Opening Dialogue Understanding The Dynamics Of Language And Learning In The English Classroom:

Opening Dialogue Martin Nystrand, 1997 Opening Dialogue examines the effects of classroom discourse on learning in 8th and 9th grade literature classes with broad implications for all grade levels and subjects Dozens of schools and thousands of students participated in this study the largest in the field Contents Dialogic Instruction When Recitation Becomes Conversation The Big Picture Language and Learning in Hundreds of English Lessons A Closer Look at Authentic Interaction Profiles of Student Teacher Talk in Two Classrooms What s a Teacher to Do Opening Dialogue Martin Nystrand, 1997-01-01 This work aims to reorientate our thinking about how younger adolescents and their teachers talking together compose shared understandings that contribute to individual students learning Nystrand and his colleagues argue that people learn by participating in communicative exchanges The Charged Classroom Judith L. Pace, 2015-02-11 At a time when debate over school reform commands unprecedented attention Judith L Pace argues we must grapple with the underlying challenges of classroom teaching and at the same time strive to realize the ideals of democratic education Building on three qualitative studies in grades four through twelve The Charged Classroom examines the deeply embedded tensions escalating pressures and exciting possibilities of the contemporary American public school classroom Through detailed descriptions and analyses of social studies and English language arts classrooms Pace disentangles how teachers and students navigate three charged arenas academic expectations discussion of provocative topics and curricular demands In each domain democratic learning opportunities such as promotion of positive student identity dialogue across differences and exploration of conflict are both opened up and closed down A passionate and persuasive call for education reform the book offers crucial insights about the realities of teaching and key recommendations for advancing democratic education in a multicultural society Science Education Research and Practice in Europe Doris Jorde, Justin Dillon, 2012-12-17 Each volume in the 7 volume series The World of Science Education reviews research in a key region of the world These regions include North America South and Latin America Asia Australia and New Zealand Europe Arab States and Sub Saharan Africa The focus of this Handbook is on science education in Europe In producing this volume the editors have invited a range of authors to describe their research in the context of developments in the continent and further afield In reading this book you are invited to consider the historical social and political contexts that have driven developments in science education research over the years A unique feature of science education in Europe is the impact of the European Union on research and development over many years A growing number of multi national projects have contributed to the establishment of a community of researchers increasingly accepting of methodological diversity That is not to say that Europe is moving towards homogeneity as this volume clearly shows Boys, Girls, and the Myths of Literacies and Learning Roberta F. Hammett, Kathy Sanford, 2008-03-28 This timely and authoritative book provides a critique and deconstructs the myths that serve to uphold the current moral panic around boys supposed failures in literacy and diminished chances of success Readers are asked to look beyond simple gender binarism to see different more complex and often more egregious categorizations of students in their classrooms other than the simplistic male female categories and begin to question and address some of those issues poverty racism violence environment and more complex issues of gender patriarchy and hegemony The authors suggest different ways of teaching literacies to both boys and girls and propose that while solutions are not simple they are critically important in promoting positive educational experiences for all students regardless of gender class culture race or sexual orientation
