and evil battle for ascendancy As Patrick French has written Read th A Partial Enlightenment Avram Alpert, 2021-04-06 In many ways Buddhism has become the global religion of the modern world For its contemporary followers the ideal of enlightenment promises inner peace and worldly harmony And whereas other philosophies feel abstract and disembodied Buddhism offers meditation as a means to realize this ideal If we could all be as enlightened as Buddhists some imagine we could live in a much better world For some time now however this beatific image of Buddhism has been under attack Scholars and practitioners have criticized it as a Western fantasy that has nothing to do with the actual experiences of Buddhists Avram Alpert combines personal experience and readings of modern novels to offer another way to understand modern Buddhism He argues that it represents a rich resource not for attaining perfection but rather for finding meaning and purpose in a chaotic world Finding unexpected affinities across world literature Rudyard Kipling in colonial India Yukio Mishima in postwar Japan Bessie Head escaping apartheid South Africa as well as in his own experiences living with Tibetan exiles Alpert shows how these stories illuminate a world in which suffering is inevitable and total enlightenment is impossible Yet they also give us access to partial enlightenments powerful insights that become available when we come to terms with imperfection and stop looking for wholeness A Partial Enlightenment reveals the moments of personal and social transformation that the inventions of modern Buddhism help make possible Modern Tibetan Literature and Social Change Lauran R. Hartley, Patricia Schiaffini-Vedani, 2008-07-16 The first systematic and detailed overview of modern Resistant Hybridities Shelly Bhoil, 2020-11-12 With its analytic focus on the cultural production by Tibetan literature Tibetans in exile this volume examines contemporary Tibetan fiction poetry music art cinema pamphlets testimony and memoir The twelve case studies highlight the themes of Tibetans self representation politicized national consciousness religious and cultural heritages and resistance to the forces of colonization This book demonstrates how Tibetan cultural narratives adjust to intercultural influences and ongoing social and political struggles in exile Reimagining Tibet Koushik Goswami, 2022-12-28 This book examines how territorial civilisational and cultural location determines one s gaze and attitude while representing a contested space like Tibet It analyses representations of Tibet in three novels James Hilton s Lost Horizon 1933 Jamyang Norbu s The Mandala of Sherlock Holmes 1999 and Kaushik Barua s Windhorse 2013 It shows how these novels project different types of gaze insider outsider and insider outsider and explores them within the context of some contemporary Tibetan activist writers The book also looks at Tibetan exilic writings and virtual activities of the Tibetan activists whose programmes and rhetoric counter the age old image of the Tibetans as passive and non violent people It shows how activists utilise social networking as an effective platform to counter imperialist occupation of Tibet by China It includes interviews of eight Anglophone Tibetan writers Tenzin Tsundue Thubten Samphel Tsering Namgyal Khortsa Tsering Wangmo Dhompa Jamyang Norbu Tenzin Dickie Bhuchung D Sonam and an Indian writer who has written on Tibet Kaushik Barua Interdisciplinary accessible and engaging this book presents one of the first studies on how Tibet has been represented in English fiction It will be of interest to scholars and researchers of literature media and cultural studies politics Little Lhasa Tsering Namgyal, 2006 history and China studies Locating Transnational Ideals Walter Goebel, Saskia Schabio, 2010 This volume defines versions of the transnational in their historical and cultural specificity By locating the contributors contextualize historical and contemporary understandings of the fluid term transnational which vary in relation to the disciplines involved This kind of historical and geographical locating implicitly turns against forms of contemporary transnational euphoria which inspired by poststructural models of all encompassing semiospheres on the one hand and by visions of the utopian communicative potential of new media like the internet on the other see national and ethnic paradigms as easily superseded by transnational agendas By differentiating between various forms of transnational ideals and ideas in historical and geographical perspective since the Renaissance the contributors aim to rediscover distinctions for instance between transnationalisms and cosmopolitanisms which neo liberal transnational euphoria has tended to erase Fiction and the Holocaust Eric Sandberg, 2025-07-02 This book explores a wide range of twentieth and twenty first century international fiction that engages with the Holocaust and its historical legacy It examines the use of tropes of crime and detection in the representation of historical atrocity in both explicit crime fiction and in literary fiction that relies on some