1895-1920 David Trotter, 2022-02-22 First Published in 1993 Written specifically for students and assuming no prior knowledge of the subject David Trotter's The English Novel in History 1895-1920 provides the first detailed and fully comprehensive analysis of early twentieth century English fiction Whereas all previous studies have been rigorously selective Trotter looks at over 140 novelists across the whole spectrum of fiction from the innovations of Joyce's Ulysses through to popular mass market genres such as detective stories and spy thrillers By examining the novels in both stylistic and historical terms David Trotter looks at the ways in which writers responded to contemporary preoccupations such as the spectacle of consumption and the growth of suburbia or to anxieties about the decline of Empire racial degeneration and sexual anarchy He also challenges the view that literature of the period can be interpreted as a neat procession from realism to Modernism

A History of the Irish Novel Derek Hand, 2011-03-10 Derek Hand's A History of the Irish Novel is a major work of criticism on some of the greatest and most globally recognisable writers of the novel form Writers such as Laurence Sterne James Joyce Elizabeth Bowen Samuel Beckett and John McGahern have demonstrated the extraordinary intellectual range thematic complexity and stylistic innovation of Irish fiction Derek Hand provides a remarkably detailed picture of the Irish novel's emergence in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries He shows the story of the genre is the story of Ireland's troubled relationship to modernisation The first critical synthesis of the Irish novel from the seventeenth century to the present day this is a major book for the field and the first to thematically theoretically and contextually chart its development It is an essential entertaining and highly original guide to the history of the Irish novel English Novel in History,

1895-1920 David Trotter, 2003-10 Written especially for students and assuming no prior knowledge of the subject this book aims to provide a comprehensive introduction to early 20th century fiction (Roman)ticism Larry H. Peer, 2008 This study presents a new approach to the theory of Romanticism Peer proceeds through key Romantic documents about form and structure while displacing and condensing modern scholarly assumptions that interrupt modern theoretical protocol A line of development is suggested moving from eighteenth century explorations in Kant Fielding and Diderot through Schlegelian Romantic beginnings and on through Emily Bronte Pushkin and the Romantic Manifesto culminating in the profound achievement of Manzoni Summarizing narrative implications by looking at the modern discipline of Comparative Literature this book deliberately deforms both our contemporary ideas about Romanticism as well as our non Romantic way of teaching it BOOK JACKET The Academy and Literature, 1911 Contemporary Fictions of Attention Alice

Bennett, 2018-08-09 With the supposed shortening of our attention spans what future is there for fiction in the age of the internet Contemporary Fictions of Attention rejects this discourse of distraction crisis which suggests that the future of reading is in peril and instead finds that contemporary writers construct fictions of attention that find some value in states or moments of inattention Through discussion of work by a diverse selection of writers including Joshua Cohen Ben Lerner Tom

