Nudo Knot:

The Romancero of Saint John of the Cross Elizabeth Teresa Howe, 2019-10-01 This book is a study of the nine short poems called romances composed by the Spanish mystic Saint John of the Cross San Juan de la Cruz The focus of the poems is the Trinity and their point of departure is the opening verses of the Gospel of John This is the first in depth English language analysis of these poems and looks at their literary historical scriptural theological and mystical elements It also ties these works to San Juan's better known lyrical poems and his prose commentaries It will appeal to anyone interested in Spanish mystical poetry and the sources that inform that poetry Carmen Martín Gaité Ester Bautista

Botello, 2019-01-09 This book reconstructs the poetics of Carmen Martín Gaité by viewing the concept of journey as a fundamental principle upon which she bases and elaborates her narrative writing of the 1990s Five novels published in this period receive critical attention all of which coincide with the last trips taken by the writer to New York Caperucita en Manhattan 1990 Nubosidad variable 1992 La reina de las nieves 1994 Lo raro es vivir 1996 and Irse de casa 1998 To the extent that the journey is the essence of the narrative under consideration the concept is analysed as an aesthetic practice and an attempt to identify a series of actions which allow us to link the writer's novels with two areas that have previously received only scant critical scrutiny geography and the visual dimension This book presents a comparative and interdisciplinary analysis of space in Martín Gaité's narrative as well as in her collages drawings and paintings

Cuban Literature in the Age of Black Insurrection Matthew Pettway,2019-12-30 Juan Francisco Manzano and Gabriel de la Concepci n Vald s Pl cido were perhaps the most important and innovative Cuban writers of African descent during the Spanish colonial era Both nineteenth century authors used Catholicism as a symbolic language for African inspired spirituality Likewise Pl cido and Manzano subverted the popular imagery of neoclassicism and Romanticism in order to envision black freedom in the tradition of the Haitian Revolution Pl cido and Manzano envisioned emancipation through the lens of African spirituality a transformative moment in the history of Cuban letters Matthew Pettway examines how the portrayal of African ideas of spirit and cosmos in otherwise conventional texts recur throughout early Cuban literature and became the basis for Manzano and Pl cido s antislavery philosophy The portrayal of African Atlantic religious ideas spurned the elite rationale that literature ought to be a barometer of highbrow cultural progress Cuban debates about freedom and selfhood were never the exclusive domain of the white Creole elite Pettway s emphasis on African inspired spirituality as a source of knowledge and a means to sacred authority for black Cuban writers deepens our understanding of

Griffen, 1985-01-01 Dynamic phonology is the natural consequence of the combination of the latest developments in physiological and acoustic phonetics and the traditional structural functional theories of linguistics In phonetics the segmental approach has long since given way to dynamic phonetics leaving linguists in the position of either ignoring the dynamic evidence and continuing with segmental and semi segmental phonology or of adopting the dynamic evidence within their overall theories of language structure and function The author of this book has chosen the latter and here present a model for such a dynamic phonology
