The book reviews fundamental theoretical concepts of disinformation and analyzes the impact of new techniques of misinformation and the dissemination of false information in the public space. A group of distinguished authors provide case studies throughout the text to illustrate the effect of disinformation all around the world, including but not limited to Europe, the Middle East, and South America. The chapters include examination of topics such as the rise of populism, the increasing political influence of social networks, the use of fact checking to combat fake news, and echo chambers, and comparative analyses of how disinformation affects conservatives and liberals. A final case study examines all of these factors as they relate to the recent Spanish election of 2019 and how they affected the results. This book also includes a thorough introduction to the politics of disinformation and the relationship between disinformation and populism. An exploration of the democratic implications of networked persona construction and the likely reaction to disinformation by future journalists. Discussions of the third person effect and fake news in Spain, as well as perceptions, views, and definitions of fake news among Israeli conservatives and liberals. Public Service Broadcasting and Post-Authoritarian Indonesia Masduki, 2020-10-22 This book investigates public service broadcasting PSB models in post authoritarian regimes and offers a critical inspection of the development of a Western European originated PSB system in Asian transitional societies in particular in Indonesia since the 1990's Placing the case of Indonesia's PSB within the context of global media liberalization this book traces the development of public service broadcasting in post authoritarian societies including the arrival of neoliberal policy and the growth of media oligarchs that favour free market media systems over public interest media systems The book argues that Western European PSB models or BBC like models have travelled to new democracies and that autocratic legacies embedded in former state owned radio and television broadcasters have resisted pro democratic media pressures As such similar to new PSBs in other post colonial transitional and global south regimes such as in Arab states or Bangladesh this book demonstrates that the adoption of PSB in Indonesia has not reflected the ideal PSB project initially envisaged by media advocates but was flawed in both media policy and governance It explores the history of broadcast governance in authoritarian Indonesia and considers how Western European PSB or British Broadcasting Corporation BBC like models have travelled somewhat uneasily to new democracies but also how autocratic legacies embedded in former state owned radio and television channels have resisted external parties of pro democratic media systems