McCarthy Ali Smith Zadie Smith and David Foster Wallace this book identifies how fiction prompts readers to become peripherally aware of their own attention Contemporary Fictions of Attention locates a common interest in attention within 21st century fiction and connects this interest to a series of debates surrounding ethics temporality the everyday boredom work and self discipline in contemporary culture The Face of the Other in Anglo-American Literature Marija Knežević,2011-09-22 If we have established that our approach to the phenomena that are other to us is always a matter of semiosis and that even in an attempt to naturalize phenomenology like the one made by Maurice Merleau Ponty who points to the corporeity of consciousness as much as an intentionality of the body it appears that our most negligible movements present our cultural being or habituality cf Iris Young Throwing Like a Girl 1990 2005 However many thinkers have claimed for example the novelist D H Lawrence or philosopher Luce Irigaray that we know by touch and intuition The papers collected in this book examine our approach to these issues in an essentially post theory world particularly enquiring if twentieth century theory has left us clear directions of where we are supposed to be looking for new ways of understanding and representing the phenomenological The way the Other exists in the consciousness that as Hegel said always pursues its death becomes especially interesting in the context of the development of Anglo American studies in the post postmodern world which sees the West as a changeable cultural and geographical concept that incorporates a multiplicity of others Yet at the same time a number of contemporary Anglo American writers insists on the prolonged effects of colonialism in the modern world in which outbursts of violence and hatred aimed at the Other prove that the modern world still cannot approach the Other without bigotry Early Novels in India Meenakshi Mukherjee,2002 This Volume Brings Together Fourteen Essays Written By Literary Critics Historians And Political Theorists Which Look At The Early Novels In Different Indian Languages And The Circumstances Of Their Production Most Of The Essays Challenge The Old Assumption That The Novel In India Was A Genre Directly Imported From The West And Address The Issues Of Plural Heritage And The Economic And Social Determinants That Interacted To Make The Shaping Of This Literary Form A Tangled And Complex Process In Our Languages The Oxford Guide to Literature in English Translation Peter France,2000 This guide highlights the place of translation in our culture encouraging awareness of the process of translating and the choices involved making the translator more visible Concentrating on major writers and works it covers translations out of many languages from Greek to Hungarian Korean to Turkish For some works e g Virgil s Aeneid which have been much translated the discussion is historical and critical showing how translation has evolved over the centuries and bringing out the differences between versions Elsewhere with less familiar literatures the Guide examines the extent to which translation has done justice to the range of work available Urban Discourses of Crisis, Resilience, and Resistance Eric Prieto,Liam Langan,Anni Lappela,2025-07-11 This volume seeks to address questions of urban crisis from an interdisciplinary perspective that foregrounds the particular roles that literature and the creative arts play in both conceptualizing and addressing the multiple challenges facing cities Noting that the successive crises of recent years from the 2008 recession to COVID 19 seem to have put an end to the triumphalist tone of much urban writing in the 1990s this book argues that the current historical moment calls for a different kind of urban discourse focused on reassessment and regrouping This edited collection features a variety of different approaches including close readings of literary works interviews essays in cultural and architectural history and sociological ethnographic and urban planning studies These chapters explore a range of challenges currently faced by cities and foreground the search for solutions The Corvey Library and Anglo-German Cultural Exchanges, 1770-1837 Rainer Schöwerling, 2004 The Oxford Companion to Twentieth-century Literature in English Jenny Stringer, 1996 Survey of twentieth century English language writers and writing from around the world celebrating all major genres with entries on literary movements periodicals more than 400 individual works and articles on approximately 2 400 authors Academy; a Weekly Review of Literature, Learning, Science and Art, 1876 The Poetical gazette the official organ of the Poetry society and a review of poetical affairs nos 4 7 issued as supplements to the Academy v 79 Oct 15 Nov 5 Dec 3 and 31 1910 The Savage in Literature Brian V. Street, 2016-07-28 First published in 1975 this study is concerned with the representation of non European people in English popular fiction in the period from 1858 1920 It examines the developments in thinking about people across the world and shows how they affected writers views of evolution race heredity and of the life of the so called primitive man This book will be of interest to those studying 19th century literature Playing the Field Sascha Pöhlmann, 2019-08-19 American Studies has only gradually turned its attention to video games in the twenty first century even though the medium has grown into a cultural industry that is arguably the most important force in American and global popular culture today There is an urgent need for a substantial theoretical reflection on how the field and its object of study relate to each other This anthology the first of its kind seeks to address this need by asking a dialectic question first how may American Studies apply its highly diverse theoretical and methodological tools to the analysis of video games and second how are these theories and methods in turn affected by the games The eighteen essays offer exemplary approaches to video games from the perspective of American cultural and historical studies as they consider a broad variety of topics the US American games industry Puritan rhetoric cultural geography mobility and race urbanity and space digital sports ludic textuality survival horror and the eighteenth century novel gamer culture and neoliberalism terrorism and agency algorithm culture glitches theme parks historical guilt visual art sonic meaning making and nonverbal gameplay Dictionary of Anonymous and Pseudonymous English Literature: M-P Samuel Halkett, John Laing, 1928
