

Politics

in a half made society

Trinidad and Tobago 1925-2001

A painting depicting three men standing on a dirt path in a lush, tropical landscape. The man on the left is wearing a dark shirt and trousers, holding a long object, possibly a cane or a tool. The man in the middle is wearing a light-colored shirt and trousers. The man on the right is wearing a dark suit and tie. They are standing on a dirt path that leads into the distance. The background features a dense forest with various trees, including palm trees, and a body of water in the distance. The sky is filled with soft, white clouds. The overall style is that of a traditional oil painting.

Critical Perspectives on Indo-Caribbean Women's Literature Joy Allison Indira Mahabir, Mariam Pirbhai, 2013 This book is the first collection on Indo Caribbean women's writing and the first work to offer a sustained analysis of the literature from a range of theoretical and critical perspectives such as ecocriticism feminist queer post colonial and Caribbean cultural theories The essays not only lay the framework of an emerging and growing field but also critically situate internationally acclaimed writers such as Shani Mootoo Lakshmi Persaud and Ramabai Espinet within this emerging tradition Indo Caribbean women writers provide a fresh new perspective in Caribbean literature be it in their unique representations of plantation history anti colonial movements diasporic identities feminisms ethnicity and race or contemporary Caribbean societies and culture The book offers a theoretical reading of the poetics politics and cultural traditions that inform Indo Caribbean women's writing arguing that while women writers work with and through postcolonial and Caribbean cultural theories they also respond to a distinctive set of influences and realities specific to their positioning within the Indo Caribbean community and the wider national regional and global imaginary Contributors visit the overlap between national and transnational engagements in Indo Caribbean women's literature considering the writers response to local or nationally specific contexts and the writers response to the diasporic and transnational modalities of Caribbean and Indo Caribbean communities

Labour and the Multiracial Project in the Caribbean Sara Abraham, 2007-01-01 Labour and The Multiracial Project in the Caribbean covers major twentieth century political developments in Trinidad and Tobago and Guyana It pays particular attention to social movements class formation and new emancipatory ideas on liberation from colonial legacies in political structure and racial division

The Encyclopedia of Caribbean Religions Patrick Taylor, Frederick I. Case, 2013-04-30 The Encyclopedia of Caribbean Religions is the definitive reference for Caribbean religious phenomena from a Caribbean perspective Generously illustrated this landmark project combines the breadth of a comparative approach to religion with the depth of understanding of Caribbean spirituality as an ever changing and varied historical phenomenon Organized alphabetically entries examine how Caribbean religious experiences have been shaped by and have responded to the processes of colonialism and the challenges of the postcolonial world Systematically organized by theme and area the encyclopedia considers religious traditions such as Vodou Rastafari Sunni Islam Sanatan Dharma Judaism and the Roman Catholic and Seventh day Adventist churches Detailed subentries present topics such as religious rituals beliefs practices specific historical developments geographical differences and gender roles within major traditions Also included are entries that address the religious dimensions of geographical territories that make up the Caribbean Representing the culmination of more than a decade of work by the associates of the Caribbean Religions Project The Encyclopedia of Caribbean Religions will foster a greater understanding of the role of religion in Caribbean life and society in the Caribbean diaspora and in wider national and transnational spaces

Social Media in Trinidad Jolynna Sinanan, 2017-11-21 Drawing on 15 months of ethnographic research in one of the most under developed regions in the Caribbean island of Trinidad this book describes the uses and consequences of social media for its residents Jolynna Sinanan argues that this semi urban town is a place in between somewhere city dwellers look down on and villagers look up to The complex identity of the town is expressed through uses of social media with significant results for understanding social media more generally Not elevating oneself above others is one of the core values of the town and social media becomes a tool for social visibility that is the process of how social norms come to be and how they are negotiated Carnival logic and high impact visuality is pervasive in uses of social media even if Carnival is not embraced by all Trinidadians in the town and results in presenting oneself and association with different groups in varying ways The study also has surprising results in how residents are explicitly non activist and align themselves with everyday values of maintaining good relationships in a small town rather than espousing more worldly or cosmopolitan values

