M. George, 1992 This Is The First Of Three Volume Anthology Of Writings In Twenty Two Indian Languages Including English That Intends To Present The Wonderful Diversities Of Themes And Genres Of Indian Literature This Volume Comprises Representative Specimens Of Poems From Different Languages In English Translation Along With Perceptive Surveys Of Each Literature During The Period Between 1850 And 1975      Ruskin Bond's World Gulnaz Fatma, 2013-12-01 Ruskin Bond has won the hearts of millions of readers with his countless charming short stories and introspective novels From biographical tales about acting as a grandfather to children to tales of unrequited love the cross cultural dimensions of Indian society and the power and beauty of nature Bond s more than forty novels and short story collections have made him an internationally acclaimed author In Ruskin Bond s World Indian scholar Gulnaz Fatma Ph D sheds light on one of her country s greatest and most beloved storytellers tracing the influences in his stories from a childhood in colonial India through his time spent in Britain and his life today among India s hills and mountains She explores the biographical as well as the imaginary elements of his fiction and explores in detail the themes of nature children love and animals in his novels and short stories Throughout these pages is revealed Bond s love for humanity in all its variety from honorable rogues to proud beggars heartbroken lovers and wise old men and women Gulnaz has successfully traced major themes in Bond s prolific work under the lenses of her careful examination proving he is the product of his environment a sincere study of Ruskin Bond Stephen Gill Ph D author and poet laureate of Ansted University I welcome this long overdue study of one of India s literary shining lights Ruskin Bond s World opens the door to a deeper understanding of one author s imagination and deepest wisdom Tyler R Tichelaar Ph D and award winning author of The Gothic Wanderer Literary Criticism Asian Indic www.ModernHistoryPress.com      Understanding Literature Yadugiri, & Naidu, 1996 To really understand and appreciate literature one should be able to find out how a writer creates an effect and produces an impression of wit humour tragedy or comedy The questions which follow the poems and the short stories help one to find out how writers use language in different ways to create these effects      Ruskin Bond A Study of Human Emotions Dr. Sangeeta Paul Budhiraja, Literature challenges one not only to think about ethical conundrums but also makes one sensitive and compassionate When it blends with euphoria and nostalgia the integral parts of human mind it toughens and becomes sturdy Man loves to live in his past memories to be happy The experiences form a part of human personality and shape their behaviour pattern Nostalgia stores for us our memories which we relish lifelong

Even the lamentable days of past become pleasant Though we might have ignored some not too pleasant incidents in our bygone days yet somewhat bitter experiences appear to be impressive and attractive It is aptly said that the panorama of mountains appear beautiful and splendid from a distance The bitterness of nearness is intolerable The more we grow in years the more our past recedes Distance from the life lived long ago makes it sweet and desirable Strain and stress of the present becomes frivolous when we slip and relapse into euphoric nostalgia The instincts of euphoria and nostalgia have been vividly handled by the legendary writers of all times They have given various dimensions and definitions to the readers to redeem these human aspects yet many more stones are still unturned These two instincts in the oeuvre of the legendary writer Ruskin Bond are the anchor points that suggest the scope of study I have chosen to put forward the very idea about how a man's body mind and soul blend with traces of his past memories and support the holistic growth
