The Balkans Beyond Nationalism and Identity Pavlos Hatzopoulos, 2007-12-19 For decades we have come to accept that nationalism formed the basis of the modern history of the Balkans In this bold and controversial study Pavlos Hatzopoulos turns this assumption on its head Through a ground breaking examination of the non nationalist ideologies in the Balkans during the interwar period Hatzopoulos calls into question the supposedly inherent connection between the Balkans and nationalism and argues that nationalism does not form the sole ordering principle of the modern history of the Balkan region Focusing on the ideologies of communism liberal internationalism and agrarianism Hatzopoulos examines how these interact with nationalist ideology He demonstrates how non nationalist theories challenge the nationalist view of the Balkans as the sum of several national spaces He even questions the nationalist understanding of the very term the Balkans The Balkans Beyond Nationalism and Identity revisits contemporary debates on a region that is still a European crisis point and challenges the nation centric understanding that permeates it In proposing a description of the Balkans as a contested political concept the book argues for a completely fresh interpretation of the region s composition

Constructing South East Europe Dimitar Bechev, 2011-03-15 Regional cooperation has become a distinctive feature of the Balkans an area known for its turbulent politics Exploring the origins and dynamics of this change this book highlights the transformative power of the EU and other international actors

International Organizations and Internal Conditionality R. Fawn, 2013-11-12 This book explores how norms based international organizations namely the Council of Europe and the OSCE are still able to win in world politics Fawn uses the concept of internal conditionality to explain how these organizations have been able to respond to members with a lack of material incentives or instruments of coercion

International Territorial Administration Ralph Wilde, 2010-09-30 This is the first comprehensive treatment of the reasons why international organizations have engaged in territorial administration The book describes the role of international territorial administration and analyses the various purposes associated with this activity revealing the objectives which territorial administration seeks to achieve

European Integration Beyond Brussels Matthew Broad, Suvi

Kansikas,2020-08-14 Europe is a continent whose history has in one form or another long been dominated by integration And yet the European integration process is often treated as synonymous with the evolution of just one particular and until recently geographically quite limited Western centred organisation the European Union EU This trend obscures the multitude of ways European states have acted collectively on both sides of the Iron Curtain and continue to do so throughout the continent today With contributors drawn from history and political science this book explores some of these diverse integration efforts beyond Brussels We shine a light on international organisations trade frameworks and various political social scientific and cultural forms of unity in both Eastern and Western Europe In so doing the book seeks to redefine the history of the European integration process not only as a less purely EU centric phenomenon but as a less strictly Western European one too EU Military, Intelligence and Special Forces Handbook Volume 1 Security, Intelligence Activities and Programs IBP USA,2013-08 2011 Updated Reprint Updated Annually EU Military and Special Forces Handbook

International Law Jan Wouters,Cedric Ryngaert,Tom Ruys,Geert De Baere,2018-12-13 This textbook offers for the first time a comprehensive analysis of the classic doctrines and main areas of international law from a European perspective meeting the needs of the many European law schools teaching public international law in English Special attention is devoted to the practice of the European Union the Council of Europe and European States both civil law and common law countries with regard to international law In particular the book analyses the interplay between international law EU law and national law in the case law of the Court of Justice of the EU the European Court of Human Rights and national jurisdictions in Europe It provides the reader with insights into how the international legal practice of the EU and its Member States impacts the development of international law both in terms of doctrines such as treaty making and customary law the exercise of extraterritorial jurisdiction state responsibility and the settlement of disputes as well as particular sub fields of international law such as human rights law and international economic law In addition the book covers other important areas such as the use of force and collective security the law of armed conflict and global and regional international organisations It provides European perspectives on all these issues and will be of great value to students scholars and practitioners IBSS:
