Preaching The Gospel Without Easy Answers:

Preaching the Gospel Without Easy Answers Robert C. Neville, 2005 Demonstrates the power of the gospel to engage the world's problems through hard edged thinking and authentic proclamation Easy answers and simple solutions abound in this world yet Robert Neville reminds us that the world is itself neither easy nor simple It is a place of complex problems and thorny difficulties While pat answers and platitudes satisfy some there are many others who seek a faith that grapples with real issues in all their complexity and ambiguity Preaching to those who seek these kinds of answers requires tough intellectual engagement and forthright honesty In this book Neville models that kind of preaching revealing the tools and resources necessary to preach to a congregation and community looking for a more authentic faith to lead them through a confusing and challenging world Robert Cumming Neville is Dean of Marsh Chapel and Professor of Philosophy Religion and Theology at Boston University School of Theology

Seasons of the Christian Life Robert Cummings Neville, 2016-07-04 Once liberal Christianity was preached in ways that defined it in the public eye Now Christianity is identified almost exclusively with its conservative expressions Seasons of the Christian Life presents a series of sermons articulating a liberal Christianity over against its conservative neighbors They were preached at the University Church Marsh Chapel at Boston University save for one preached in Memorial Church at Harvard during the 2004 2005 academic year when President George W Bush was reelected and the country was at war in Iraq and Afghanistan and at war with terrorists wherever they could be imagined The sermons follow the Revised Common Lectionary and focus on biblical interpretation as it is applied to the then current spiritual cultural social and political situation The author is a professor of theology and at the time was Dean of Marsh Chapel and Chaplain of the University

The Kerygmatic Spirit Amos Yong, 2018-11-06 This collection of fifteen sermons by one of the leading pentecostal theologians today provides insight into the form style and content of preaching in the pentecostal tradition while also being suggestive of normative homiletical theory and practice The Kerygmatic Spirit argues that Spirit empowered preaching is apostolic not only with regard to being rooted in the scriptural traditions but also with regard to connecting the that of the early Christian message with the this of contemporary experience and discipleship Hence rather than only reflecting pentecostal preaching of the sort that happens in the pulpits of churches connected to the modern movement by that name these sermons are presented as the participating in the form of gospel proclamation inspired and empowered by the divine Spirit poured out on all flesh on the Day of Pentecost by the risen Christ from the right hand of the Father Whether read or heard there are links to video and audio archives throughout these homilies are illustrative of exegetical and expositional practice that connects the biblical text with Spirit filled faithfulness in the twenty first century ecumenical church and world at large

Preaching without Borders Ryan Roach, 2022-09-08 Though the United States has been a relatively diverse nation Americans have historically lived close to those who are ethnically and culturally like them The unfortunate effects of slavery Jim Crow segregation housing discrimination prejudice and bigotry have been key reasons for demographic divisions While divisions remain communities that were once monoethnic are experiencing changes that are enriching The challenge for these communities is to work to break down barriers that prevent lasting authentic relationships resulting in spiritual growth Churches in these communities are at a crossroads and face a choice do they keep doing what is comfortable despite the changes in their neighborhoods or do they work to resemble their neighbors Preaching Without Borders addresses the challenges preachers face when they attempt to be faithful to the text while contextualizing it so that people of every nation tribe and tongue can be transformed Jesus

A Handbook for Catholic Preaching Edward Foley, 2016-11-02 While admitting particular parameters and priorities for Roman Catholic preachers this volume was intentionally envisioned as a handbook for catholic preaching in the broadest and most universal sense of that term Cosponsored by the Catholic Academy of Liturgy the Catholic Association of Teachers of Homiletics and the Federation of Diocesan Liturgical Commissions it covers the role of the Scriptures in preaching the challenges of preaching in a digital age sermonizing in an interfaith context and the need for a liberative and prophetic word that cuts across denominations and even faith traditions Intended to aid those who teach or direct the preaching arts the design and writing style of this book are particularly calibrated to graduate students in ministerial studies Every article is a self contained overview of a particular historical period genre of preaching homiletic theory or contemporary issue This more encyclopedic approach devoid of footnotes yet supported by pertinent bibliography and an extensive index provides a sufficiently rich yet thoroughly accessible gateway to major facets of the preaching arts at this stage of the twenty first century General Editor Edward Foley Associate Editors Catherine Vincie Richard N Fragomeni Contributors Herbert Anderson John F Baldovin Alden Lee Bass Dianne Bergant Stephen Bevans Robert Bireley John Carr Anthony Collamati Michael E Connors Guerric DeBona Frank DeSiano William T Ditewig Con Foley Edward Foley Richard N Fragomeni Ann M Garrido Gregory Heille Lucy Lind Hogan Patrick R Lagges David J Lose Barbara K Lundblad Ricky Manalo Robert F Morneau Carolyn Muessig vanThanh Nguyen Mary Margaret Pazdan Patricia Parachini Jorge Presmanes Craig Alan Satterlee Catherine Vincie Richard Vosko James A Wallace Margaret Moers Wenig Alex Zenthoef

God the Created Benjamin J. Chicka, 2022-02-01 In God the Created Benjamin Chicka develops a method of inquiry and program for theology that he labels pragmatic constructive realism While influenced most heavily by American pragmatism especially that of Charles S Peirce Chicka s method draws upon a variety of sources ranging from Plato to Karl Popper Paul Tillich and the field of biosemiotics Chicka presents pragmatic constructive realism as a means of moving past binary debates between realism and antirealism in both philosophy and theology and its fruitfulness is displayed by examining the philosophical theologies of John Cobb and Robert Cummings Neville The result of that engagement is a novel hypothesis about God that embraces legitimate criticisms of both process theology Cobb and ground of being theology Neville while integrating insights from both ways of thinking God s transcendence and immanence indeterminacy and determinacy are fully affirmed The entire argument serves as an example of why a fallible and pluralistic form of theology one that embraces and learns from difference instead of trying to eliminate it is important for the future of theology The Legacy of Hans Jonas Hava Tirosh-Samuelson, Christian Wiese, 2008-06-25 An international interdisciplinary and interreligious retrospective examination of Hans Jonas 1903 1993 that engages his ideas in light of Existentialism utopian thought process philosophy and theology Zionism and environmentalism C.S. Peirce and the Nested Continua Model of Religious Interpretation Gary Slater, 2015-11-26 This study develops resources in the work of Charles S Peirce 1839 1914 for the purposes of contemporary philosophy It contextualizes Peirce s prevailing influences and provides greater context in relation to the currents of nineteenth century thought Dr Gary Slater articulates a nested continua model for theological interpretation which is indebted to Peirce s creation of Existential Graphs a system of diagrams designed to provide visual representation of the process of human reasoning He investigates how the model can be applied by looking at recent debates in historiography He deals respectively with Peter Ochs and Robert C Neville as contemporary manifestations of Peircean philosophical theology This work concludes with an assessment of the model s theological implications *The Complete Sermons of C.
