Managing Rural Development With Small Farmer Participation:

Managing Rural Development with Small Farmer Participation Coralie Bryant, Louise G. White, 1984

Organization and Management of Agricultural Development for Small Farmers John Howell, Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, 1992-01-01 Rural Development in South Korea William W. Boyer, 1991 After considering the problem of decentralizing rural development in South Korea generally the authors analyze the proliferation period from 1970 to 1979 of Seemaul Undong South Korea's so called New Community Movement which was an attempt to achieve an integrated rural development program The final chapter suggests directions for South Korea and draws implications for development elsewhere Integrated Rural Development John M. Cohen, 1987 Improving

International Irrigation Management With Farmer Participation Norman Uphoff, 2019-05-20 Traditionally indigenous irrigation in many countries of Asia Africa and Latin America has been managed quite well by water users who design build operate and maintain often sophisticated but usually small scale systems More recently in connection with large scale development programs and government managed schemes the planned introduction of Ecological Management of Agricultural Weeds Matt Liebman, Charles L. Mohler, Charles P. Staver, 2001-07-19 Concerns over environmental and human health impacts of conventional weed management practices herbicide resistance in weeds and rising costs of crop production and protection have led agricultural producers and scientists in many countries to seek strategies that take greater advantage of ecological processes and thereby allow a reduction in herbicide use This book provides principles and practices for ecologically based weed management in a wide range of temperate and tropical farming systems After examining weed life histories and processes determining the assembly of weed communities the authors describe how tillage and cultivation practices manipulations of soil conditions competitive cultivars crop diversification grazing livestock arthropod and microbial biocontrol agents and other factors can be used to reduce weed germination growth competitive ability reproduction and dispersal Special attention is given to the evolutionary challenges that weeds pose and the roles that farmers can play in the development of new weed management strategies Factors affecting the formation of FWUCs in institution building for PIMD in Cambodia: Two case studies Perera, L. R., 2006-08-16 Cambodia adopted Participatory Irrigation Management and Development PIMD as a national policy quite recently in recognition of the need for community participation and ownership of irrigation schemes in order to improve the performance of irrigation systems to achieve operational sustainability and economic development Under this program the Royal Government of Cambodia is seeking to devolve responsibility for all aspects of scheme operations to Farmer Water User Communities FWUCs which constitute the focal institutional mechanism of PIMD Implementing PIMD in Cambodia under many existing unfavorable conditions including high levels of poverty low agricultural productivity and deteriorated irrigation systems with frequently poor design is a very difficult and challenging task This study carried out towards the end of 2004 in two irrigation schemes of contrasting socioeconomic and physical scenarios analyzes the factors that influence the formation of FWUCs under different physical socioeconomic legal and institutional conditions In this analysis it was found that the favorable socioeconomic conditions appropriateness of the strategies and the process followed and link with the local institutions were the key attributes for the formation of functional FWUCs in the implementation of PIMD
