Mannerheim Marshal Of Finland:

Mannerheim, Marshal of Finland Henrik Meinander, 2023 An award winning critical biography of Finland's towering leader charting his statecraft his political journey and his strategic bravado carving out independence between Stalin and Hitler

Mannerheim Stig Jägerskiöld, 1986

Mannerheim, Marshal of Finland Henrik Meinander, 2023-05-25 Field marshal and statesman Gustaf Mannerheim 1867-1951 was the most acclaimed and the most hated Finn of the twentieth century After three decades of loyal and distinguished service in the Russian Tsarist army he returned to his homeland in 1917 to defend its new independence This iconic figure led the Finnish forces as Commander in Chief during both World Wars then ended his career as President of Finland This new critical biography sets Mannerheim's entire life's work and his often nerve wracking decisions as a Finnish leader on the world stage against the backdrop of his elite upbringing and lifestyle his adventurous imperial career his outspoken anti communism and his keen instincts for great power politics Painful details emerge about Mannerheim's private life and myths and rumours are scrutinised as Henrik Meinander charts the complex legacy of this nationalist cosmopolitan who found himself fighting on the same side as Hitler Meinander paints his portrait with strong contrasts and bright colours This is the story of a multicultural Russian empire a newborn nation state treading warily between Europe's military titans a front of the Second World War not easily reduced to moral binaries and above all a shrewd political operator playing many a dangerous game
