Mantegna To Rubens The Weldblundell Drawings Collection:

Mantegna to Rubens Xanthe Brooke, 1998 The collection of mostly entirely unknown Old Master drawings was amassed during the first half of the 19th century and is only now revealed and documented following its 1995 acquisition by the Walker Art Gallery Liverpool Though the drawings themselves are unknown the artists are not among them Mantegna to Rubens Xanthe Brooke, Walker Art Gallery, 1998 The first public presentation of this major collection of the old Master drawings Drawings from the Age of Bruegel, Rubens, and Rembrandt William W. Robinson, 2016-08-02 This superb book presents 100 notable examples from the Harvard Art Museums distinguished collection of Dutch Flemish and Netherlandish drawings from the 16th to 18th century Featuring such masters as Pieter Bruegel the Elder Peter Paul Rubens and Rembrandt van Rijn the volume showcases beautiful color illustrations accompanied by insightful commentary on prevalent styles and techniques Genres that define this artistic period landscape scenes of everyday life portraiture and still life are explored in detail The book also presents the results of new conservation and technical study including infrared analysis and scientific examinations of drawing materials This revelatory new research has allowed previously illegible underdrawings and inscriptions in many of the artworks to surface for the first time shedding light on longstanding mysteries of production and provenance Peter Paul Rubens Anne-Marie S. Logan, Peter Paul Rubens, Michiel Plomp, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 2005 Catalogue of an exhibition held at the Metropolitan Museum of Art New York Jan 15 Apr 3 2005

"Collecting Prints and Drawings in Europe, c. 1500-1750" Christopher Baker, 2017-09-29 Prints and drawings have been keenly collected in Europe since at least the early sixteenth century Relatively modest in price they offered artists amateurs and collectors of a systematic turn of mind the opportunity to put together holdings with a wide representation of different hands schools and types of subject Prints and drawings are traditionally treated separately but their collecting is shown here to raise many interrelated issues Employing a wide range of methodologies the essays in this volume offer a number of innovative investigations into the collecting perception classification and display of works on paper The Making of the Middle Ages Marios Costambeys, Andrew J. Hamer, Martin Heale, 2007-01-01 Liverpool was founded in the Middle Ages and as the city approaches its eight hundredth anniversary this book takes stock of Liverpool's scholarly contributions to modern understanding of the period From the eighteenth century to the twenty first scholars from Liverpool have made pioneering advances in fields as diverse as Celtic philology and manuscript collecting By focusing on a local perspective this volume presents a microcosmic view of the different building blocks of the modern construction of the Middle Ages while offering fresh insights into more universal elements of medieval culture such as pageantry and mystery plays Britain and Italy in the Long Eighteenth Century Rosamaria Loretelli, Frank O'Gorman, 2010-02-19 The essays in this collection range across literature aesthetics music and art and explore such themes as the dynamics of change in eighteenth century aesthetics time modernity and the picturesque the function of graphic ornaments in eighteenth century texts imaginary voyages as a literary genre the genesis of children's literature the Italian opera and musical theory in Frances Burney's novels Italian and British art theories and patterns of cultural transfers and of book circulation between Britain and Italy in the eighteenth century Collectively they epitomise the concerns and approaches of scholars working on the long eighteenth century at this challenging and exciting time In the absence of universally agreed overarching interpretations of the cultural history of the long eighteenth century these papers pave the way for the ultimate emergence of such explanations Authors discussed here include Margaret Cavendish David Runcorn Francis Hutcheson Reverend Gilpin Samuel Richardson Henry Fielding Laurence Sterne Dugald Stewart Dorothy Kilner Frances Burney Anna Gordon Brown Saverio Bettinelli Henry Ince Blundell Francesco Algarotti Ugo Foscolo and Francesco Domenico Guerrazzi Rubens Drawing on Italy Jeremy Wood, Djanogly Art Gallery, 2002 Peter Paul Rubens was one of the most inventive and prolific artists in the history of western art After his early training in Antwerp Rubens spent formative periods in Italy between 1600 and 1608 This book explores the ways in which Rubens studied copied and adapted the work of artists such as Michelangelo Raphael and Titian A large group of drawings by Italian artists many of which were owned by Rubens and extensively transformed by him are illustrated These works show how Rubens's dialogue with Italian art went far beyond mere imitation and how his copies and adaptations attracted the attention of scholars and collectors from his lifetime onwards The intriguing book has been written by one of the foremost Rubens scholars Jeremy Wood lecturer in the history of art at the University of Nottingham 21 colour 78 b/w illustrations

Roscoe and Italy Stella Fletcher, 2016-04-08 Anglo Italian cultural connections in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries have been the subject of numerous studies in recent decades Within that wider body of literature there has been a growing emphasis on appreciation of the history and culture of Renaissance Italy especially in nineteenth century Britain In 1954 J R Hale's England and the Italian Renaissance was a pioneering account of the subject followed in 1992 by Hilary Fraser's monograph The Victorians and Renaissance Italy and in 2005 by Victorian and Edwardian Responses to the Italian Renaissance edited by John E. Law and Lene Østermark-Johansen There is however an obvious gap in the literature concerning the pivotal figure of William Roscoe 1753-1831 the first English language biographer of Lorenzo de' Medici and of Pope Leo X The Life of Lorenzo de' Medici called the Magnificent proved to be so popular as to prompt the claim that Roscoe effectively invented the Italian Renaissance as it has become understood by subsequent generations of readers in the English speaking world This collection of ten essays redresses the balance by examining Roscoe as biographer as a connoisseur of Italian literature and as a collector of Italian works of art Victorian and Edwardian Responses to the Italian Renaissance John E. Law, Lene Østermark-Johansen, 2017-03-02 The historiography of the Italian Renaissance has been much studied but generally in the context of a few key figures Much less appreciated is the extent of the enthusiasm for the subject in the 19th and early 20th centuries when the subject was discovered by travellers and men and women of letters historians artists architects and photographers and by collectors on both sides of the Atlantic The essays in Victorian and Edwardian

