Manets Silence And The Poetics Of Bouquets:

Manet's Silence and the Poetics of Bouquets James Henry Rubin, Édouard Manet, 1994 Rubin also examines Manet's relationship to three of the leading critics of his day Baudelaire Zola and Mallarmé giving special attention to Mallarmé's appreciation and eventual use in his own poetry of the paradox between immersion and externality in Manet's oeuvre Finally the book uses the image of the bouquet to exemplify Manet's creative poetics through an exploration of his still life

Consuming Painting Allison Deutsch, 2021-02-01 In Consuming Painting Allison Deutsch challenges the pervasive view that Impressionism was above all about visual experience Focusing on the language of food and consumption as they were used by such prominent critics as Baudelaire and Zola she writes new histories for familiar works by Manet Monet Caillebotte and Pissarro and creates fresh possibilities for experiencing and interpreting them Examining the culinary metaphors that the most influential critics used to express their attraction or disgust toward painting Deutsch rethinks French modern life painting in relation to the visceral reactions that these works evoked in their earliest publics Writers posed viewing as analogous to ingestion and used comparisons to food to describe the appearance of paint and the painter's process The food metaphors they chose were aligned with specific female types such as red meat for sexualized female flesh confections for fashionably made up women and hearty vegetables for agricultural laborers These culinary figures of speech Deutsch argues provide important insights into both the fabrication of the feminine and the construction of masculinity in nineteenth century France Consuming Painting exposes the social politics at stake in the deeply gendered metaphors of sense and sensation Original and convincing Consuming Painting upends traditional narratives of the sensory reception of modern painting This trailblazing book is essential reading for specialists in nineteenth century art and criticism gender studies and modernism

The Inherent Potential in Art Performance Iris Julian, 2025-08-13 This book spotlights artworks and art performances whose common denominator is the theme of self representation of artists in the woman category in scenes of love and sexuality Pursuing the research practice of deep drilling this study presents various methodologies and research directions to create diverse perspectives on the selected artworks This book combines historical outlines based on art history visual culture studies new methodologies in theatre studies and digressions into sociology Philosophical readings will complement the resulting multiple perspective in which figures of thought such as transimmanence the theory of performativity and body mind dualism are of specific interest This research brings to the fore networks of sedimented and entangled histories and their role in shaping our ways of seeing This study will be of great interest to scholars and students in dance dance performance and art performance

Modernism and Still Life Tobin Claudia Tobin, 2020-03-02 Explores the still life spirit in modern painting prose dance sculpture and poetry Challenges the conventional positioning of still life a minor genre in art history Proposes a radical alternative to narratives of modernism that privilege speed and motion by revealing forms of stillness and still life at the heart of modern literature and visual culture Provides the first study of still life to consider the genre across modern literature visual cultures and dance Uncovers connections and cultural exchange between networks of European and American artists including the Bloomsbury Group and Wallace Stevens The late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries have been characterised as the age of speed but they also witnessed a reanimation of still life across different art forms This book takes an original approach to still life in modern literature and the visual arts by examining the potential for movement and transformation in the idea of stillness and the ordinary It ranges widely in its material taking Cezanne and literary responses to his still life painting as its point of departure It investigates constellations of writers visual artists and dancers including D H Lawrence Virginia Woolf David Jones Winifred Nicholson Wallace Stevens and lesser known figures including Charles Maeron and Margaret Morris Claudia Tobin reveals that at the heart of modern art were forms of stillness that were intimately bound up with movement the still life emerges charged with animation vibration and rhythm an unstable medium unexpectedly vital and well suited to the expression of modern concerns

Symptom of Beauty Francette Pacteau, 2013-06-01 For a woman in the Western world there is no escaping beauty Either she possesses it or she lacks it If she lacks it she may hope to gain it If she already has it she will certainly lose it But what is it Not an objective thing Francette Pacteau tells us but a generic term for an unspecifiable number of psychological experiences in the mind of the observer What these experiences are what causes them and how they manifest themselves as a notion of beauty is the subject of this book Less interested in the contingent object of desire than the fantasy that frames it Pacteau considers the staging of the aesthetic emotion Her analysis extends from the Classical ideals of beauty through Renaissance poetry to the recent formulations of Hollywood Her book is an ambitious attempt to describe the mise en scene of beauty within a particular field of representations that of the beauty of a woman Political Landscape Martin Warnke, 2013-06-01 We all know what the political landscape is and politicians and journalists never tire of referring to it But in this ingenious and original book Martin Warnke takes that well worn metaphor literally and uses it to reveal just how politicized the real landscape of continental Europe has been for centuries The author finds his evidence of humanity's intervention in nature in the form of monuments and milestones gardens roads and border crossings in landscape paintings and maps even in fact in the anthropomorphic interpretations once given to formations of hills and rocks The Political Landscape is underpinned with a fascinating array of examples and illustrations many of which will be new even to experts in the art of landscape and related disciplines Eyes of Love Stephen Kern, 1996 In Eyes of Love Stephen Kern offers a bold reinterpretation of women in art and literature Children's Culture and the Avant-Garde Marilyn Strasser Olson, 2013-03-05 This volume explores the mutual influences between children's literature and the avant garde Olson places particular focus on fin de siècle Paris where the Avant garde was not unified in thought and there was room for modernism to overlap with children's literature and culture in the Golden Age The ideas explored by artists such as Florence Upton Henri Rousseau Sir William Nicholson Paula Modersohn Becker and Marc Chagall had been disseminated widely in cultural productions for children their work in turn influenced children's culture These artists turned to children's culture as a new way of seeing allied to a contemporary interest in international artistic styles Children's culture also has strong ties to decadence and to the grotesque the latter of which became a distinctively Modernist vision This book visits the qualities of the era that were defined as uniquely childlike the relation of childhood to high and low art and the relation of children's literature to fin de siècle artistic trends Topics of interest include the use of non European figures the Golliwogg approaches to religion and pedagogy to oppression and motherhood to Nature in a post Darwinian world and to vision in art and life Olson's unique focus covers new ground by concentrating not simply on children's literature but on how childhood experiences and culture figure in art

