Ontario Ethno-cultural Newspapers Duncan McLaren, 1973 Canadian Reference Sources Mary E. Bond, Martine M. Caron, 1996 This bibliography cites those Canadian and foreign reference sources that describe Canadian people institutions organizations publications art literature languages and history It lists books of a general nature as well as works in the disciplines of history and the humanities These large divisions are then broken down by subject genre type of document and province or territory Titles of national provincial territorial or regional interest are included in every subject area when available The contents of the book are indexed four ways by name title French subject and English subject And to facilitate browsing the major reference books those dealing with more than one subject or a large geographical region are also cross referenced Two entries have been created for each bilingual document in order to provide access and bibliographical descriptions in both of Canada's official languages Entries for unilingual works include citation in the language of the publication and a bilingual annotation The annotations are descriptive and provide information on the content arrangements and indexing of works the availability of non print formats previous editions and title changes and related works Canadian Reference Sources will be an invaluable reference tool for future scholars and researchers Periodicals of Queen Victoria's Empire Rosemary VanArsdel, Jerry Don Vann, Rosemary T. VanArsdel, 1996-01-01 Contemporary research in periodical literature has demonstrated conclusively that the nineteenth century in Britain was the age of the periodical It also has shown that in Victorian society the circulation of periodicals and newspapers was both larger and more influential than that of books The six essays in this volume investigate the extent to which this was equally true of Britain's colonies during the period up to 1900 In chapters devoted to periodical publishing in Australia Canada India New Zealand Southern Africa and the outposts of the Empire Ceylon Cyprus Hong Kong Malaya and Singapore Malta and the West Indies the contributors also consider the function and importance of periodicals in colonial life They identify and describe all locally produced publications that appeared at weekly or longer intervals and that contained for example local news poetry fiction criticism commentary on the arts news from home shipping information and commodities reports Each chapter presents an evaluation of the quantity and quality of guides available to periodical literature in each region from basic bibliographies of periodicals directories and finding aids to microfilm records and databases on the Internet Periodicals of Queen Victoria's Empire is an initial step towards understanding and analyzing what its editors regard as the unseen power of the periodical press in the British Empire of the nineteenth century The Canada Year Book, 1974 Serials Canada Wayne Jones, 1995 Serials Canada Aspects of Serials in Canadian Libraries offers a new perspective on serials from a Canadian viewpoint It provides a sampling of the variety and a sense of the importance of work which is less well known and less covered than that of the U S which Canadian libraries scholars and publishers are doing on serials It presents valuable information not documented elsewhere giving new insights and ideas to serials librarians worldwide Authors in Serials Canada take a variety of approaches historical and descriptive argumentative critical and bibliographical to their subject matter Chapters offer close up in depth snapshots of some important topics in Canadian serials They cover topics including electronic serials serials pricing including new developments in the areas of cancellation funding cooperation access and electronic initiatives Canadian newspapers the historical development of Canadian ethnic serials publishing the Canadian Institute for Historical Microreproductions CIHM the editing production distribution circulation and marketing of the scholarly journal The Canadian Historical Review the purpose focus objectives and future directions of the Canadian Serials Industry Systems Advisory Committee CSISAC the history mandate and organization of the Canada Institute for Scientific and Technical Information s CISTI Document Delivery service Some of the peculiarities of the Canadian serials situation are discussed in the various chapters especially in speculating about the future of librarianship Serials Canada includes a unique bibliography of works on electronic journals either published in Canada or with some other Canadian connection It also sheds some light on the evolution of the Canadian Periodicals Price Index study so that librarians will find the Index to be more useful in future years It emphasizes the common elements and some of the problems inherent in newspaper preservation and management by giving an overview of the Decentralized Plan for Canadian newspapers The discussion of CISTI assists readers in understanding the various services offered by Document Delivery and discusses how technology has been used to ensure that CISTI s Document Delivery services remain relevant to its clients and cost effective in a competitive environment The information in Serials Canada is of particular interest to librarians of all levels and library professionals and scholars It will help the Canadian librarian stay up to date with developments at home and help those from other countries gain a more international and comparative perspective Odysseys Home George Elliott Clarke,2002-01-01 These tensions are revealed in the literature that Clarke argues to be paradoxically uniquely Canadian and proudly apart from a mainstream national identity BOOK JACKET The Routledge Companion to Alternative and Community Media Chris Atton,2015-05-15 The Routledge Companion to Alternative and Community Media provides an authoritative and comprehensive examination of the diverse forms practices and philosophies of alternative and community media across the world The volume offers a multiplicity of perspectives to examine the reasons why alternative and community media arise how they develop in particular ways and in particular places and how they can enrich our understanding of the broader media landscape and its place in society The 50 chapters present a range of theoretical and methodological positions and arguments to demonstrate the dynamic challenging and innovative thinking around the subject locating media theory and practice within the broader concerns of democracy citizenship social exclusion race class and gender In addition to research from the UK the US Canada Europe and Australia the Companion also includes studies from Colombia Haiti India South Korea and Zimbabwe enabling international comparisons to be made and also allowing for the problematisation of traditional often Western approaches to media studies By considering media practices across a range of cultures and communities this collection is an ideal companion to the key issues and debates within alternative and community media
