Chemà Madòz, 1998

Oddly enough, in the mere presence of the object there is a constant invitation to action, a silent gesture that invites reflection.

The object occupies that uncertain space halfway between reality and dream, and with its capacity to provide us with access to the most diverse perspectives, it is converted into a body through which our energies are channeled, a quality that will give it a great symbolic charge in which the spirit of our dreams appears and disappears.
