Opening And Presence A Spiritual Path Of Relationship:

Opening and Presence Douglas Allen, 2005-08 Love only grows and deepens by knowing how to nurture it To delve deeply into relationship and draw from it the greatest treasures we have to live the core qualities that bring us into contact with vibrant intimacy The dynamic created by feminine opening coupled with masculine presence is offered here as a means to deepening love respect and trust Through this dynamic couples come into possession of their innate and primal masculine and feminine natures

Teaching with the Wind Michael Dallaire, 2011-11-16 Teaching with the Wind tackles the question Can education for a Canadian civic spirituality bridge the sometimes incommensurable worldviews of faith based schools and secular public schools An affirmative answer is offered based on two foundations First that a national soul can be identified and thus serve as the content of spiritual education in Canada schools Second that a reconstructed approach to the contemplation in action method found in world religions and philosophy can provide an appropriate pedagogy for Canadian spiritual education This book argues that education for civic spirituality is of paramount importance as Canada continues its transition from a Judeo Christian and bicultural nation to a multi faith and multicultural nation within a secular democracy It offers a direction that would enrich religious and secular education systems as well as Canada as a whole

UNDERSTANDING THE JOURNEY OF THE SOUL Victory Pius, 2025-07-22 What lies beyond what we see What animates our being Why do we feel called toward something greater something eternal These questions though ancient remain ever alive within us The journey of the soul is not a metaphor It is the most intimate and universal voyage a human can undertake It is the path beneath every other path a quiet current beneath the rush of worldly pursuits In every age and tradition human beings have looked inward to understand who we truly are Is the soul an immortal essence A divine spark A memory from before birth Or is it the evolving consciousness that grows through every joy and wound This book is an exploration a map drawn from spiritual philosophical and psychological sources It does not aim to define the soul with finality but rather to bring some light We study the soul not to escape life but to live more deeply When we understand the soul s journey we understand our purpose our trials our connections and above all our potential to awaken

How Survivors of Abuse Relate to God Susan Shooter,2016-04-29 Grappling with theological issues raised by abuse this book argues that the Church should be challenged and ministered to by survivors Paying careful attention to her interviews with Christian women survivors Shooter finds that through painful experiences of transformation they have surprisingly become potential agents of transformation for others Shooter brings the survivors narratives into dialogue with the story of Job and with medieval mystic Marguerite Porete s spirituality of annihilation Culminating in an engagement with contemporary feminist theology concerning power and powerlessness there emerges a set of principles for authentic community spirituality which crosses boundaries with God supports appropriate human boundaries and crucially listens attentively Appealing to Church leaders students practitioners and practical theologians this book offers a creative and ethical theological enquiry as well as some spiritual anchor points for survivors

How to Be an Adult in Relationships David Richo,2021-11-02 Most people think of love as a feeling says David Richo but love is not so much a feeling as a way of being present In this book Richo offers a fresh perspective on love and relationships one that focuses not on finding an ideal mate but on becoming a more loving and realistic person Drawing on the Buddhist concept of mindfulness How to Be an Adult in Relationships explores five hallmarks of mindful loving and how they play a key role in our relationships throughout life 1 Attention to the present moment observing listening and noticing all the feelings at play in our relationships 2 Acceptance of ourselves and others just as we are 3 Appreciation of all our gifts our limits our longings and our poignant human predicament 4 Affection shown through holding and touching in respectful ways 5 Allowing life and love to be just as they are with all their ecstasy and ache without trying to take control When deeply understood and applied these five simple concepts what Richo calls the five A s form the basis of mature love They help us to move away from judgment fear and blame to a position of openness compassion and realism about life and relationships By giving and receiving these five A s relationships become deeper and more meaningful and they become a ground for personal transformation

Living with Dying Joan Berzoff,Phyllis R. Silverman,2004 The first resource on end of life care for healthcare practitioners who work with the terminally ill and their families Living with Dying begins with the narratives of five healthcare professionals who when faced with overwhelming personal losses altered their clinical practices and philosophies The book provides ways to ensure a respectful death for individuals families groups and communities and is organized around theoretical issues in loss grief and bereavement and around clinical practice with individuals families and groups Living with Dying addresses practice with people who have specific illnesses such as AIDS bone marrow disease and cancer and pays special attention to patients who have been stigmatized by culture ability sexual orientation age race or homelessness The book includes content on trauma and developmental issues for children adults and the aging who are dying and it addresses legal ethical spiritual cultural and social class issues as core factors in the assessment of and work with the dying It explores interdisciplinary teamwork supervision and the organizational and financing contexts in which dying occurs Current research in end of life care ways to provide leadership in the field and a call for compassion insight and respect for the dying makes this an indispensable resource for social workers healthcare educators administrators consultants advocates and practitioners who work with the dying and their families Regardless Of Person Rev. Andre E. Keeley, 2019-10-03 It has been said that the eleven o'clock hour on Sunday morning is the most segregated hour of the week In churches that tout Christian unity as the one quality essential to accomplishing God's will in the world division still remains the one quality that defines the place of the Church in the world today That division is not limited to the varied members of the worshiping community but in leadership as well Scripture the record of our faith tells the faithful that regardless of person the varied gifts and talents that exist among us are the tools essential for building the beloved kingdom Those tools have been dispersed to the faithful who understand the importance of identifying the kingdom of heaven and pointing the way to it In short as Scripture describes it To make the path straight Using the eight parables of Jesus that begin with the words the kingdom of heaven is like to describe heaven's nature and our place in it is the central focus of the book The faithful of the Church over ages past understood the work to be carried out if God's will is to be done on earth as it is in heaven That work is given to those regardless of person who acknowledge heaven as a place of eternal oneness and divine presence Pointing to that place is the task given to the faithful that all humanity may know the reaches of a loving God The God of creation has given gifts to the faithful to identify divine presence The God of divine guidance has given talents to the faithful to illumine the way to that presence The God of eternal salvation has given blessing to the faithful to help make the way a blessing to all regardless of person Jesus's Teachings about Love, Forgiveness, and Relationships in the Christian Bible and A Course in Miracles David A. Scott, MA, LMFT, 2023-01-23 Jesus was an enlightened spiritual master who lived and taught in the Middle East over two thousand years ago The Gospels of Matthew Mark Luke and John are four of the many gospels that claim to describe his life and contain his teachings More recently the spirit of Jesus dictated A Course in Miracles to Dr Helen Schucman a psychologist in New York City The Course when it was published included three volumes 1 a theoretical Text 2 a Workbook for Students and 3 a Manual for Teachers A Preface and two supplements were received by the same process and added to it later So now we have two ways to study and explore what Jesus taught This book examines his teachings from both sources regarding 1 love and spirit 2 giving getting and receiving 3 spiritually guided forgiveness and 4 our relationship with God and each other You will discover as the author did that the Gospels and the Course are largely in agreement as one would expect if they came from the same teacher This book is also available in