Visible Deeds of Music Simon Shaw-Miller, Simon Miller, 2002-01-01 This text explores the relationship between music and the visual arts in the late 19th and 20th centuries focusing on the modernist period It argues that the boundaries between art and music were permeable at this time

Madame Cézanne Dita Amory, 2014 A new account of Cézanne's complex relationship with his wife who served as the subject of some of his most iconic portraits Paul Cézanne's 1839-1906 portraits of Hortense Fiquet 1850-1922 his wife and the subject of some of his iconic portraits rank among the most powerful of their kind in French modernism Yet posterity has not been kind to Madame Cézanne She was called a distraction blamed for her husband's lackluster landscapes and disdained for her impenetrable expression in the paintings The reality is more complex for while Fiquet may not have been the passion of Cézanne's lifetime she was a willing accomplice as model mother of his only son and unwavering partner against all odds Madame Cézanne examines this unique relationship as it looks at Cézanne the painter draftsman and portraitist Featuring 24 of Cézanne's oil portraits of Fiquet and most of the known drawings Madame Cézanne both reevaluates with insight and compassion the long held misconceptions about the Cézannes unconventional marriage and shows how Cézanne's portraits of his wife provide a lens through which to better understand his overall technique Published by The Metropolitan Museum of Art Distributed by Yale University Press Exhibition Schedule The Metropolitan Museum of Art 11 18 14 03 15 15

A Touch of Blossom Alison Mairi Syme, John Singer Sargent, 2010 Explores the art of John Singer Sargent in the context of nineteenth century botany gynecology literature and visual culture Argues that the artist was elaborating both a period poetics of homosexuality and a new sense of subjectivity anticipating certain aspects of artistic modernism Provided by publisher

Modern Art, 1851-1929 Richard R. Brettell, 1999 In a bold new look at the Modern Art era Brettell explores the works of such artists as Monet Gauguin Picasso and Dali as well as lesser known figures in relation to expansion colonialism national and internationalism and the rise of the museum 140 illustrations 75 in color

Explorations in Art, Theology and Imagination Michael Ridgwell Austin, 2016-04-08 Christianity has repeatedly valued the Word over and above the non verbal arts Art has been seen through the interpretative lens of theology rather than being valued for what it can bring to the discipline Explorations in Art Theology and Imagination argues that art is crucially important to theology The book explores the interconnecting themes of embodiment and incarnation faith and imagination and the similarities and differences between art and theology Arguing for a critique that begins with art and moves to theology Explorations in Art Theology and Imagination offers a radical re evaluation of the role of art in Christian discourse Ecofeminism, Second Edition Carol J. Adams, Lori Gruen, 2021-12-16 This new edition of Ecofeminism Feminist Intersections with Other Animals and the Earth begins with an historical grounding overview that situates ecofeminist theory and activism within the larger field of ecocriticism and provides a timeline for important publications and events Throughout the book authors engage with intersections of gender sexuality gender expression race disability and species to address the various ways that sexism heteronormativity racism colonialism and ableism are informed by and support animal oppression This collection is broken down into three separate sections Affect includes contributions from leading theorists and activists on how our emotions and embodiment can and must inform our relationships with the more than human world Context explores the complexities of appreciating difference and the possibilities of living less violently Climate new to the second edition provides an overview of our climate crisis as well as the climate for critical discussion and debate about ecofeminist ideas and actions Drawing on animal studies environmental studies feminist gender studies and practical ethics the ecofeminist contributors to this volume stress the need to move beyond binaries and attend to context over universal judgments spotlight the importance of care as well as justice emotion as well as reason and work to undo the logic of domination and its material implications Realism and Role-Play Marika Takanishi Knowles, 2020-12-09 After the heroic nudes of the Renaissance and depictions of the tortured bodies of Christian saints early seventeenth century French artists turned their attention to their fellow humans to nobles and beggars seen on the streets of Paris to courtesans standing at their windows to vendors advertising their wares to peasants standing before their landlords Realism and Role Play draws on literature social history and affect theory in order to understand the way that figuration performed social positions A Theory of the Tache in Nineteenth-Century Painting Stein Sj?ad, 2017-07-05 Without question the tache blot patch stain is a central and recurring motif in nineteenth century modernist painting Manet's and the Impressionists rejection of academic finish produced a surface where the strokes of paint were presented directly as patches or blots then indirectly as legible signs C?nne Seurat and Signac painted exclusively with patches or dots Through a series of close readings this book looks at the tache as one of the most important features in nineteenth century modernism The tache is a potential meeting point between text and image and a pure trace of the artist's body Even though each manifestation of tacheism generates its own specific cultural effects this book represents the first time a scholar has looked at tacheism as a hidden continuum within modern art With a methodological framework drawn from the semiotics of text and image the author introduces a much needed fine tuning to the classic terms index symbol and icon The concept of the tache as a crossing of sign types enables finer distinctions and observations than have been available thus far within the Peircean tradition The sign crossing theory opens onto the whole terrain of interaction between visual art

