Education Policy Les Bell, Howard Stevenson, 2006-09-27 The study of educational leadership makes little sense unless it is in relation to who the leaders are how they are leading what is being led and with what effect Based on the premise that learning is at the heart of leadership and that leaders themselves should be learners the Leadership for Learning series explores the connections between educational leadership policy curriculum human resources and accountability Each book in the series approaches its subject matter through a three fold structure of process themes and impact Series Editors Clive Dimmock Mark Brundrett and Les Bell As global pressures focus increasing attention on the outcomes of education policy and on their implications for economic prosperity and social citizenship the experience of each individual learner is decisively shaped by the wider policy environment However there is often an underdeveloped understanding of how education policy is formed what drives it and how it impacts on schools and colleges This book explicitly makes these connections and links them to the wider challenges of educational leadership in a modern context Education Policy is divided into three sections which examine the development of policy at the levels of the nation state and individual institutions the forces that shape policies with emphasis on human capital theory citizenship and social justice and accountability research based case studies highlighting the application of policy in a range of situations The book provides a valuable resource for students practitioners middle managers and educational leaders in all sectors both in the UK and internationally who are engaged on masters and doctoral degrees or undertaking leadership training and preparation programmes Managing the Curriculum in South African Schools Marianne Coleman, M. Graham-Jolly, David Middlewood, 2003 The introduction of Curriculum 2005 and Outcomes Based Education mark both a sea change in the way in which education is offered in schools and a challenge to all involved This book considers the main issues in curriculum management as education switches to a more devolved framework The Practices of School Middle Leadership Peter Grootenboer, 2018-06-07 This book uses practice theory to examine the role of middle leadership In particular it investigates the practices of leading in the middle in the cultural discursive material economic and social political domains i e the sayings doings and relatings of middle leading This perspective acknowledges the ecological arrangement of leading practices in schools and the necessity of considering the unavoidable reality of the site The analysis is used to promote the need to view leading in the middle as a form of praxis a morally and ethically informed practice that requires thoughtful decision making and action in situations where the outcomes are not always clear This book focuses on the practice of leading for those in middle management positions in primary and secondary schools such as those responsible for curriculum leadership including senior teachers assistant principals and curriculum leaders In their positions that bridge management and the classroom they are significant leaders in promoting and sustaining effective pedagogy for good learning outcomes and they have to continue to provide high quality teaching in their own classrooms while simultaneously being a mentor coach supporter and evaluator for their colleagues Handbook of Research on Educational Leadership and Research Methodology Wang, Viktor, 2022-06-24 Education inevitably influences society and our future As literature and experience tells educational leaders impact not only their institutions but ultimately the learning outcomes for a large portion of society's members Educational leaders are charged with more than creating a viable future for an institution they are also charged with contributing to and creating a viable positive human future not an easy task amid the turbulence and disruption of our times The Handbook of Research on Educational Leadership and Research Methodology discusses the evolution of educational leadership knowledge thoughts and practices by sharing the perspectives experiences theories and philosophies related to educational leadership and research methodologies across all levels of education Covering topics such as critical race design toxic leadership and adult learning this major reference work is a critical resource for faculty and administrators of both K 12 and higher education principals superintendents chancellors directors pre service teachers teaching instructors government officials librarians researchers and academicians Encyclopedia of Strategic Leadership and Management Wang, Viktor, 2016-12-12 Strategic leadership techniques are the cornerstone to positive growth and prosperity within businesses and organizations Implementing new management strategies and practices helps to ensure managers are optimizing their resources and driving innovation The Encyclopedia of Strategic Leadership and Management investigates emergent administrative techniques and business practices being utilized within corporate and educational settings Highlighting empirical research and best practices within the field this encyclopedia will be an authoritative reference source for students researchers faculty librarians managers and leaders across various disciplines and cultures Goal Pursuit in Education Using Focused Action Research Eileen Piggot-Irvine, 2015-01-20 Not everyone finds goals easy to select or focus on despite escalating evidence of their importance in education This book offers a simple action research approach to goal pursuit favoring depth informed decision making and an improvement orientation It presents practical yet academically informed ideas and has real case study examples

Praxeology as a Challenge Anna Herbert, Anja Kraus, 2013 The question how to do things with words John L Austin could characterize the field of pedagogy in general if not also practices structural and material aspects had to be taken into account The empirical question how social practices constitute a binding reality comes close to the praxeological perspective On one side praxeology is a specific methodological approach to explore practices empirically On the other side it covers philosophical or sociological theories of action regarding sociality as generated by social practices and contextual structures Practices are supposed to transmit constitute and create establish e g social orders The focus lies on corporal performative and emergent aspects of the practices All the mainly empirical studies in this volume deal with the praxeological question how sociality is generated in dynamic and relational actions in a pedagogical frame
