We Shall Bear Witness Meg Jensen,Margaretta Jolly,2014-08-26 An international array of human rights advocates scholars and survivor writers examine the profound and complex impact of personal testimony about human rights abuses as expressed through autobiography documentary film report oral history blog and verbatim theater

The Cambridge Companion to the Modernist Novel Morag Shiach,2007-04-19 The novel is modernism s most vital and experimental genre With a chronology and guide to further reading this 2007 Companion is an accessible and informative overview of the genre

Evelyn Waugh's Satire Naomi Milthorpe,2016-06-23 Evelyn Waugh 1903 1966 is one of the twentieth century s great prose stylists and the author of a suite of devastating satires on modern English life from his first unforgettably funny novel Decline and Fall to his last work of fiction Basil Seal Rides Again Evelyn Waugh s Satire Texts and Contexts renews scholarly debates central to Waugh s work the forms of his satire his attitudes towards modernity and modernism his place in the literary culture of the interwar period and his pugnacious mis reading of literary and other texts This study offers new exegetical accounts of the forms and figures of Waugh s satire linking original readings of Waugh s texts to the literary historical contexts that informed them Posing fresh readings of familiar works and affording attention to more neglected texts Evelyn Waugh s Satire Texts and Contexts offers readers and scholars a timely opportunity to return to the rich dark art of this master of prose satire

Katherine Mansfield and Literary Influence Sarah Ailwood,2015-06-16 This book maps the ecologies of Mansfield s influences beyond her modernist and postcolonial contexts observing that it roams wildly over six centuries across three continents and beyond cultural and linguistic boundaries

Katherine Mansfield and the Modernist Marketplace J. McDonnell,2010-08-04 Katherine Mansfield had a career long engagement with the literary marketplace from the age of eighteen This book examines how she developed as a writer within a range of book and periodical publishing contexts reconsidering her writing's enactment of a commercially viable modern aesthetic in her experimentation with the short story form A Literary History of Reconciliation Jan Frans van Dijkhuizen, 2018-09-06 From William Shakespeare to Marilynne Robinson this book examines representations of interpersonal reconciliation in works of literature focusing on how these representations draw on the language of divine forgiveness Christian theology sees divine forgiveness as conditional upon a sinner's remorse and self-abasement before God but also as a form of grace unconditional and rooted only in divine love Van Dijkhuizen explores what happens when this paradoxical forgiveness paradigm comes to serve as a template for interpersonal reconciliation As A Literary History of Reconciliation shows literary writers imagine interpersonal reconciliation as being centrally about power and hierarchy and present forgiveness without power as longed for but ever elusive Drawing on major works of literature from the early modern era to the present day this book explores works by John Milton Virginia Woolf J M Coetzee Ian McEwan and others to craft a literary history that will appeal to readers interested in literature religion and philosophy The Art and Science of Trauma and the Autobiographical Meg Jensen, 2019-01-04 This book examines posttraumatic autobiographical projects elucidating the complex relationship between the science of trauma and how that idea is understood across various scientific disciplines and the rhetorical strategies of fragmentation dissociation reticence and repetitive troping widely used the representation of traumatic experience From autobiographical fictions to prison poems from witness testimony to autography and from testimonio to war memorials otherwise dissimilar projects speak of past suffering through a limited and even predictable discourse in search of healing Drawing on approaches from literary human rights and cultural studies that highlight relations between trauma language meaning and selfhood and the latest research on the science of trauma from the fields of clinical behavioral and evolutionary psychology and neuroscience I read such autobiographical projects not as symptoms but as complex interrogative negotiations of trauma and its aftermath commemorative and performative narratives navigating aesthetic biological cultural linguistic and emotional pressure and inspiration The Victorian Eighteenth Century B. W. Young, 2007-10-18 The Victorians were preoccupied by the eighteenth century It was central to many nineteenth century debates particularly those concerning the place of history and religion in national life This book explores the diverse responses of key Victorian writers and thinkers Thomas Carlyle John Henry Newman Leslie Stephen Vernon Lee and M R James to a period which commanded their interest throughout the Victorian era from the accession of Queen Victoria to the opening decades of the twentieth century They were on the one hand appalled by the apparent frivolity of the eighteenth century which was denounced by Carlyle as a dispiriting successor to the culture of Puritan England and on the other they were concerned to continue its secularising influence on English culture as is seen in the pioneering work of Leslie Stephen who was passionately keen to transform the legacy of eighteenth century scepticism into Victorian agnosticism The Victorian interest in the eighteenth century was never a purely insular matter and the history of eighteenth century France Germany and Italy played a dominant role in the nineteenth century historical understanding A debate between generations was enacted in which Romanticism melded into Victorianism The Victorians were haunted by the eighteenth century both metaphorically and literally and the book closes with consideration of the culturally resonant eighteenth century ghosts encountered in the fiction of Vernon Lee and M R James Stevie Smith and Authorship William May,2010-08-12 This book is a full length study of the British novelist poet and illustrator Stevie Smith 1902 1971 It draws on extensive archival material to offer new insights into her work challenging conventional readings of her as an eccentric It reveals the careful control with which she managed her public persona reassesses her allusive poetry in the light of her own conflicted response to written texts and traces her simultaneous preoccupation with and fear of her reading public William May considers the influence of artists such as George Grosz and Aubrey Beardsley on her apparently artless illustrations and explores her use of fiction and book reviews as a way of generating contexts for her poetry offering readers a fascinating in depth study that not only radically alters our understanding of Smith and her work but provides new perspectives on British twentieth century poetry and its reception The Thomas Hardy Journal ,2004 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2002 The Victorian Newsletter ,2002 Virginia Woolf Miscellany ,2004 Nineteenth-century Literature ,1986 Contains articles which focus on a broad spectrum of significant figures in fiction philosophy and criticism such as Austen Carlyle Dickens Thackeray the Brontes Tennyson Browning Arnold Emerson Hawthorne Thoreau Whitman Twain and Henry James Annual Bibliography of English Language and Literature Modern Humanities Research Association,2004 Includes both books and articles Response & Analysis Robert E. Probst,2004 In this fully updated second edition of Response and Analysis Robert Probst leads you to fresh methods that build lifelong lovers of reading by opening your literature classroom to the power of student driven interpretation and analysis The second edition is chocked full of everything you need to plan and build a curriculum that initiates interpretative and critical conversations with and among your students while exposing them to a variety of genres conversations that encourage students to be active enthusiastic readers Probst s updates and revisions speak directly to today s busy teacher offering a clear coherent rationale for a more humane approach to literature teaching workshop activities that encourage adolescents to formulate articulate responses to texts and that fit neatly into your existing curriculum extensive new suggestions for testing and evaluation in a standards based education environment complete with a variety of assessment rubrics and tools fresh ideas for utilizing television and film to bolster print literacy and make students more critically astute viewers a fully revised and updated discussion of contemporary young adult literature including new examples a compendium of online and print YAL resources and a bibliography of the latest research and professional writing on the subject Teachers who have long trusted Probst s techniques for engaging student readers will be excited to find that Response and Analysis Second Edition invites them into a new dialogue about teaching literature while new readers will discover how this comprehensive guide uses best practice
