Gestures of Seeing in Film, Video and Drawing Asbjørn Grønstad, Henrik Gustafsson, Øyvind Vågnes, 2016-06-23 The first book of its kind Gestures of Seeing in Film Video and Drawing engages broadly with the often too neglected yet significant questions of gesture in visual culture In our turbulent mediasphere where images as lenses bearing on their own circumstances are constantly mobilized to enact symbolic forms of warfare and where they get entangled in all kinds of cultural conflicts and controversies a turn to the gestural life of images seems to promise a particularly pertinent avenue of intellectual inquiry The complex gestures of the artwork remain an under explored theoretical topos in contemporary visual culture studies In visual art the gestural appears to be that which intervenes between form and content materiality and meaning But as a conceptual force it also impinges upon the very process of seeing itself As a critical and heuristic trope the gestural galvanizes many of the most pertinent areas of inquiry in contemporary debates and scholarship in visual culture and related disciplines ethics images and their values and affects aesthetics from visual essentialism to transesthetics and synesthesia ecology iconoclastic gestures and spaces of conflict and epistemology questions of the archive memory and documentation Offering fresh perspectives on many of these areas Gestures of Seeing in Film Video and Drawing will be intensely awaited by readers from and across several disciplines such as anthropology linguistics performance theater film and visual studies

Speech Production Jonathan Harrington, Marija Tabain, 2013-05-13 Speech Production Models Phonetic Processes and Techniques brings together researchers from many different disciplines computer science dentistry engineering linguistics phonetics physiology psychology all with a special interest in how speech is produced From the initial neural program to the end acoustic signal it provides an overview of several dominant models in the speech production literature as well as up to date accounts of persistent theoretical issues in the area. A particular focus is on the evaluation of information gleaned from instrumental investigations of the speech production process including MRI, PET, ultra sound, video imaging, EMA, EPG, X ray, computer simulation and many others. The research presented in this volume considers questions such as the feed back vs feed forward control of speech, the acoustic auditory vs articulatory somato sensory domains of speech, planning the innateness of human speech, the possible architecture of a speech production model and the realization of prosodic structure in speech. Leaders in speech research from around the world have contributed their most recent work to this volume.

Dancing with the Earth Changes Pogačnik Marko, 2021-02-16. It is increasingly evident that the dramatic consequences of the Earth's changing process cannot be avoided; that our civilization today is not willing to implement the necessary measures to stop the deterioration of the natural environment. It is up to open minded individuals and their networks to engage actively where support for Gaia is lacking. Marko Pogačnik, UNESCO Artist for Peace, Dancing with the Earth Changes offers alternative insights into the process of the Earth Changes, inspiring a deep listening to Gaia, the driving force behind the ongoing planetary transformation. Marko Pogačnik's intention is to offer his worldwide work experience in the fields of geomancy and Earth healing to enable a better understanding of the complexity of those Earth Changes. Included are stories from several of Marko's dreams connected to the theme of the book which will help to elucidate its pictorial language. The author also offers imaginations as well as Gaia Touch and perception exercises to support the reader attune to the changing Earth. The imaginations and exercises in this timely book simultaneously supports Gaia's efforts in creating optimal conditions for the future evolution of humanity and the elemental and spiritual worlds of the planet. The cooperation of human beings with Gaia and her elemental worlds is absolutely necessary for the Earth's transmutation to succeed. As human beings with our creative imaginations and wide ranging consciousness we are the only ones capable of connecting the earthly and cosmic dimensions in this mutual endeavor to re create the Earth as a place of peace and cooperation among all beings and all aspects of life. Marko Pogačnik's innovative forms of meditation and Gaia Touch body exercises and rituals give us the tools we urgently need now to meet the present and coming challenges of the twenty first century. Illustrated with drawings by the author. Paperback with French flaps.