of crime fiction s signature techniques Crime Fiction and the Holocaust asks why patterns of detection have become a favoured method of fictional engagement with the Holocaust considers the ethical and textual problematics of fictional encounters with real world suffering and delineates crime fiction s formal and thematic contributions to the broader project of Holocaust Tibet's Fate Warren W. Smith Jr., 2023-03-15 Tibet's Fate examines the issue of the political fate of Tibet It is told fiction by Tibetans themselves as well as by the author from his own experiences. The title is not meant to imply that the current fate of Tibet is an ultimate destiny or even that Tibet's fate is already decided It is only meant in the sense that if Tibet's fate is now determined it has been determined not by the Tibetan people but by those of China If it is to be determined by China then Tibet's fate is indeed to be an integral part of China However if Tibet's fate were to be decided by the Tibetan people if they were allowed their right to national self determination then it would definitely be different Given all the criteria for independent statehood territory culture language religion and government Tibet surely should be an independent state Tibetan territory defined by altitude was the very nearly exclusively habitation of people who identified themselves as Tibetans Those people share a distinct culture language and religion They had a central government that directly administered the territory of Central Tibet and indirectly that of Kham and Amdo Had Tibetans been allowed to determine for themselves their political status that is if they had the right to self determination as specified in the most fundamental documents of international law there is no doubt that they would have chosen independence Whatever the flaws of the Tibetan social and political systems Tibet should have had the right to determine its own fate and could have done so until deprived of that right by China The book also examines the sensitive question of the nature of the Tibetan political system and its role in the fate that has befallen Tibet The author concludes that the Tibetan political system of Chosi Shungdrel or the unity of religion and politics is implicated in the failure of Tibet to maintain its independence Adaptation and Appropriation Julie Sanders, 2015-11-19 From the apparently simple adaptation of a text into film theatre or a new literary work to the more complex appropriation of style or meaning it is arguable that all texts are somehow connected to a network of existing texts and art forms In this new edition Adaptation and Appropriation explores multiple definitions and practices of adaptation and appropriation the cultural and aesthetic politics behind the impulse to adapt the global and local dimensions of adaptation the impact of new digital technologies on ideas of making originality and customization diverse ways in which contemporary literature theatre television and film adapt revise and reimagine other works of art the impact on adaptation and appropriation of theoretical movements including structuralism post structuralism postcolonialism postmodernism feminism and gender studies the appropriation across time and across cultures of specific canonical texts by Shakespeare Dickens and others but also of literary archetypes such as myth or fairy tale Ranging across genres and harnessing concepts from fields as diverse as musicology and the natural sciences this volume brings clarity to the complex debates around adaptation and appropriation offering a much needed resource for those studying literature film media or culture Crime Fiction as World Literature David Damrosch, Louise Nilsson, Theo D'haen, 2017-02-23 The first book to treat crime fiction in its full global intercultural and plurilingual dimensions taking the genre seriously as a participant in the international sphere of David Mitchell's Post-Secular World Rose Harris-Birtill,2019-01-10 Since the publication of Ghostwritten world literature 1999 David Mitchell has rapidly established himself as one of the most inventive and important British novelists of the 21st century In this landmark study Rose Harris Birtill reveals the extent to which Mitchell has created an interconnected fictional world across the full run of his writing Covering Mitchell's complete fictions from bestselling novels such as Cloud Atlas 2004 The Bone Clocks 2014 and number 9 dream 2001 to his short stories and his libretti for the operas Sunken Garden and Wake this book examines how Buddhist influences inform the ethical worldview that permeates his writing Using a comparative theoretical model drawn from the Tibetan mandala to map Mitchell s fictional world Harris Birtill positions Mitchell as central to a new generation of post secular writers who re examine the vital role of belief in galvanizing action amidst contemporary ecological political and humanitarian crises David Mitchell's Post Secular World features two substantial new interviews with the author a chronology of his fictions and a selected bibliography of important critical writings on his work
