

The illustration depicts a person with long, wavy blonde hair and a human face, looking directly at the viewer. The torso is replaced by a complex mechanical structure with various gears, pipes, and a large circular component on the right side. The person is wearing a light blue, long-sleeved garment. Above the head is a halo of twelve small, circular coins arranged in a ring. The background is a solid dark color.

Women as Candidates in American Politics Susan J. Carroll,1994-05-22 In this second edition Susan Carroll updates her pioneering study of women candidates and their campaigns in the aftermath of the Year of the Woman Although in many regards the political climate has become vastly more favorable for female candidates opportunities are still limited by the political structure Carroll examines a number of possible reforms and actual developments which may eventually mean larger numbers of women being elected to public office American Book Publishing Record Cumulative, 1950-1977 R.R.

Bowker Company. Department of Bibliography,1978 Epistemologies and Ethics in Adult Education and Lifelong Learning Richard G. Bagnall,Steven Hodge,2022-02-17 This book presents and advocates for a framework of competing epistemologies and conceptions of ethics as a way of understanding modernist lifelong learning These epistemologies are grounded in a recognition of the normative nature of knowledge that informs lifelong learning each being framed by a different account of the sort of knowledge that is most valued and therefore foregrounded in lifelong learning policy provision and engagement informed by the epistemology Each epistemology is also characterised by its constituent conception of ethics Four such epistemologies and conceptions of ethics are here recognised as having been important in the lifelong learning movement to date disciplinary developmental emancipatory and design The authors argue that assumptions about knowledge and moral positions constitute a powerful but not well understood feature of such arguments awareness of these assumptions and positions could serve to powerfully advance the overall understanding of what is at stake in lifelong learning and adult education at all levels The National Union Catalog ,1973 Medical Research in the Veterans' Administration United

Teaching, learning and research Peter Jarvis,Colin Griffin,2003 Depicting the ways that adult education has evolved as society has changed and how it has been incorporated into lifelong learning this is a truly unique set that puts a stamp on an exciting field and important far reaching issues These five volumes represent a great advance to scholars as this is the first comprehensive overview of the field The set draws on books journals reports and historical papers to map the vast field of education for adults The writings included in the set have influenced the development of both the practice and the study of adult education from the Guilds to vocational education distance learning and leisure learning The collection also covers the recent emergence of corporations as new providers of education for adults with the corporate classroom corporate universities and consultancies A detailed index and new introduction by the editor will help the reader navigate this wealth of diverse material

The Sociology of Adult & Continuing Education Peter Jarvis, 2012-04-23 This book provides a comprehensive sociological overview of adult and continuing education It draws on all branches of sociology rather than advocating one approach It examines the theories of all the significant sociological writers in the field such as Knowles Marx Freire and Gramsci and sets them in the broader intellectual context It also considers the content of the curriculum in adult education and the place of adult education in society at large The author indicates the strengths and weaknesses of the different sociological perspectives and demonstrates how they can be used to analyse the function and purpose of adult and continuing education
