C. Corn Tacitus

Manders March On Rome:

The Vatican Pimpernel Brian Fleming, 2012-08-01 During the German occupation of Rome from 1942 1944 Irishman Monsignor Hugh O Flaherty ran an escape organization for Allied POWs and civilians including Jews Safe within the Vatican state he regularly ventured out in disguise to continue his mission which earned him the nickname the Pimpernel of the Vatican When the Allies entered Rome he and his collaborators priests nuns and laypeople of numerous nationalities and religious beliefs had saved the lives of over 6 500 people The first new telling of this extraordinary story in decades this book also addresses the fascinating dichotomy between O Flaherty and Herbert Kappler the Gestapo chief in Rome who ordered him killed and who after the war reconciled with the monsignor and even asked him to perform his baptism For his heroic efforts O Flaherty was awarded the highest honors including a Congressional Medal and was the first Irishman named the Notary of the Holy Office His story was immortalized in the 1983 film The Scarlet and the Black which starred Gregory Peck as O Flaherty

Among the Italian Partisans Malcolm Edward Tudor, 2017-03-13 Here is the remarkable story of the Allied servicemen who took part in the guerrilla war against Nazis and Fascists in Second World War Italy The partisans included Britons Australians Canadians New Zealanders South Africans Americans Russians Poles and Yugoslavs Most were escaped prisoners of war who fled their camps after the Italian armistice and surrender in September 1943 The British Special Operations Executive SOE and the American Office of Strategic Services OSS sent personnel into enemy territory to carry out sabotage and to support and encourage the partisans Allied air forces provided the planes and crews to transport agents deliver weapons and supplies evacuate personnel and drop propaganda leaflets Among the Italian Partisans provides the uplifting story of the Allied contribution to the Italian Resistance which became one of the greatest insurgent movements in Western Europe This is a testimonial to the brave servicemen of many nations who cooperated in the armed struggle so that Italy would be free

Armies of Empire Allan Converse, 2011-04-07 Armies of Empire uniquely reflects upon the experience of two divisions from different armies facing similar challenges in the Second World War The 9th Australian Division and the British 50th Northumbrian Division both saw long service and suffered heavy casualties and both encountered morale discipline and battlefield effectiveness problems In this illuminating comparative study of Australian and British divisions at war Allan Converse draws extensively on primary sources as well as recent scholarship on morale and combat efficiency His fresh approach questions the popular mythology surrounding the Australian Digger and the British Tommy and shows how it was a combination of leadership loyalty and tactics rather than intrinsic national qualities which resulted in victory for Churchill s armies

The History of the Green Howards Geoffrey Powell, John S.W. Powell, 2015-10-30 Regimental histories abound but few can be as stirring as this story of the fortunes of the famous Yorkshire based Green Howards Raised in 1688 in response to a call for loyal troops the Green Howards have maintained their tradition of loyalty over the past 300 years winning many superb battle honours Their history reflects that of the British Army as there is hardly a major campaign

Augustus Henry Beesly, 1887 The History of Civilization Amos Dean, 1869 Karel van Mander and his Foundation of the Noble, Free Art of Painting Walter S. Melion, 2022-10-04 Winner of the 2023 Roland H Bainton Prize for Art History Written by the poet painter Karel van Mander who finished it in June 1603 the Grondt der edel vry schilderconst Foundation of the Noble Free Art of Painting was the first systematic treatise on schilderconst the art of painting picturing to be published in Dutch Haarlem Paschier van Westbusch 1604 This English language edition of the Grondt accompanied by an introductory monograph and a full critical apparatus provides unprecedented access to Van Mander's crucially important art treatise The book sheds light on key terms and critical categories such as schilder manier uyt zijn selven doen welstandt leven and gheest and wel schilderen and both exemplifies and explicates the author's distinctive views on the complementary forms and functions of history and landscape The Works C. Reeder, 2018-10-18 In this book Caryn A Reeder examines the gendered language and imagery of war and peace in the Gospel of Luke Peace is represented with the blessing of fertility pregnancy and newborn infants Pregnant and nursing women women and children in general and feminized Jerusalem also represent the horrors of war in the Gospel abandoned crushed to the ground subject to woe and distress to the point that barren wombs and dry breasts become a blessing Reeder argues that the representation of peace with pregnant women and newborn infants the most vulnerable in the population indicates that victory belongs to God This message is clarified by the encouragement of surrender and flight from besieged Jerusalem rather than an active defense Notably there are no men to defend Jerusalem in Luke's warnings of war The Gospel undermines the masculinization of war commonly found in Greco Roman texts by redirecting the means of making peace from the violence of victory to the unmanly act of surrender A Global Chronology of Conflict Spencer C.
