Insecticides and the Calibration of Spray Equipment Gary L. De Barr, Edward P. Merkel, 1969 Fragments of Culture Deniz Kandiyoti, Ayşe Saktanber, 2002 Fragments of Culture explores the evolving modern daily life of Turkey Through analyses of language folklore film satirical humor the symbolism of Islamic political mobilization and the shifting identities of diasporic communities in Turkey and Europe this book provides a fresh and corrective perspective to the often skewed perceptions of Turkish culture engendered by conventional western critiques In this volume some of the most innovative scholars of post 1980s Turkey address the complex ways that suburbanization and the growth of a globalized middle class have altered gender and class relations and how Turkish society is being shaped and redefined through consumption They also explore the increasingly polarized cultural politics between secularists and Islamists and the ways that previously repressed Islamic elements have reemerged to complicate the idea of an authentic Turkish identity Contributors examine a range of issues from the adjustments to religious identity as the Islamic veil becomes marketed as a fashion item to the media's increased attention in Turkish transsexual lifestyle to the role of folk dance as a ritualized part of public life Fragments of Culture shows how attention to the minutiae of daily life can successfully unravel the complexities of a shifting society This book makes a significant contribution to both modern Turkish studies and the scholarship on cross cultural perspectives in Middle Eastern studies
