Opening Hearts by Opening Minds Connie Wineland, 2007-06-01 This book is for Christian readers of fiction who might experience difficulty trying to make an informed choice beyond what is being published by evangelical presses Marketed to a specific target audience evangelical fiction oftentimes leaves a reader with a strong emotional response but lacks the literary depth or the breadth of subject that could inspire life changing spiritual growth With this premise at the heart of her book Connie Wineland includes her own story of conversion to Christianity by way of reading fiction During her late twenties and early thirties particularly while in graduate school

Wineland became immersed in literary and rhetorical studies while also practicing an Eastern form of religion as well as Native American spirituality. However, despite all her training in literary theory, her readings in Romantic, Victorian, modern and postmodern literature which she explains as well as her personal interest in mythology and world religions kept her questioning the existence of God and the possible nature of God. Then as a relatively new convert to Christianity, she faced several challenges at a small Christian college where she taught literature and writing courses. Eventually wanting to reach beyond the academic community, Wineland began a local Christian readers group which she ran for four years. She includes in this book resources and materials such as sample syllabi and study guide questions, useful Web addresses and plenty of how-to information for starting and running your own book club. Also included is an extensive list of annotated titles of recommended reading to get anyone started.

To Call on His Name John Gill, 2019-12-15 The first comprehensive study of the Jesus Prayer and its origins and use, providing an overview of this ancient mystical prayer practice from the Christian East which is now also widely used in the Western Church.

OpenMind Ushiku Crisafulli, 2011-04-13 OpenMind is a collection of poems by Ushiku Crisafulli, an Italian poet, playwright, actor, and graphic designer. As a poet, Ushiku's pieces vary from the intensely personal to the intensely political; he combines this with a combination of highly potent spirituality and a witty artistic tongue that paints pictures with his vivid imagination. This poetry book differs from most as its titles are not listed, leaving the reader with an OpenMind to interpret not just the meaning but the name of the pieces.

The Daily Reader for Contemplative Living Thomas Keating, 2013-01-31 This work brings together for each day of the year three prayer practices for contemplative living: first, a brief active prayer; second, spiritual reading; and third, Lectio Divina. The brief introductory prayer sentences are from various sources: the Bible and traditional prayers of the church or of well-known spiritual writers. The spiritual readings come from eleven of Father Keating's books and one audiobook with a month's worth of readings derived from each work. Each day's entry concludes with a brief selection from the Bible or Lectio Divina.
