Manipur Religion Culture And Society:

Manipur, Religion, Culture, and Society Chander Sheikhar Panchani, 1987 Society, Politics, and Development in North East India Asok Kumar Ray, Satyabrata Chakraborty, 2008 Contributed articles chiefly with reference to rural development in Northeastern India includes articles on cultural history of the region Encyclopaedia Of Manipur (3 Vol.) Khomdan Singh Lisam, 2011 Socio-economic Profile of Rural India: North-East India (Assam, Manipur, Tripura, Nagaland) V. K. Agnihotri, Chandragupta Ashokvardhan, 2002 Socio-economic profile of Rural India (series II) S. C. Patra, 2011 Approaches to History Sabyasachi Bhattacharya, 2011 History as a social science is arguably more self reflective than associated disciplines in that family Other social scientists seem to see little reason to look beyond the paradigm they are developing in the present times Historians on the other hand tend to depend on the cumulative process of the development of their craft and the fund of accumulated knowledge Yet while this is acknowledged in the practice of research Historiography in itself as a subject of study has rarely found its place in the syllabi of Indian universities Knowledge of Historiography is taken for granted when a scholar plunges into research In an attempt to address this lacuna the Indian Council of Historical Research ICHR has planned a series of volumes on Historiography comprising articles by subject specialists commissioned by the ICHR The first volume in the series Approaches to History Essays in Indian Historiography brings to the readers the first fruits of that endeavour While the essays encompass areas of research presently at the frontiers of new research scholars will also find the bibliographies accompanying the essays of significant appeal Women in the Contemporary Society Thokchom Binarani Devi, 2017-01-01 The present book is a comprehensive document which sincerely attempt at not only the present position and status of women and improving their place in the society as an active contributor towards economically viable projects but also as an integral force in propelling the workforce of rural less privileged women to the forefront of our economy to an acceptable and respected place in the social and political structure of the country It also discribes about women as individuals of an independent India in general and particularly women of the backward and under developed States like Manipur with an ever increasing sense of dignity and self worth which will spur them or to contribute within an over increasing ambience of diligence and economic viability and ongoing political processes Many social stigmas are heaped upon women for no fault of their own only violent action towards them and injustice Then again denial of property rights lower wages violence in civil life gender discrimination etc are some of the notable social diseases that are exhibiting in this modern developing societies Social Movements in North-East India Mahendra Narain Karna, 1998 Collection of papers presented at a seminar with special reference to women youth and religion in August 1994 at Shillong National experiences with the protection of expressions of folklore/traditional cultural expressions : India, Indonesia and the Philippines P. V. Valsala G. Kutty, World Intellectual Property Organization, 2002 This is one of a series of Studies dealing with intellectual property and genetic resources traditional knowledge and traditional cultural expressions folklore The objectives of this Study were to examine how effective protection of folklore is being achieved in India Indonesia and the Philippines so as to derive directions for future work in this field and also to assess the relevance of the Model Provisions drawn up for framing legislation in these countries Inclusive Growth In India S. Gurusamy,2019-06-11 The research papers included in this book make a comprehensive analysis on the thematic issues focused within the larger framework of inclusive growth The recommendations made through this book are expected to influence policy of inclusive growth and development of the marginalized segments in the Indian context This book is organized in to 47 Chapter every chapter is addressing the overall theme precisely and fulfills the core issues highlighted This book is expected to fulfill the teaching research policy formulation programme planning needs of academia research scholars students pursuing subjects in the departments of Sociology Economics Political Science History Social Work Anthropology Women Studies Futurology Public Administration Rural Development etc In addition this book is also expected to assist CBOs GOs NGOs Development Workers Policy Planners Social Workers Consultants etc engaged in Sustainable Social Development with special reference to Inclusive Growth in Transitional Society The North-east and the Indian State P. S. Dutta,1995 Contributed articles on various aspects of Northeastern India Survey of Research in History on North East India, 1970-1990 David Reid Syiemlieh,2000 Chiefly relates to the 20th century period The Bible and Patriarchy in Traditional Tribal Society Chingboi Guite Phaipi,2023-01-26 Chingboi Guite Phaipi examines how biblical texts reinforced female subjugation in Northeast Indian tribal societies after tribes had accepted Christianity in the early 20th century Phaipi shows how most tribal groups reinforced women s subordinate status by invoking newly authoritative biblical texts such as the creation stories in Genesis 1 2 and 3 Phaipi studies the creation stories in Genesis to offer broader readings for Christian tribal communities that are communal traditional and struggling to retain their women and girls particularly those who are educated This volume recognizes and respects tradition traditional communities and the enduring witness of faithful lives in tribal communities at the same time as offering ways forward with respect to unworthy cultural practices and preferences that have been legitimised by the Bible This book offers a contextually sensitive and scholarly reading of the Bible with particular attention to the ways patriarchal norms in biblical narratives are perpetuated rather than considered and reformed Dynamics of Power Relations in Tribal Societies of North-East India B. Datta-Ray,Asok Kumar Ray,2006 Contributed articles presented earlier at a seminar held Dec 13 14 2004 organized by the North East India Council for Social Science Research Shillong Socio-economic Profile of Rural India V. K. Agnihotri,2002 The Administrator ,1994 The North East India, a Select Bibliography K. K. Kochukoshy,2002 The Flaming Womb Barbara Watson Andaya,2006-07-31 The Princess of the Flaming Womb the Javanese legend that introduces this pioneering study symbolizes the many ambiguities attached to femaleness in Southeast Asian societies Yet despite these ambiguities the relatively egalitarian nature of male female relations in Southeast Asia is central to arguments claiming a coherent identity for the region This challenging work by senior scholar Barbara Watson Andaya considers such contradictions while offering a thought provoking view of Southeast Asian history that focuses on women s roles and perceptions Andaya explores the broad themes of the early modern era 1500 1800 the introduction of new religions major economic shifts changing patterns of state control the impact of elite lifestyles and behaviors drawing on an extraordinary range of sources and citing numerous examples from Thai Vietnamese Burmese Philippine and Malay societies In the process she provides a timely and innovative model for putting women back into world history Andaya approaches the problematic issue of Southeast Asia by considering ways in which topography helped describe a geo cultural zone and contributed to regional distinctiveness in gender construction She examines the degree to which world religions have been instrumental in re constructing conceptions of gender an issue especially pertinent to Southeast Asian societies because of the leading role so often played by women in indigenous ritual She also considers the effects of the expansion of long distance trade the incorporation of the region into a global trading network the beginnings of cash cropping and wage labor and the increase in slavery on the position of women Erudite nuanced and accessible The Flaming Womb makes a major contribution to a Southeast Asia history that is both regional and global in content and perspective Indian Books in Print ,2003 Seminar ,1990
