Simkin, 1996 This work is the only comprehensive guide to sequels in English with over 84 000 works by 12 500 authors in 17 000 sequences Displacement and Refugee Issues in South Asia Bulbul Siddiqi, 2024-09-13 The number of forcibly displaced people globally has been on the rise in recent years The refugee crises in the Middle East Africa Europe and South and East Asia are the most notable Due to such crises the refugee population has been a key challenge for humanity It has also put a strain on many refugee hosting countries as most of the displaced populations are hosted in low and middle income countries rather than wealthier countries Force displacement creates challenges for the refugees and the host societies Displacement and Refugee Issues in South Asia Uncovering the Contested Realities brings out the cases of forcibly displacement from five South Asian countries Rohingya in Bangladesh India and Nepal Tamils in Sri Lanka and the Afghan refugees in Afghanistan and Europe Bulbul Siddiqi and contributors reveal that the refugee population in various South Asian countries have been living with vulnerabilities and uncertainty due to ineffective repatriation and the lack of dignified living conditions in host countries It requires urgent support and initiatives from global and regional powers and international humanitarian organizations to ensure that the dignified lives of these vulnerable populations in different countries Spatializing Practices of Regional Organizations during Conflict Intervention Jens Herpolsheimer, 2021-02-28 This book studies relevant actors and practices of conflict intervention by African regional organizations and their intimate connection to space making addressing a major gap regarding what actually happens within and around these organizations Based on extensive empirical research it argues that those intervention practices are essentially spatializing practices based on particular spatial imaginations contributing to the continuous construction and formatting of regional spaces as well as to ordering relations between different regional spaces Analyzing the field of developing practices of conflict intervention by the Economic Community of West African States ECOWAS and the African Union AU the book contributes a new theory oriented analytical approach to study African regional organizations ROs and the complex dynamics of African peace and security based on insights from Critical Geography As such it helps to close an empirical gap with regard to the internal modes of operation of African ROs as well as the lack of their theorization It demonstrates that contrary to most accounts intervention practices of African ROs have been diverse and complexly interrelated involving different actors within and around these organizations and are essentially tied to the space making This book will be of key interest to students and scholars of African Politics Governance Peace and Security Studies International or Regional Organizations and more broadly to Comparative Regionalism International Relations and International Studies

Bluster Peter R. Neumann, 2020-01-01 Defeating terrorism was one of Donald Trump's key campaign promises But there is no easy way to make sense of Donald Trump's war on terror Is it all bluster aimed at mobilising his base or does it represent a genuine shift from previous administrations Since Trump took office American counterterrorism has become more militaristic and less interested in causes and consequences Relationships with foreign partners have deteriorated and right wing extremists feel powerful and emboldened The most significant change of paradigm the conflation of terrorism immigration and Islam has not just resulted in costly failures such as the Muslim ban but also undermined the trust of immigrant communities and multiculturalism in the US In Bluster Peter Neumann assesses Trump's approach to countering terrorism and argues that his war on terror looks strong and powerful in the short term but will cause damage over time The president has not just failed to provide a strategic framework for defeating terrorism his entire approach has made the world less safe and undermined America's greatest soft power asset the very idea of America

Terrorizing Ourselves Benjamin H. Friedman, Jim Harper, Christopher A. Preble, 2010 The authors and outlooks collected in this volume represent the clearest most realistic most penetrating thought about America's response to terrorist threats The wider the audience is for views like these the closer the country will come to an effective sustainable policy for protecting its people and defending its values JAMES FALLOWS National Correspondent Atlantic Monthly

Paperbound Books in Print, 1991 Performing the Secular Milija Gluhovic, Jisha Menon, 2017-09-14 With a foreword from Rustom Bharucha this book is a timely anthology which aims to unsettle our habituated modes of thinking about the place of the secular in cultural productions The last decade alone has witnessed many religious protests against cultural productions which have led in some cases to the closure of theatre and opera performances Threats to artists led to the exile of Indian painter MF Husain and murder of Dutch film maker Theo van Gogh the controversy over the depiction of the Islamic prophet Muhammad in the Danish newspaper Jyllands Posten in 2005 led to the cancellation of performances of Mozart's Idomeneo

for the season Offering fresh and provocative readings that probe the limits and promise of secularity in relation to questions of performance politics and the public sphere this book will be invaluable to scholars who seek to understand the dramatic rise of politicized theology in our new century Pacific Fisherman ,1923
