The Rebirthing of God John Philip Newell, 2014-06-06 Dare to imagine a new birth from deep within Christianity a fresh stirring of the Spirit The walls of Western Christianity are collapsing In many parts of the West that collapse can only be described as seismic There are three main responses or reactions to this collapse The first is to deny that it is happening The second is to frantically try to shore up the foundations of the old thing The third which I invite us into is to ask what is trying to be born that requires a radical reorientation of our vision What is the new thing that is trying to emerge from deep within us and from deep within the collective soul of Christianity from the Introduction In the midst of dramatic changes in Western Christianity internationally respected spiritual leader peacemaker and scholar John Philip Newell offers the hope of a fresh stirring of the Spirit among us He invites us to be part of a new holy birth of sacred living Speaking directly to the heart of Christians those within the well defined bounds of Christian practice and those on the disenchanting edges as well as to the faithful and seekers of other traditions he explores eight major features of a new birthing of Christianity Coming back into relationship with the Earth as sacred Reconnecting with compassion as the ground of true relationship Celebrating the Light that is at the heart of all life Reverencing the wisdom of other religious traditions Rediscovering spiritual practice as the basis for transformation Living the way of nonviolence among nations Looking to the unconscious as the wellspring of new vision Following love as the seed force of new birth in our lives and world A Year of Spiritual Companionship Anne Kertz Kernion,2016-03-01 Nourish your spirituality with helpful reminders to look for and create moments of grace every day For seekers of all backgrounds these weekly reflections offer inspiring quotations from all faith traditions current research on happiness mindfulness and gratitude and practical suggestions for incorporating spiritual practices into daily life Like a Child Rev. Timothy J. Mooney,2014-05-30 By breaking free from our misperceptions about what it means to be an adult we can reshape our world and become harbingers of grace In our desire to grow up mature become adults we become enamored with who we are supposed to be When we have finally grown up we realize much of who we really are has been left behind or buried under various masks and roles we play But the knowledge of who we truly are never leaves us To reclaim our selfhood we must grow up again and consciously embrace all that it means to be childlike from Chapter 12 It Takes a Long Time to Become Young By restoring the childlike ways of humility trust awe wonder playfulness and more we can recover a fuller picture of what it means to be human This unique spiritual resource explores what Jesus may have meant when he said Unless you change and become like children you will never enter the kingdom of heaven It addresses our modern misperceptions regarding the nature of maturity and the common coping mechanisms distrust guardedness insecurity judgmental thinking we acquire and feel we require in adulthood Along with the wisdom of ancient and modern spiritual luminaries this book provides over twenty five spiritual practices to help us cultivate the childlike ways of attention self awareness joy and resilience in our inner lives as well as in our relationships with others

The Advent of God's Word Rev. Dr. Brenda K. Buckwell, Obl. OSB,2015-10-27 Quiet your heart and listen for the loving whispers of God during the Advent season The weeks leading up to Christmas are often hectic times preparing for the holy celebration of Jesus birth This book provides an opportunity for you to pause take a refreshing breath of the Holy Spirit and look beyond the surface of the lights and glitter to notice the inward shaping of Jesus virtues of hope love joy and peace for faithful living It sets a course for daily retreat and devotional living into the new era for hope and unity in the heart of Christ from the Introduction Are you missing out on the true meaning and mystery of Advent amid the hustle and bustle of the holiday season Rev Dr Brenda K Buckwell Obl OSB invites you into a daily retreat experience offering inspiring reflections fresh perspectives on the season s traditional scripture readings and creative ways to let God s word sink deep into your heart and soul With prayer practices that engage the senses and guidance in creating a visual reflection in response to each day s reading she helps you move beyond articulation of what you know of God to discover the possibilities awaiting you

The Living Nativity Larry James Peacock,2018-09-01 Who came up with the idea of using nativity scenes to celebrate

Christmas Many might be surprised to learn that Francis of Assisi the well known thirteenth century saint is credited with creating the first nativity scene The Living Nativity introduces readers to Saint Francis and his joyous reenactment of the birth of Jesus complete with a manger and animals The Living Nativity explores how nativity sets Advent wreaths candles carols Christmas cards and other traditions help prepare our hearts for the God who bends low to enter our world and our lives Prayer poems for each day of the season lead readers to deepen their spiritual journey and the book provides a guided pattern for individuals and small groups to share reflections and experience activities that open their hearts to the Christ child The Living Nativity provides a prayer meditation and reflection questions for each day of Advent The Leader s Guide includes suggestions for worship discussion questions focused on the readings and guidance for a mini retreat on a theme of the week
