Rehumanizing Muslim Subjectivities Postcolonial Geographies Postcolonial Ethics is a timely and urgent monograph allowing us to imagine what it feels like to be the victim of genocide abuse dehumanization torture and violence something which many Muslims in Palestine Kashmir Pakistan Myanmar Syria Iraq and China have to endure Most importantly the book emphasizes the continued relevance of creative literature's potential to intervene in and transform our understanding of a conceptual and political field as well as advanced technologies of power and domination The book makes a substantial theoretical contribution by drawing on wide-ranging angles and dimensions of contemporary drone warfare and its related catastrophes postcolonial ethics in relation to the thanatopolitics of slow violence dehumanization and the politics of death Against the backdrop of such institutionalized and diverse acts of violence committed against Muslim communities I call the postcolonial Muslim world geographies of dehumanization The book investigates how ongoing legacies of contemporary forms of injustice and denial of subjecthood are represented staged and challenged in a range of postcolonial anglophone Muslim texts thereby questioning the idea of postcolonial ethics One of the selling points of this book is the chapters on fictional representations by Muslim Myanmar and Uyghur writers as to the best of my knowledge no critical work or single authored book is available on Myanmar and Uyghur literature to date

Everybody's Magazine, 1911 Global Perspectives on Death in Children's Literature Lesley D. Clement, Leyli Jamali, 2015-07-30 This volume visits death in children's literature from around the world, making a substantial contribution to the dialogue between the expanding fields of Childhood Studies, Children's Literature, and Death Studies. Considering both textual and pictorial representations of death, contributors focus on the topic of death in children's literature as a physical reality, a philosophical concept, a psychologically challenging adjustment, and/or a social construct. Essays covering literature from the US, Mexico, El Salvador, Guatemala, Canada, the UK, Sweden, Germany, Poland, Bulgaria, Brazil, Czechoslovakia, the Soviet Union, India, and Iran display a diverse range of theoretical and cultural perspectives. Carefully organized sections interrogate how classic texts have been adapted for the twenty-first century, how death has been politicized, ritualized, or metaphorized, and visual strategies for representing death, and how death has been represented within the context of play. Asking how different cultures present the concept of death to children, this volume is the first to bring together a global range of perspective on death in children's literature and will be a valuable contribution to an array of disciplines. The Americana, 1923 Drinking with Men Rosie Schaap, 2014-01-07 NPR Best Books of 2013, BookPage Best Books of 2013, Library Journal Best Books of 2013, Memoir Flavorwire 10 Best Nonfiction Books of 2013.
