bear on perennial problems relevant to effective disaster management and policy formation However new concerns were raised stemming from the fact that we live today in a globally unfolding environmental crisis every bit as pressing and worrisome as that of the 1960s when the Disaster Research center was founded This volume brings together ideas of participants from that workshop as well as other contributors Topics include the history and evolution of disaster research innovations in disaster management disaster policy and ethical considerations of disaster research Readers interested in science and technology public policy community action and the evolution of the social sciences will find much of interest in this collection EPA Publications Bibliography United States. Environmental Protection Agency,2000-07 New Public Management in Africa Benon C. Basheka,Lukamba-Muhiya. Tshombe,2017-08-25 The administrative sciences have been dominated by a turn to managerial perspectives in the late 20th and early 21st centuries and in the spirit of this turn New Public Management or NPM promises to produce efficient responsible and client oriented public services The reforms carried out in the pursuit of New Public Management are often accompanied by great optimism and rapid enthusiastic steps toward implementation Even in highly developed industrial countries however these fundamental reforms often overlook the political and cultural contexts of the implementing country New Public Management in Africa Emerging Issues and Lessons provides much needed theoretical foundations for NPM reforms in the African context and reflects on the success of existing reforms in the development of several African states The individual contributions in this timely volume provide important analyses of academic discourse practical policy achievements and desiderata The book as a whole however provides a valuable impetus for public administration research in and on African states sharing findings on the results of reforms to date and adjustments required for these reforms to succeed For public administration researchers outside of Africa this book offers a review of New Public Management case studies that are unavailable or difficult to find elsewhere contributing much to the exchange between African and Western administration science research and demonstrating that African administrative research is well prepared to help resolve global challenges EPA Publications Bibliography Quarterly Abstract Bulletin United States. Environmental Protection Agency,2000-07 Managing Urban America Robert E. England,John P. Pelissero,David R. Morgan,2016-05-06 Managing Urban America guides students through the challenges politics and practice of urban management including managing conflict through politics adapting to demographic and social changes balancing budgets and delivering a myriad of goods and services to citizens in an efficient equitable and responsive manner The Eighth Edition has been thoroughly updated to include a discussion of the difficulties cities confront as they deal with the lingering economic challenges of the 2008 recession the concept of e government and how it affects the theory and practice of management and the implications of environmental issues for urban government management Managing Local Government Kimberly L.
