

"Flannery O'Connor's honesty is welcome in a period when everybody's first person wants to have lunch with Ralph Ellison or be General Westmoreland."

Ishmael Reed
Los Angeles Free Press

"I have never seen a writer capable of such fast shifts, so instantly, nervously exact . . . from the twenties, people like King Learner; from the thirties, Hemingway and especially Chandler . . . who make of words a literal texture of place and person. I value Flannery O'Connor as the present Champ of said possibility."

Robert Creeley

"O'Connor's struggles are spent in cutting away the facades, getting back to the basic American obsessions of sex and money . . . an astoundingly good writer of the kind of prose we speak to each other all day long . . . there is no other writer I can think of who is capable of using words like 'Wow!' or 'Jeez!' or 'Kept' with the precision and emotional rightness of Flannery O'Connor. O'Connor is a realist who's inside his work all the time. . . ."

Russell Banks
