The Power of Partnership in Open Government Suzanne J. Piotrowski, Daniel Berliner, Alex Ingrams, 2022-12-06 What the Open Government Partnership tells us about how international initiatives can and do shape domestic public sector reform At the 2011 meeting of the UN General Assembly the governments of eight nations Brazil Indonesia Mexico Norway Philippines South Africa the United Kingdom and the United States launched the Open Government Partnership a multilateral initiative aimed at promoting transparency empowering citizens fighting corruption and harnessing new technologies to strengthen governance At the time many were concerned that the Open Government Partnership would end up toothless offering only lip service to vague ideals and misguided cyber optimism The Power of Partnership in Open Government offers a close look and a surprising affirmation of the Open Government Partnership as an example of a successful transnational multistakeholder initiative that has indeed impacted policy and helped to produce progressive reform By 2019 the Open Government Partnership had grown to 78 member countries and 20 subnational governments Through a variety of methods document analysis interviews process tracing and quantitative analysis of secondary data Suzanne J Piotrowski Daniel Berliner and Alex Ingrams chart the Open Government Partnership s effectiveness and evaluate what this reveals about the potential of international reform initiatives in general Their work calls upon scholars and policymakers to reconsider the role of international institutions and in doing so to differentiate between direct and indirect pathways to transnational impact on domestic policy The more nuanced and complex processes of the indirect pathway they suggest have considerable but often overlooked potential to shape policy norms and models alter resources and opportunities and forge new linkages and coalitions in short to drive the substantial changes that inspire initiatives like the Open Government Partnership