Violent Waters: Literary Border Crossings in a Global Age Alexandra Campana, 2020-08-10 The experience of witnessing and undertaking border crossings has become a pillar of the contemporary human condition In order to respond to our global multidimensional social reality writers need to generate innovative forms of narration that expand the confines of literary tradition This study discusses four types of border crossing migration intercultural dialogue multicultural identities military invasion and presents literary aesthetics that unfold in Algeria China France Germany Romania Switzerland Trinidad and Tobago the UK and the USA These analyses move from the fall of the Iron Curtain to the rise of the internet and from the turn of the millennium to the terrorist attacks of 9 11 and the wars in Afghanistan and Iraq Positioned in the field of comparative literature this book draws upon an extensive background of theoretical thought e g Adorno Horkheimer Arendt Dawkins Fanon Freud Kristeva i ek and reaches into other academic disciplines such as religious studies Border crossings thus serve as both theme and methodology which not only leads to a new definition of post modern writing but also underlines literature s relevance in a global society driven by public discourse

Social Movements and the Indian Diaspora Movindri Reddy, 2015-11-19 With the elevation of Islam and Muslim transnational networks in international affairs from the rise of Al Qaeda to the revolutions in North Africa and the Middle East the study of Diasporas and transnational identities has become more relevant Using case studies from Fiji Mauritius Trinidad and South Africa this book explores the diaspora identities and impact of social movements on politics and nationalism among indentured Indian diaspora It analyses the way in which diasporas are defined by themselves and others and the types of social movements they participate in showing how these are critical indicators of the threat they are perceived to pose The book examines the notions of national and transnational identity and how they are determined by the placement of Diasporas in the transnational locality It argues that the transnationality intrinsic to diaspora identities mark them as others in the nation state and simultaneously separates them from the perceived motherland thus displacing them from both states and situating them in a transnational locality It is from this placement that social movements among Diasporas gain salience As outsiders and insiders they are well placed to offer a formidable challenge to the host state but these challenges are limited by their hybrid identities and perceived divided loyalties Providing an in depth analysis of Indian Diasporas the book will be of interest to those studying South Asian Studies Migration and Diaspora Studies

Language Diversity Giuseppe Balirano, 2015-04-01 Language Diversity Identities Genres Discourses is a suggestive title for another book in the field of linguistics but what does it actually mean By choosing to speak of Language Diversity and not just of difference otherness varieties multiplicity hybridity or alterity the editors cover the whole range of meanings in the entire field of diversity They do not wish to limit themselves by using such specific words with increasingly specialised connotations as Alterity or Other but rather to allow an eclectic range of perspectives and issues to come to the fore This volume brings together some of the manifold discourses emerging as bearers of the values of alterity by exploring the thorny relationship between Language and Diversity Drawing on the crucial assumption that speakers identities are dynamically negotiated as discourse unfolds Language Diversity explores the wide theme of identity in discourse an area of investigation which has become increasingly popular in recent years A key theme in assembling this volume was that the relationship between diversity and identity cannot be alienated from the factual distribution of material resources in society All contributions in the volume carefully selected and peer reviewed at least partially react to such critical scenery in order to explore the topics surrounding the modes in which diversity is linguistically articulated by and in discourse The various studies deal with how individuals draw on linguistic resources to achieve maintain or challenge representations pertaining to their cultural social ethnic sexual gender professional or institutional identities The volume comprises six sections In the News In Politics Constructing Identities Across Generations and Genders Ethnicities and Popularising Ideas Each section reflects the choice of the various topics through the employment of a variety of methodologies and a variety of theoretical frameworks As such this volume is an innovative attempt to challenge the present day underpinnings of diversity studies

