

My Venice

Laura Moisin

My Venice:

My Life as an Artist Gilda E. Meyers, 2010 Creativity is the theme connecting the many chapters of the author's life journey with over 300 drawings, paintings and photographs illustrating the story. Inspired by her daughter's request to introduce her to the artist she was before becoming a mother, this intimate memoir includes her growing up in a leftist immigrant Jewish family in the fifties, her education and training as an artist, studies in Germany in 1958 and a year of drawing and painting in Europe in 1962. The cultural climate of the sixties significantly changed the course of her life and work. After the birth of her daughter, she began a spiritual practice that included time in India. She eventually embraced Buddhist Vipassana meditation. Included is her training as an art and body therapist and the transition into becoming a psychotherapist. She maintains a private practice as a transpersonal somatic psychotherapist and group therapist in Santa Rosa, California.

Travel and Imagination Garth Lean, Russell Staiff, Emma Waterton, 2016-02-24 The imagination has long been associated with travel and tourism from the seventeenth century when the showman and his peepshow box would take the village crowd to places, cities and lands through the power of stories to today when we rely on a different range of boxes to whisk us away on our imaginative travels: the television, the cinema and the computer. Even simply the notion of travel it would seem gives us license to daydream. The imagination thus becomes a key concept that blurs the boundaries between our everyday lives and the idea of travel. Yet despite what appears to be a close and comfortable link, there is an absence of scholarly material looking at travel and the imagination. Bringing together geographers, sociologists, cultural researchers, philosophers, anthropologists, visual researchers, archaeologists, heritage researchers, literary scholars and creative writers, this edited collection explores the socio-cultural phenomenon of imagination and travel. The volume reflects upon imagination in the context of many forms of physical and non-physical travel, inviting scholars to explore this fascinating yet complex area of inquiry in all of its wonderful colour, slipperiness, mystery and intrigue. The book intends to provide a catalyst for thinking, discussion, research and writing with the vision of generating a canon of scholarship on travel and the imagination that is currently absent from the literature.

Travels with my aunt / Путешествие с тетушкой. Книга для чтения на английском языке Грэм Грин, 2019-05-28 1904 1991 Cross My Heart Sasha Gould, 2012-03-13 Venice 1585 When 16-year-old Laura della Scala learns that her older sister Beatrice has drowned, she is given no time to grieve. Instead, Laura's father removes her from the convent where he forcibly sent her years earlier and orders her to marry Beatrice's fiancé, a repulsive old merchant named Vincenzo. Panicked, Laura betrays a powerful man to earn her way into the Segreta, a shadowy society of women who deal in only one currency: secrets. The Segreta seems like the answer to Laura's prayers. The day after she joins their ranks, Vincenzo is publicly humiliated and conveniently exiled. Soon, however, Laura begins to suspect that her sister's death was not a tragic accident but a cold-blooded murder, one that might involve the Segreta and the women she has come to trust.

Travels with My Aunt Graham Greene, 2024-11-15 Greene's fine sense of humor is displayed in this warm