The Arts Entwined Marsha Morton, Peter L. Schmunk, 2013-10-11

This collection of essays by musicologists and art historians explores the reciprocal influences between music and painting during the nineteenth century a critical period of gestation when instrumental music was identified as the paradigmatic expressive art and theoretically aligned with painting in the formulation ut pictura musica as with music so with painting Under music's influence painting approached the threshold of abstraction concurrently many composers cultivated pictorial effects in their music Individual essays address such themes as visualization in music the literary vs pictorial basis of the symphonic poem musical pictorialism in painting and lithography and the influence of Wagner on the visual arts In these and other ways both composers and painters actively participated in interarts discourses in seeking to redefine the very identity and aims of their art Also includes 17 musical examples

Color in the Age of Impressionism Laura Anne Kalba, 2017-04-21

This study analyzes the impact of color making technologies on the visual culture of nineteenth century France from the early commercialization of synthetic dyes to the Lumière brothers' perfection of the autochrome color photography process Focusing on Impressionist art Laura Anne Kalba examines the importance of dyes produced in the second half of the nineteenth century to the vision of artists such as Edgar Degas Pierre Auguste Renoir and Claude Monet The proliferation of vibrant new colors in France during this time challenged popular understandings of realism abstraction and fantasy in the realms of fine art and popular culture More than simply adding a touch of spectacle to everyday life Kalba shows these bright varied colors came to define the development of a consumer culture increasingly based on the sensual appeal of color Impressionism emerging at a time when inexpensively produced color functioned as one of the principal means by and through which people understood modes of visual perception and signification mirrored and mediated this change shaping the ways in which people made sense of both modern life and modern art Demonstrating the central importance of color history and technologies to the study of visuality Color in the Age of Impressionism adds a dynamic new layer to our understanding of visual and material culture

I'm Not Myself at All Kristina Huneault, 2018-07-16

Notions of identity have long structured women's art Dynamics of race class and gender have shaped the production of artworks and oriented their subsequent reassessments Arguably this is especially true of art by women and of the socially engaged criticism that addresses it If identity has been a problem in women's art however is more identity the solution In this study of nineteenth and early twentieth century art in Canada Kristina Huneault offers a meditation on the strictures of identity and an exploration of forces that unsettle and realign the self Looking closely at individual artists and works Huneault combines formal analysis with archival research and philosophical inquiry building nuanced readings of objects that range from the canonical to the largely unknown Whether in miniature portraits or genre paintings botanical drawings or baskets women artists reckoned with constraints that limited understandings of themselves and others They also forged creative alternatives At times identity features in women's artistic work as a failed project at other times it marks a boundary beyond which they were able to expand explore and exult Bringing together settler and indigenous forms of cultural expression and foregrounding the importance of colonialism within the development of art in Canada I m Not Myself at All observes and reactivates historical art by women and prompts readers to consider what a less restrictive conceptualization of selfhood might bring to current patterns of cultural analysis

Music and Modernism, c. 1849-1950 Charlotte de Mille, 2011-01-18 Music and Modernism is a collection of essays which re evaluates the significant connections between the disciplines of music fine art and architecture in the period covering the emergence and flowering of modernism c 1849 1950 Combining established scholars in the field with those at the start of their careers this book presents an exceptional cross section of European and American modernism through a series of detailed case studies Avoiding a simplistic engagement with cross or inter disciplinarity the focus of attention centres on themes that became key to modernist artists and critics association perception representation subjectivity writing and language Accordingly this book re thinks modernism itself in the light of both the fine arts and music to advocate a multiplicity of modernisms from which it is necessary for scholars to construct their own narratives
