The Big Con in Education

Dennis Redovich, 2005-07 The Big Con in Education is the shocking expos that details how public schools are used as convenient scapegoats for social and economic woes woes perpetuated not in schoolyards but in the halls of Congress and in the boardrooms of the Fortune 500 Author Dennis W Redovich debunks leading business and political interests who blame economic problems on an inadequate workforce claiming that schools are not educating children with the life skills needed in the twenty first century Using the United States government s own statistics The Big Con in Education uncovers the lies trumpeted in the media about the serious shortage of skilled workers and the subsequent economic decline It also illustrates a lack of credible rationale to claim that all students need to take higher level courses in academic subjects to prepare to enter the workforce Redovich contends that supply side education and training does not produce high paying jobs any more than does failed supply side economics The Big Con in Education documents the hype propaganda and hypocrisy big business and political propagandists dish out in a war against public education Redovich offers his views on the important facts concerning the reality of the job situation that faces the country

Advancing the Nation's Health Needs National Research Council, Policy and Global Affairs, Board on Higher Education and Workforce, Committee for Monitoring the Nation's Changing Needs for Biomedical, Behavioral, and Clinical Personnel, 2005-08-13 This report is the twelfth assessment of the National Institutes of Health National Research Service Awards program. The research training needs of the country in basic biomedical clinical and behavioral and social sciences are considered. Also included are the training needs of oral health nursing and health services research. The report has been broadly constructed to take into account the rapidly evolving national and international health care needs. The past and present are analyzed and predictions with regard to future needs are presented DNP Role Development for Doctoral Advanced Nursing Practice H. Michael Dreher, Mary Ellen Smith Glasgow, Michael D. Dahnke, Valerie T. Cotter, 2024-04-26 Provides important new content on specific ethical leadership and advocacy capabilities that advance the DNP role in nursing practice. This core text for the DNP curriculum encompasses all facets of the evolving advanced practice role including diverse professional opportunities and options for career advancement. With ten completely new chapters, the third edition conveys the latest developments in doctoral level capabilities including the specific ethical leadership and advocacy components that advance these roles. New content addresses health equity, role negotiation, ethical and leadership dilemmas for the clinician and the preceptor role in relation to doctoral level advanced practice. Considering the predominance of students seeking the Nurse Practitioner role, the book emphasizes the clinical context for the DNP along with the new AACN Domain of Professionalism. There also are contributions from Nurse Midwives, Nurse Anesthetists, Clinical Nurse Specialists, and DNP students in the Nurse Educator role. The text is distinguished by distinctive Reflective Responses to the authors of all chapters. These may be characterized as a Point Counterpoint feature consisting of commentaries by scholars of varying points of view that stimulates substantive critical dialogue. It examines the role of evidence both practice based evidence and evidence based practice in the context of clinical problems and policy formation and focuses on how the doctoral advanced prepared nurse can discriminate, translate, and sometimes generate new nursing evidence. The text addresses the need for both forms of evidence and underscores the importance of innovative healthcare intervention models. Included is practical information illustrated with examples geared for both BSN DNP students and MSN DNP students. Content on the DNP, PhD double doctorate, and the impact of DNP leadership on organizations further examines the relationship between nursing practice education and science. New to the Third Edition: Ten new chapters including coverage of COVID-19, BSN DNP Trajectories, Practice Based Evidence, and Evidence Based Practice, Health Equity, Role Negotiation, Ethical Leadership, and Advocacy Roles, and 2021 AACN Essentials Expanded roles and content for students of varying experience levels. Emphasis on the new AACN Domain of Professionalism throughout Key Features Focuses on DNP role development with extensive contributions by leading DNP scholars and clinicians Delivers Reflective Responses in a Point Counterpoint format to stimulate vigorous class discussion Provides critical thinking questions throughout including Reflective Response
