Politics and Institutions in an Integrated Europe Barry Eichengreen,Jeffry Frieden,J. Rgen V. Hagen,2011-05-13 The Politics of Europeanization Kevin Featherstone,Claudio M. Radaelli,2003-06-05 The Politics of Europeanization looks at the political aspects of European integration from the point of view of domestic politics In doing so it goes beyond the classic analysis of how policies are made in Brussels and raises instead the question what is the power of Europe in national contexts The questions at the heart of this volume are crucial both for our understanding of European integration and for their policy implications What does Europeanization really mean How can it be measured How is the European Union affecting domestic politics and policies in member states and candidate countries Is Europeanization an irreversible process Does it mean convergence across Europe How and why do differences remain The contributors explain and question the power of Europe by providing theoretical and empirical perspectives on domestic politics and institutions government and administration public policies political actors and business groups The volume contains a new research agenda for the nascent literature on Europeanization European Integration and Supranational Governance Wayne Sandholtz,Alec Stone

Sweet,1998-09-24 The European Union began in 1957 as a treaty among six nations but today constitutes a supranational polity one that creates rules that are binding on its 15 member countries and their citizens This majestic study confronts some of the most enduring questions posed by the remarkable evolution of the EU Why does policy making sometimes migrate from the member states to the European Union And why has integration proceeded more rapidly in some policy domains than in others A distinguished team of scholars lead by Wayne Sandholtz and Alec Stone Sweet offers a fresh theory and clear propositions on the development of the EU Combining broad data and probing case studies the volume finds solid support for these propositions in a variety of policy domains The coherent theoretical approach and extensive empirical analyses together constitute a significant challenge to approaches that see the EU as a straightforward product of member state interests power and bargaining This volume clearly demonstrates that a nascent transnational society and supranational institutions have played decisive roles in constructing the European Union