Responses to the Italian Renaissance explore the breadth of the responses stimulated by the encounter between the British the Americans and the Italians of the Renaissance The volume approaches the subject from an interdisciplinary perspective While recognising the abiding importance of the familiar great names it seeks to draw attention to a wider cast of people many of whom led colourful energetic lives knew Italy well and wrote eloquently about the country and its Renaissance Several essays show that Renaissance studies became a field in which female historians could explore areas of relevance to the New Woman Other chapters examine the aims and politics of collecting and the place of the collector in literature and in the rediscovery of Renaissance artists The contribution of teachers and other less formal champions of the Italian Renaissance is explored as is the role of photographers who re framed and re viewed Florence the Renaissance city for Victorian and later eyes The Italian Drawings of the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Centuries in the Teyler Museum Teylers Museum, Carel van Tuyll van Serooskerken, 2000 Guercino Julian Brooks, 2006-12-04 Why is a cross eyed man from the small town of Cento in northern Italy now regarded as one of the greatest draftsmen of the seventeenth century Featuring important Guercino drawings from the Courtauld Institute of Art Gallery London and the J Paul Getty Museum Los Angeles this volume looks deeply into the nature of the artist s extraordinary talent for drawing Collecting Prints and Drawings in Europe, C. 1500-1750 Christopher Baker, Caroline Elam, Genevieve Warwick, 2003 Table of contents Sir Joshua Reynolds Donato Esposito, 2009 Published with an exhibition at Plymouth City Museum and Art Gallery 21 November 2009 20 February 2010 P 4 of cover Rubenianum Rubenianum, 2001 The Van Dyck year 1999 and the various exhibitions organized in Antwerp on that particular occasion enabled both the Wetenschappelijk Onderzoeksgemeenschap Vlaamse Renaissance en Barokkunst and the Rubenianum to organize an international colloquium in the painter s birthplace from 17 to 19 May 1999 The main aim of this event was to get a clearer picture of the actual state of research on the various aspects of an artistic personality that is fascinating in so many ways It was a great pleasure to find so many scholars prepared to present their conclusions and ideas in the form of specific case studies They discussed aspects of biographical evidence technique style and iconography within the wider framework of the painter s life and work They also shed new light on Van Dyck s personality influence and fame The here published acts of the Antwerp Van Dyck colloquium contain the revised and updated texts of twenty lectures Roman Art, Religion and Society Martin Henig, 2006 This volume contains a range of papers from a seminar held in Oxford in 2005 What did art in its widest sense mean to them the Romans and what might it or even should it mean to us The approach adopted avoids fashionable theory mainly culled second hand from the social sciences and tries to engage directly with material culture Italian Drawings and Prints from the Castelvechio Museum, Verona Giorgio Marini, 2002 Designs of Desire Timothy Clifford, Burrell Collection, National Galleries of Scotland, 1999 Designs of Desire Architectural and Ornament Prints and Drawings 1500 1850 is a fascinating survey which introduces a wide selection of drawings and prints not associated with paintings and frescoes but with architecture sculpture and the applied arts Explored here is not just the world of elevations and plans for churches palaces and gardens but also designs for temporary decorations for triumphal entries firework displays coronations funerals and many aspects of pageantry and feasting Here are drawings for metalwork textiles books ceramics and glass and above all ornament designs made expressly as sources for the most sophisticated craftsmen working within these disciplines This helps to remind us that most artists until comparatively recent times were not concerned solely with painting but were commissioned by their patrons to produce designs for a very wide variety of their desires Artists worked within certain recognisable and identifiable bounds that we now call fashion The greatest artists explored developed and sometimes even invented decorative art forms and styles and the lesser artists mimicked aspects of their work Ornament which has been with us as long as art was the stylistic common language between the artists and the artefact This book makes apparent that the language of ornament is strangely limited and generations since classical antiquity or even before in much more primitive cultures have tended to explore variations on themes rather than to create entirely new languages Their designs were often astonishingly beautiful and witty especially when the artists were real innovators In addition to the designs for architecture sculpture and ornament are those for metalwork ceramics stained glass textiles and even utilitarian objects such as table cloths and egg cups The source material provided here would have been used by craftsmen like goldsmiths maiolica painters and embroiderers to guide them in creating the artefacts The scope of this book begins with Albrecht Dürer and his generation c 1500 and it ends in the mid nineteenth century 328 colour b w illustrations Poussin, Claude and Their World École nationale supérieure des beaux-arts (France), Emmanuelle Brugerolles, David Guillet, Geneva (Switzerland). Musée d'art et d'histoire, Frick Collection, 2002 A Touch of the Divine Federico Barocci, David Scrase, 2006 This volume is devoted to the work of Federico Barocci in Britain It concentrates on his graphic art and sets him in his place in the tradition of drawing in Italy in the late 16th century Examples of the draughtmanship of his predecessors Raphael and Correggio amongst them and of those whom he influenced are included