Intersectionality and "Race" in Education Kalwant Bhopal, John Preston, 2012-01-25 Education is a controversial subject in which difficult and contested discourses are the norm Individuals in education experience multiple inequalities and have diverse identifications that cannot necessarily be captured by one theoretical perspective alone This edited collection draws on empirical and theoretical research to examine the intersections of race gender and class alongside other aspects of personhood within education Contributors from the fields of education and sociology seek to locate the dimensions of difference and identity within recent theoretical discourses such as Critical Race Theory Judith Butler and queer theory post structural approaches and multicultural models as they analyze whiteness and the education experience of minority ethnic groups By combining a mix of intellectually rigorous accessible and controversial chapters this book presents a distinctive and engaging voice one that seeks to broaden the understanding of education research beyond the confines of the education sphere into an arena of sociological and cultural discourse

Transforming Urban Waterfronts Gene Desfor, Jennefer Laidley, Quentin Stevens, Dirk Schubert, 2010-10-04 The collection engages with major theoretical debates and empirical findings on how waterfronts transform and have been transformed in port cities in North and South America Europe and the Caribbean It brings together authors from a broad range of disciplinary backgrounds to tackle vital questions of waterfront development

Caliban and the Yankees Harvey R. Neptune, 2009-11-30 In a compelling story of the installation and operation of U S bases in the Caribbean colony of Trinidad during World War II Harvey Neptune examines how the people of this British island contended with the colossal force of American empire building at a critical time in the island s history The U S military occupation between 1941 and 1947 came at the same time that Trinidadian nationalist politics sought to project an image of a distinct independent and particularly un British cultural landscape The American intervention Neptune shows contributed to a tempestuous scene as Trinidadians deliberately engaged Yankee personnel paychecks and practices flooding the island He explores the military based economy relationships between U S servicemen and Trinidadian women and the influence of American culture on local music especially calypso fashion labor practices and everyday racial politics Tracing the debates about change among ordinary and privileged Trinidadians he argues that it was the poor the women and the youth who found the most utility in and moved most avidly to make something new out of the American presence Neptune also places this history of Trinidad s modern times into a wider Caribbean and Latin American perspective highlighting how Caribbean peoples sometimes wield America and American ways as part of their localized struggles

Sex and the Citizen Faith L. Smith, 2011-04-29 Sex and the Citizen is a multidisciplinary collection of essays that draws on current anxieties about legitimate sexual identities and practices across the Caribbean to explore both the impact of globalization and the legacy of the region s history of sexual exploitation during colonialism slavery and indentureship Speaking from within but also challenging the assumptions of feminism literary and cultural studies and queer studies this volume questions prevailing oppositions between the backward homophobic nation state and the laid back service with a smile paradise or between giving in ignominiously to the autocratic demands of the global north and equating postcolonial sovereignty with a wholesome heterosexual citizenry The contributors

Caribbean Integration from Crisis to Transformation and Repositioning Kenneth Hall, Myrtle Chuck-A-Sang, 2012 This collection entitled Caribbean Integration From Crisis to Transformation and Repositioning captures the thinking of and prescriptions offered by some of the best minds of the Caribbean and further afield at a Conference held at The University of the West Indies in 2011 under the theme The Caribbean and the Commonwealth Collective Responsibility for the 21st Century In examining the challenges faced by the Region in moving the Integration process forward a number of papers boldly assess what needs to be done to avert the crisis which threatened the Caribbean as they advocate for a rethinking of the strategies currently employed by the Caribbean Community This book is highly recommended to senior policy makers serious academicians and a public deeply interested in the challenges and triumphs of the Caribbean peoples

