Nutrition Longevity, and Aging Morris Rockstein, 2012-12-02. Nutrition Longevity and Aging documents the proceedings of a symposium on Nutrition Longevity and Aging held at the University of Miami School of Medicine February 26 27 1976 sponsored by the Training Program in Cellular Aging of the Departments of Physiology Biophysics and Microbiology. Clinicians and research scientists working in the field of nutrition and closely related specialties were invited to relate their expertise on specific problems in the study of gerontology as well as to general aspects of the aging process. Some of the papers employed animal models a basic tool in gerontological research to investigate the relationship of nutrition to aging. Others discuss the effects of diet on increasing longevity as well as reducing the incidence or severity of diseases common in the aging human population e g diabetes mellitus stroke atherosclerosis obesity. The Editors hope that the contents of this volume will serve to stimulate clinical researchers as well as basic scientists to undertake investigations involving the nutritional basis of many of the basic problems encountered in the study of aging.
