agencies and the nonprofit sector Sport Policy and Politics in an Era of Austerity Dan Parnell, Peter Millward, Paul A. Widdop, Neil King, Anthony May, 2019-03-27 Austerity is perhaps the major challenge of our times given the speed at which it arrived and the consequences of its impact upon society The global financial crash and economic downturn was the catalyst for change and against a backdrop of advice from experts adverse to Keynesian economics the ideology of austerity grew and became the dominant thinking to steer economies out of recession This comprehensive volume draws upon both quantitative and qualitative research methodologies to provide a varied and contextually rich insight into sport policy and politics in an era of austerity The authors cover a wide range of issues in a variety of organisational contexts and geographies including sports participation across different socio demographic groups the impact of austerity on the provision of community sports disability sport public management of sport facilities the performance of public sport facilities with respect to access finance utilisation and customer satisfaction the potential impact of austerity on sport for development elite sport and social inclusion and poverty This book makes a significant contribution to the current academic debate while raising important considerations for policymakers and managers It was originally published as a special issue of The International Journal of Sport Policy and Politics Managing Public Services - Implementing Changes Tony L. Doherty, Terry Horne, Simon Wootton, 2014-01-03 The work of a manager in a service organisation is not the same as the work of a manager in an organisation that manufactures goods Managing Public Services Implementing Changes A Thoughtful Approach 2e is for students and managers who intend to work in a service organisation whether it is owned publicly or privately This book concentrates on how managers can change things for the better and explains why as well as how The second edition has been fully updated to address challenges facing public services with new material on managing cuts managing risk managing innovation producing funding applications Lean Management and process review A new chapter on managing social enterprise and generating social capital has also been added This text is both solidly practical and theoretically challenging and is supported by strong pedagogical features including case studies and illustrative vignettes from public service managers working in Europe Asia Australia and the US exercises and review questions Students will develop learning skills that enable them to transfer their learning from one situation to another and thinking skills that enable them adapt the way that they apply their learning as circumstances change This comprehensive text has been specifically designed and developed to meet the needs of students studying public services management at undergraduate and postgraduate level It allows the reader to develop transferable skills in thinking and learning as they work through the book and gives greater awareness of the benefits of continuous learning for staff and managers Creating and Managing a Sustainable Sporting Future Vassilios Ziakas, Aaron Beacom, 2020-06-09 Creating and Managing a Sustainable Sporting Future contributes to a critical understanding of the challenges key stakeholders across the globe encounter as they seek to manage periods of transition brought about by policy change relating to the provision of sport and physical activity The book uncovers the global challenges in terms of managing the re orientation of stakeholder activities and organisational strategies in response to the aspirations for a wider range of outcomes through sport based interventions and establishment of partnerships with non sport sectors It illuminates the increasingly erratic trajectory of sport development service providers as the environment within which sport organisations operate changes through for example climate change demographic shifts changing features of local economies and alterations to the structures of local government and governance and the responses of sport organisations to these new realities differ greatly depending on location institutional structures and leadership The chapters highlight the changing social economic environmental and policy contexts within which sports organisations operate and explain the subsequent need for new approaches to partnership working physical activity re scoping and integrated education programming Showing that the international mandate of creating active lifestyles and subsequent re orientation of stakeholders towards physical activity cannot only contribute to re defining sport but also in identifying novel ways for building and managing a sustainable sporting future Creating and Managing a Sustainable Sporting Future is ideal for Sports scholars and particularly those working on Sport Policy and Sustainable sport development This book was originally published as a special issue of Managing Sport and Leisure The New Walford Ray Lester,2005 Covers 15 broad subject groupings social sciences generic psychology sociology social work politics government law finance accountancy industries business education sport media information and tools for information professionals