Home-based Economic Activities and Caribbean Urban Livelihoods Hebe Verrest, 2007 Poor urban households in the economic south deploy various livelihood activities One of these is a Home Based Economic Activity HBEA e.g. sales of home made snacks or car maintenance This study examines the prevalence organisation and relevance of HBEAs in four neighbourhoods in the Caribbean cities Paramaribo Suriname and Port of Spain Trinidad and Tobago Recent economic developments in these countries diverge Suriname recovers slowly from a crisis while Trinidad and Tobago's economy is buoyant These economic features together with local political developments have produced distinct institutional contexts This gives ground for a comparison between the two cities In addition the study discusses the relevance of currently popular policies on entrepreneurship and micro finance The above issues have been assessed through use of multiple quantitative and qualitative methods The study shows that forty percent of households in the examined neighbourhoods earn money through operating HBEAs These are mainly operated by women and assist households in improving their livelihoods from a level of survival to a level of security Most HBEA operators aim at earning additional incomes and reducing vulnerability Only a small group meets the image of the classic operator who innovates takes risk and aims at growth and profit The two groups organize their HBEA in very distinct ways Differences between Suriname and Trinidad and Tobago are small First of all economic growth has limited impact on assets and vulnerability of low income groups Moreover policies aiming at stimulation of entrepreneurship such as micro credit are relevant to classic entrepreneurs and not to the large group of security seeking HBEA operators

The Dilemmas of Ethnic Policy John Gaffar La Guerre, 2017-01-03 The Dilemmas of Ethnic Policy A Global Perspective argues that ethnic conflict increases or decreases in relation to changes in the social structure and the location and distribution of political power Ethnic grievances derive from lack of access to valued resources and elites play a crucial role in allocating those resources This book examines the experiences of five countries with a history of ethnic conflict former Yugoslavia Bosnia Herzegovina Guyana Trinidad and Tobago and the United States It finds that in many cases solutions adopted to mitigate ethnic conflict have unintended consequences Often supposed solutions confuse cause and effect and in fact worsen ethnic conflict Attempts to address identity issues by pandering to them often led to further ethnic demands This book argues that based on the experiences of the countries under examination the best course is to adopt policies that encourage alliances between and among ethnic groups

V. S. Naipaul's Journeys Sanjay Krishnan, 2020-02-04 The author of more than thirty books of fiction and nonfiction and winner of the Nobel Prize in Literature V S Naipaul 1932 2018 is one of the most acclaimed authors of the twentieth century He is also one of the most controversial Before settling in England Naipaul grew up in Trinidad in an Indian immigrant community and his depiction of colonized peoples has often been harshly judged by critics as unsympathetic misguided racist and sexist Yet other readers praise his work as containing uncommonly perceptive historical and psychological insight In V S Naipaul's Journeys Sanjay Krishnan offers new perspectives on the distinctiveness and power of Naipaul's writing as well as his shortcomings trajectory and complicated legacy While recognizing the flaws and prejudices that shaped and limited Naipaul's life and art this book challenges the binaries that have dominated discussions of his writing Krishnan reads Naipaul as self subverting and self critical engaged in describing his own implication in what he saw as the malaise of the postcolonial world Krishnan brings together close readings of major novels with considerations of Naipaul's work as a united project as well as nuanced assessments of Naipaul's political commentary on ethnic nationalism and religious fundamentalism Krishnan provides a Naipaul for contemporary times illustrating how his life and work shed light on debates regarding migration diversity sectarianism displacement and other global challenges

Postcolonialism, Indigeneity and Struggles for Food Sovereignty Marisa Wilson, 2016-10-04 This book explores connections between activist debates about food sovereignty and academic debates about alternative food networks The ethnographic case studies demonstrate how divergent histories and geographies of people in place open up or close off possibilities for alternative sovereign food spaces illustrating the globally uneven and varied development of industrial capitalist food networks and of everyday forms of subversion and accommodation How for example do relations between alternative food networks and mainstream industrial capitalist food networks differ in places with contrasting histories of land appropriation trade governance and consumer identities to those in Europe and non indigenous spaces of New Zealand or the United States How do indigenous populations negotiate between maintaining a sense of moral connectedness to their agri and acqua cultural landscapes and subverting or indeed appropriating industrial capitalist approaches to food By delving into the histories geographies and everyday worlds of post colonial peoples the book shows how colonial power relations of the past and present create more opportunities for some alternative producer consumer and state market civil society relations than others
